ADAMS EXPRESS ROBBER.

Was Betrayed by a Friend—More of the Money Recovered.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 21.—The chances that the police will recover nearly the whole of the $101,000 stolen from the Adams Express Co. in Pittsburg by Edward G. Cunliffe, who was arrested here Thursday and taken to Pittsburg, seem bright.

Last night $9,065 was found in a trunk belonging to a butler in a prominent family at Black Rock, but the butler and the family by whom he is employed were ignorant of the fact that the large sum found was within the house.

Although there is a possibility that the remaining $10,500 has been destroyed, the police are of the opinion that an accomplice of Cunliffe may reveal the hiding place of the missing sum. In round numbers $90,000 has been found within the past 24 hours. After figuring on about $500 as the amount which was spent, or which was found on him when arrested, there is left a sum of $10,500 yet to be accounted for.

The discovery of the money in the Black Rock home last night was brought about by keeping a close watch on one of Cunliffe's chance acquaintances, George Eissosman, who was with Cunliffe when he was arrested.

According to Eissosman's story he met Cunliffe in a cheap hotel Wednesday night, the two being together for some time. Cunliffe had a package with him and as the men were about to separate Cunliffe said that he wanted Eissosman to take care of the package, as it was laundry which he wanted to keep in a safe place. Eissosman took the bundle to his sister's house, 688 Nash street, and when alone opened it and found the big sum of money.

Captain Arnold, of the detective force, who knows Eissosman and saw him with Cunliffe when the latter was taken, went to the home of Eissosman's sister and found the bundle of shirts, but no money, and he suspected that Eissosman had abstracted part of Cunliffe's plunder. Eissosman was shadowed all day, and he was seen to give a small package to his friend the butler. Last night Eissosman was taken to the Black Rock house and asked the butler for the package. He went to his trunk and turned it over to Captain Arnold in fact. The butler had not been told what was in the package. Captain Arnold would not reveal the name of the butler or the family which employed him.

Eissosman was taken to police headquarters in connection with the capture of Cunliffe. Two other new features of the capture of Cunliffe cropped out last night, one being an attempt by Cunliffe to bribe Captain George

Arnold of the local detective force, and the other being the story of betrayal by a friend of Cunliffe for the purpose of securing the reward of $2,500 offered by the Pinkertons for the arrest. During one of the talks which Captain Arnold had with Cunliffe last night, the prisoner made a proposition to divide the $80,000 which he had sent to his brother-in-law, Joseph W. Boardman, in Bristol, on the promise of secrecy.

Arnold led the prisoner on in his wild proposition, and after Cunliffe's plans were laid bare, the detective told Cunliffe that the money he intended to split up already had been found in Bristol.

The betrayal of Cunliffe by his friend, James Missett, is interesting. Missett formerly lived in Bristol and knew Cunliffe well. Last Tuesday Missett went in the Tremont Hotel bar-room and saw Cunliffe standing at the bar. Missett called him by name, but Cunliffe pretended not to know him. The next morning Missett went to New York, and on reaching there visited the Pinkerton agency in Broadway.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I know where Cunliffe is, and I want to know what reward is offered for him."

He was told $2,500. The Pinkerton people thought at first that Missett was a crank, but he assured them that he was in earnest, and said that if the Pinkertons would give him a written agreement that he would get the reward if he told where the missing man could be found, he would do so. This was agreed to, and Missett told them. The arrest of Cunliffe followed.

Last night Missett returned to New York with the $2,500 reward and proceeded to spend it lavishly throughout the lower part of the city.

RELEASED FROM CUSTODY.

Halifax, Oct. 21.—(Special)—A cable message has been received at Yarmouth from S. H. Pelton, K. C., who was sent to Montevideo by the Canadian government, in connection with the seizure by the Uruguayan authorities of the sealing schooner Agnes Donohoe, announcing his departure for Canada via London.

Captain Ryan and the schooner were released after Mr. Pelton's arrival there and are now on their way to Halifax.

MR. BORDEN'S TROUBLES.

Halifax Herald Repudiates Conservative Leader.

Halifax, Oct. 21.—The movement to depose Mr. R. L. Borden as leader of the Opposition is apparently not confined to Quebec.

Ever since the indemnity increases were announced there have been murmurings of dissatisfaction against Mr. Borden among Nova Scotia Conservatives, who bitterly resented his acceptance of the $7,000 salary. Veiled criticism has appeared in The Herald, the Conservative organ, from time to time, but it is now out with what is virtually a repudiation of the leader.

Its article has created the political sensation of the hour, as it in effect says that Mr. Borden does not voice the opinions of the party in Nova Scotia. It commends the action of Mr. C. E. Tanner, leader of the Opposition in the Local House, in condemning the salary grab and raid on the treasury, and says he voices the views of the whole Conservative party of this Province. Continuing, it says: "Conservatives of Nova Scotia are thus absolutely free to express their condemnation of this gross abuse of power on the part of members of Parliament at Ottawa, and the party is to be congratulated on having a leader who has placed the view of the party on this subject clearly before the whole Province."

It would not be surprising if Mr. Tanner issued a manifesto repudiating Mr. Borden as leader on account of the latter's support of the salary bill, in the hope of gaining political advantage at the next local election.

PLEDGED TO COSTIGAN.

Mr. McDade Cannot Under Present

Conditions Aid His Friends to Secure Him a Seat in the Senate.

Mr. M. McDade in the New Freeman, referring to the boom, his friends have started to make him a senator says: "It will not be possible for him (McDade) however, under present conditions to do anything personally to second their efforts to make him a member of the Senate of Canada. Enjoying the personal friendship and confidence of Hon. John Costigan, Mr. McDade understands fully on what Mr. Costigan bases his expectation for a senatorship. He has pledged himself to that gentleman in regard to the matter and he could not without, as he sees it, the loss of self respect be a party to any movement that might possibly interfere with the appointment to the Senate of Mr. Costigan. He certainly would not until he had heard from Mr. Costigan that the latter was no longer in the running for a seat in the Senate. In the meantime, he is as strongly as ever of the opinion that, all things considered, there is no man in Canada better fitted to represent the Catholic people of the province in the Senate than the Hon. John Costigan."

RACED WITH A MOOSE.

Miss Porter, Driving on St. Martins Road, is Challenged by Monarch of the Woods.

It is seldom a horse is matched against a lordly moose in a trial of speed, nevertheless, a race between the two occurred on the St. Martins road on Thursday last says the St. John Telegraph. A St. Martins correspondent writes of the occurrence. It is not stated whether the horse had any "Pan Patch" blood in his veins, but what is chronicled is the fact that one of the fair sex held the ribbons over the flyer.

Miss Bell Porter was driving cityward on the St. Martins road on the day mentioned, when suddenly on passing Sullivan's field a very large bull moose came out of the woods crossed the fields and trotted along inside of the fence about the right, finding that it was not difficult to "hold" the horse, the big animal jumped the fence a few feet ahead of the carriage. But Miss Porter, not to be so easily beaten, whipped up and the race continued.

For a quarter of a mile the unfettered beast held the lead, then the pace was too hot for him, and as John Mannett's orchard was reached he again took the inside of the fence, slowed down, cleared another fence and, after turning around and taking a good look at his pursuer, strolled leisurely back to the woods. The moose is said to have been an exceedingly large one. It is thought that it is the same one as seen in the vicinity of Ten Mile Creek a short time ago weighing probably about 1,800 pounds.

The storm which Thursday and Friday swept over northern Lake Michigan, Lake Huron and Lake Erie, was one of the most severe in recent years. As far as returns are obtainable, eleven vessels have been completely wrecked and twelve or fifteen others were more or less seriously damaged. Twelve lives are known to have been lost, and the gale on southern Lake Huron and Lake Erie was still blowing fiercely Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Edgcombe, who attended the meeting of the Canadian Ticket Agents' Association at Portland, are at present in Montreal, and are expected home early next week.

Policeman Rideout is enjoying a well earned vacation and his place on the force is being filled by Bruce McFarlane.

The Toronto Globe's Ottawa special says Mr. Blair has resigned the position of managing director of the Henderson Roller Bearing Company, Toronto. To the Globe Mr. Blair said: "In August last I intimated to my fellow directors my wish to retire, because the position was one which took me a great deal from home, and it was out of the question for me to move to Toronto. However I had a serious attack of grip, which incapacitated me for some time and prevented me from giving that attention to the duties of the office which I deemed necessary. The verbal intimation I gave was afterwards followed by a written resignation." He may go to Cuba for a few weeks and on his return open a law office in the capital.

E. St. George Tucker, a well known commission broker at Halifax, was found dead in the dressing room of the Church of England Institute Friday afternoon. The janitor of the building went into the basement to turn on the water and almost stumbled over the prostrate form of Mr. Tucker. He had been under medical treatment for mental depression, and a bottle of carbolic acid was found at his side. Mr. Tucker was highly esteemed in business and social circles. He was a vestryman of St. Luke's church. A widow survives.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
