THE PRINCE'S VISIT.

Prince Louis of Battenberg has come and gone, leaving very favorable impressions of his personality on those who had the pleasure of meeting him either intimately or only casually.

At the Opera House reception His Serene Highness had not uttered a dozen words before he had the ear of the large audience, and its respect and admiration. In his intercourse with those officially connected with his reception and ball at the parliament buildings, he made friends fast and strong. His bearing, appearance, his genial manner and apparent interest in men and things around him placed him at once secure in the hearts of the people of all classes. His greeting to the humble and to the children who crowded forward to shake his hand, was as cordial and sincere as that extended to those nearer his own station in life.

The prince is a graceful speaker, a born diplomat and a thorough gentleman, as he is undoubtedly a skillful admiral ready to defend to the last the honor of his King and country with the splendid fighting machines placed under his command.

His majesty will greatly strengthen the bonds uniting the motherland and her colonies by sending admirals to his over-sea possessions of the nature and address of Prince Louis of Battenberg.

Nor shall we forget the young Prince Alexander whose appearance and bearing most favorably impressed those who were thrown into contact with him.

The Fredericton reception of the distinguished visitors was at all points an unqualified success, and the government and the civic authorities are entitled to every credit for the smooth way in which all the arrangements were carried out. An opportunity was given to all classes of citizens to meet the princes, and they took full advantage of it.

Fredericton is the last city in Canada to be visited officially by the admiral-prince and we trust that he has carried away as pleasant recollections of his brief stay as he has left with the people of this city.

THE GREAT CANADIAN WEST.

Mr. H. J. Logan, the popular Liberal M. P. for Cumberland, who has returned from a trip to the Pacific coast with his health almost completely restored, speaks enthusiastically of the brilliant promise of Canada's great heritage.

In an interview Mr. Logan referred to the "three thousand mile run by the C. P. R.", and added that while almost every mile is a valuable asset to the Dominion, either in wheat, timber or mining lands, there is a desert on the American side quite as unproductive as the African and that he declared is one of the features of the Republic's make-up of which very little is said. For two days and nights in a train running forty miles an hour nothing can be seen but a barren waste, where not so much as a shrub is grown, and compare this with the timber, the prairies, and the mining sections traversed between Montreal and Vancouver. Mr. Logan was as far south as Los Angeles, and he says that all over the South Western States people are talking about the Canadian Northwest. From what he could see in the papers and hear as he went along, Mr. Logan believes that the rush North to take possession of Canada's great fertile belt will far exceed during the next few years anything that has taken place in the past. He explained that he had gone west some years ago with the Hon. Clifford Sifton, and had anyone told him that so great a change could have taken place in the appearance of the country in so short a time, he would not have believed it.

Prince Charles of Denmark, who has signified his acceptance of the throne of Norway, is a son-in-law of King Edward VII.

THE SPENCER STAR COURSE.

Plan Opens at McMurray's Monday Morning to Course Ticket Holders Only.

One of the most interesting entertainments ever heard in Fredericton will be the opening of the Spencer Star Course next Friday evening when the celebrated "Schuberts" make the first appearance at the capital. The Y. M. C. A. under whose auspices the Course is being held have sold many season tickets, and the holders of same will have access to the plan Monday morning at McMurray's. Those holding the tickets have simply to present the first coupon and 25c. to receive the best reserved seat in the house. Holders of these tickets can secure an unreserved seat without extra charge. The series of attractions to which this dollar ticket gains admission have never been exceeded for variety and excellence for anything like the same amount of money in these provinces, and it is only the large circuit of these Courses established by F. C. Spencer of St. John all over the country which has made such a favorable proposition possible. Don't forget to secure a Course ticket at once, and have your coupon exchanged for a reserved seat at McMurray's Monday morning.

TROPHY FOR PRINCE.

Local Government will Present Him with a Moose Head.

The local government have decided to present Prince Henry of Battenberg with a moosehead as a trophy of his visit to New Brunswick. The prince is known to be a most enthusiastic sportsman and recently made a hunting trip to the Canaan river district after moose, but failed to get a shot at one. The government have decided that a moosehead would be a very appropriate gift to make to the prince, and the surveyor general this afternoon procured one from Enack Bros. taxidermists for the purpose. He was fortunate in securing a fine specimen, with an antler spread of fifty-seven inches and it is mounted in first-class style. It will be forwarded to the prince early next week, with the compliments of the government of New Brunswick.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of People in Whom Our Readers are Interested.

Ex-Judge Willrich, United States Consul at St. John, was among the guests at the state ball last evening, and is spending today in the city.

Attorney General Pugsley, came up from St. John last evening and is a guest at the Queen.

Hon. C. H. Labille arrived from St. John last evening and is a guest at the Queen.

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

Oct. 27.—The Thanksgiving supper in the Baptist parsonage at Gibson last evening was a grand success, a very large crowd being present. There were three large tables well laden with all the good things imaginable. Two tables were supplied by the church and one by Mr. Daniel Babbitt. Fully fifty dollars were realized from the affair.

A large crew of L. C. R. section men are at work in Marysville tearing down an old carriage shed opposite the post office which has been an eye sore for sometime. The shed is being torn down to give more room for railway purposes.

HAD A PLEASANT TRIP.

Messrs. James S. Inch and John Sloat, of Marysville, returned a few days ago from a six weeks' trip to the Pacific coast. They spent a few days in Vancouver the guests of Mr. Inch's brother, Mr. Spencer Inch, afterwards visited Seattle and other coast cities, travelling as far south as San Francisco. They met a number of old friends and were most hospitably entertained on all sides. On their way home they made short stops at St. Paul and Minneapolis. Mr. Inch resided in California for a time in the early seventies and he was able to note quite a change in the condition of the country.

ST. STEPHEN FIRE.

Fire was discovered in the ell of Mayor Almon L. Teed's house at St. Stephen Friday morning and was supposed to have been extinguished without doing much damage. Later, however, it broke out afresh and spread to the main building. Both the Calais and St. Stephen firemen were soon on the spot, but they were unable to check the flames until the house was practically destroyed by fire and water. Most of the furniture was saved. Mayor Teed and his family are at present stopping at the Windsor Hotel.

GOVERNMENT MEETING.

The local government held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and transacted considerable routine business. A short session of the Board of Education was held this morning. Premier Tweedie and the Chief Commissioner left for home by the I. C. R. express this afternoon. The Attorney General, Hon. Mr. Sweeney and the Solicitor General are to leave for home this evening.

Playing on a trapeze in a hay loft, George, the fourteen-year-old son of Gideon Delahaye, a Pembroke Ont. barrister, was strangled to death Friday afternoon. Young Delahaye and his companions had been in the habit of hanging from the trapeze bar with a strap attached to the necks, seeing how long they could remain suspended. Friday the straps tightened on the boy, and he was dead before the other boys noticed his predicament.
