

LIBERALITY TO GREAT CAUSE.

International Sunday School Convention at Toronto.

SUBSCRIBED MANY THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS FOR PRACTICAL WORK.

The Closing Rallies of the Convention.

Toronto Globe, Wednesday.—After a day's session made memorable by largely increased pledges for the forward movement in Sunday school work by the decision to go to Louisville, Kentucky, in 1908, and concluding with twin missionary meetings at Massey Hall and the Metropolitan Church, the International Sunday School Association concluded its work last night.

The theme of "winning in a generation," which was prominent in all the sessions, was well to the front throughout the day, and the substantial reality of the motto was twice shown in liberal gifts. The conviction was expressed by resolution that the question of most profound importance before the Sunday schools was the systematic training of the teacher, and in keeping with that a Committee on Education and a Teacher-training General Secretary will be appointed by the new Executive.

Massey Hall was crowded to the fullest extent of its accommodation for the closing meeting last night.

The speech of the evening was made by Rev. D. Webster Davis, a powerful colored orator, pastor of the Second Baptist church in Richmond, Va. He drew smiles from Shakespeare, illustrations from Homer, and wound up with a splendid peroration from Isaiah, telling of the complete and final consummation of all good. The address was an appeal for his race, based on the claim of what they had done and were capable of doing. He pictured the negro's valor in war and faithfulness in peace, telling of the charge of a black regiment on San Juan Hill, and of the way they protected the southern homes in the days of the war. "Not one case of the nameless crime was ever known in the days of the war, although the whole southland was in our control."

The negro's advance was shown by the 2,000 doctors, 3,000 lawyers, 75,000 business men and 750,000 homes all paid for in the United States. The address was concluded amid prolonged and uproarious applause.

"We will now turn from Ham to Ishmael," the Chairman announced, and he called forward Rev. Archibald Forder, English Wesleyan missionary to the Arabs for fourteen years. "Because of the obscurity of the Arab, I am here to speak for him to-night." The Arabs, he said, were one of the visible demonstration of God's word. The 13,000,000 people of the race of Ishmael were the fulfillment of a promise to Abraham. Their third deliverance yet remained to be made. The relation of the Sunday school to that deliverance should be fourfold: to go into all the world, to pray that laborers be sent, to give freely, and to work while it was called today. Mr. Forder said from New York for Arabia next Saturday.

At the close of hymn sung at the conclusion of Mr. Forder's address, a delegate from Missouri arose and said that after consultation with his friends he pledged $50 a year to Mr. Forder's work. That inspired Mr. Hartshorn to tell the story of Mr. Forder's work in the Boston churches last year, where he had raised $1,000 for his mission. Mr. Marion Lawrence began an effort to raise another $1,000 in last night's meeting. He soon got pledges amounting to $500, and asked for gifts of $1 and less to be taken at the door.

President J. A. B. Scherer, L.L.D., of Newberry College, Newberry, S.C. made "The Duty of Young America to Young Japan" the theme of a powerful address. The closing words were spoken by Chairman W. M. Hartshorn and Vice-Chairman I. K. Warren, who announced that the next world's convention would be held at Rome in the spring of 1907, and all its sessions as at Jerusalem in 1904 would be conducted in the English language. Dr. Potts pronounced the benediction, and the eleventh international convention was at an end.

The subscription for Sunday school work during the meeting reached $60,000.

TO CURE FEVER CHILLS.
And such complaints as "Shivers" and ague we recommend Nerviline very highly. Twenty drops of Nerviline taken in hot water with a little sugar three times daily not only cures the chills, but knocks out the disease completely. Nerviline has a direct action on fever chills and removes the conditions causing them. Nerviline never fails. It's pleasant to the taste, quick to relieve and always cures permanently. "Speer, he's a whole tornado." These words, which fell from the lips of one of the United States delegates as the large congregation were filing out of the Metropolitan Church at the conclusion of the final twin mass meeting, summed up bluntly but graphically the characteristics of the speaker whose fiery eloquence had thrilled all present with the supreme importance of the claims of missionary work in its application to the work of the Sunday school.

Mr. Robert E. Speer, Associate Secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Mission, New York, whose speech made such a fitting climax to a successful convention, is quite a young man, but every word and every gesture has the stamp of earnestness and sincerity upon it, and his stirring exhortations are likely to have a lasting effect on all who heard them. Christ's command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel," was his main theme. There were thirteen million people, he showed, who were enlisted in the Sunday school movement. If every one of these gave a contribution of two cents a week, and if one out of every thousand of them became a missionary, they would have force and means sufficient to accomplish the evangelization of the whole of the non-Christian world in one generation. The speaker referred to the heroism of workers in the mission field, and remarked, "We are writing to day a book of Acts as real and canonical as any book of Acts ever was written." He emphasized the imperative Christian duty to associate missionary work with that of the Sunday school, pointing out that the Sunday school of today is the church of tomorrow.

Stirring missionary addresses were also given by the Rev. E. E. Chivers, D.D., New York, of the Baptist Home Missionary Society, and the Rev. Chancery Murch, missionary, of Luxor, Egypt.

The next convention will meet at Louisville, Ky., in 1908. That was the decision of the delegates at yesterday morning's session. The utmost good humor and friendly rivalry prevailed throughout the taking of the votes, and when the result was announced that on the final vote Louisville was the choice the San Francisco and Winona Lake representatives moved that Louisville be made the unanimous choice of the convention, and to that a full and complete assent was given. There were four invitations—Hot Springs, Ark., Louisville, Ky., San Francisco, Cal., and Winona Lake, Ind.

Hot Springs lost on the first show of hands, but the vote looked close; for the other three. The final vote was taken on San Francisco and Louisville, and stood at 647 for the Kentucky city and 469 for the west coast city.

Mr. Marion Lawrence, the General Secretary of the association announced that the pledges of Monday's meeting amounted to over $60,000, and that was supplemented at Monday night's meeting of the Executive Committee, when $6000 more was subscribed. They wanted to raise the sum of $75,000 at this convention. If they got the money they would send a Secretary to Japan and two more Secretaries among the negroes of the south.

Mr. Lawrence called for pledges, and they began to rain in by fifties and hundreds. The negroes of Georgia gave $25, and the Manitoba delegates $50. Newfoundland's gift for Japan was $50. Ontario gave her pledge of $100 per annum. Pennsylvania took the last hundred and Michigan the last fifty, and after that the smaller sums rained in, giving an excess of pledges. The great audience rose and sang "Praise God, From Whom All Blessings flow," with a fervor born of gratitude and good deeds. "This is a paying investment," called out a delegate on the platform. "Those Japs will fight the devil the way they fought the Russians when they are converted." A motion was passed turning the foreign work over to the World's Sunday School union.

ALL SICK WOMEN

SHOULD READ MISS SCHWALM'S LETTER
in All Parts of Canada Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Effected Similar Cures.

Many wonderful cures of female ills are continually coming to light which have been brought about by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and through the advice of Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., which is given to sick women absolutely free of charge.

Mrs. Pinkham has for many years made a study of the ills of her sex; she has consulted with and advised thousands of suffering women, who to-day owe not only their health but even life to her helpful advice.

Miss Annie E. Schwalm, of 326 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a specific for Leucorrhoea, with which I have been troubled for years. I also had irregular and painful menstruation which affected my general health until last spring. I was only a wreck of my former self. In my affliction I was advised to use your Compound, and am so glad that I did so. I found that in a few short months there was no trace of Leucorrhoea, my strength gradually returned, and in a very short time I considered myself a perfectly well woman. I appreciate my good health, and beg to assure you that I am most grateful to you for discovering such a wonderful remedy for suffering women."

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She asks nothing in return for her advice. It is absolutely free, and always helpful.

MEDICINES LOADED WITH ALCOHOL.

Think of it! The Danger You Run—Drink Habit is Easily Acquired, but Hard to Cure.

Careful analysis shows that many so-called tonics contain little else but whiskey—the rankest, poorest kind of whiskey.
You may unconsciously be using an alcoholic liquid remedy. Some member of your family may be doing so. Your duty is plain; stop it at once.

The test of a tonic is the permanency of its cures. To become strong, you must build up the blood—alcohol weakens it. You must increase your nerve force—alcohol steadily devours it.

Give up the liquid tonic before you become its slave. The true medicine for the run-down, depressed and nervous is Ferrozone. It is nothing but concentrated cure in tablet form. It stimulates the appetite, aids digestion, fills the blood with iron; builds up in nature's way. Never known to fail.

Whether weak from worry, overwork, thin blood or ill-nourished nerves, Ferrozone will quickly make you well. It is safe and harmless, undoubtedly the best tonic and rebuilding medicine made. We recommend you to use Ferrozone if in poor health.

Ferrozone, known as the great food tonic, costs 50c. per box, or six for $2.50, at all dealers, or by mail from N. C. Pilsen & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn. U. S. A.

Goose Dancing.
Goose dancing, in which men wear women's hats and women men's coats, is the Christmas amusement in the Selkirk Isles.

Whistling Women.
"It's a peculiar fact," remarked the observing youth, "that only one woman in a thousand can whistle."

"Nothing peculiar about that," rejoined the man with the absent hair. "As long as a woman can talk she doesn't care to whistle."

Palpitation of the Heart—Nervous Prostration—Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They make weak hearts strong. They make shaky nerves firm.

Mr. Ray V. Cormier had a very trying experience while at College, but thanks to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, he has been restored to health. He tells his experience in the following letter to us:—
"Wellington Station, P.E.I., Dec. 3rd, 1905."
Messrs. The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ontario.

"Gentlemen,—Having been cured of a very troublesome disease, I find it my duty to write you a few lines. I was troubled with a very great palpitation of the heart and nervous prostration. I was attacked with it at College, and could not follow up the games of the University without being overcome with fatigue. I could not descend the stairs without resting half-way. I have left College, and am working in a general store, where I found your famous pills. I used three boxes, and am now completely cured; I cannot thank you enough. You may use this letter for the purpose of benefiting anyone who is suffering as I did. My home is in Sackville, N.B., but at present I am on Prince Edward Island."

I remain, dear sirs, Ray V. Cormier.
