BUSINESS AT A COMPLETE STANDSTILL AND BLOOD-
SHED CAN SCARCELY BE AVERTED.

Capital's Railway Communication Completely Cut Off.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 28.—(Special)—A condition bordering upon panic prevails here today. Business is at a complete standstill. Soldiers are everywhere on the streets and bloodshed on a large scale is feared.

The government is trying to appease the inflamed population, but the revolutionaries seem determined to force an armed conflict.

The last railroad link connecting the capital with the outside world was broken last night, when the Finland Railroad discontinued its service between St. Petersburg and the Finnish border, but communication by water is still open. The cables are still operating but the post office is closed and the only newspapers to appear today were the Official Messenger and the Army Organ which is printed under the direction of the military.

The former contained a letter from General Trepoff, who is in command of the St. Petersburg garrison, addressed to provincial governors, instructing them to allow public meetings for the discussion of political questions and to interpret the law under Count Witte's direction.

The government realizes that suppression by arms would tremendously excite the country and would be fatal, and meetings are allowed as stated.

Much fear is shown at some of the foreign embassies for the safety of foreign subjects and the situation is being gravely discussed. Beyond preliminary arrangements for the dispatch of the embassy mails by boat, however, no steps have yet been taken.

Telegraphic communication with the interior is open, but the despatches received are meagre. Communication with some places is entirely interrupted.

From all over the empire the story is the same, work stopped, no newspapers printed, schools closed, and the business life of the people suspended.

The cry of the masses is always the same, political liberty. The military are in possession, and the inhabitants are terrified. Many cities are in darkness, and at Revala the mob began work last night. Rioters raided the shops and this morning the city is on fire. Theatres and spirit shops are burning.

Kharkoff is under martial law. The most startling news, however, comes from Moscow, where all political parties have joined in a resolution to set up a provisional government. Details, however, are lacking and the exact progress of this attempt for an insurrection is not known.

Warsaw, Oct. 28.—The streets are filled with patrols. It is rumored that the strikers are marching on the city from the provinces.

By order of the governor of Warsaw the gates of Warsaw are closed at dark and restaurants are to close at seven in the evening.

Sevastopol, Oct. 28.—A great political demonstration took place in the public square here today. Orators harangued the crowds, who later paraded the streets, singing revolutionary songs and scattering proclamations. Troops gradually pressed the crowds into the outskirts of the city.

Warsaw, Oct. 28.—30,000 infantry, 5,000 cavalry and 20 guns have been collected in anticipation of trouble with the strikers. Full martial law will be proclaimed today.

BURIED BY CAVE-IN.

Three Men Met Death in a Coaticooke Gravel Pit.

Coaticooke, Que., Oct. 28.—A serious fatality occurred in a gravel pit belonging to the corporation at Coaticooke. Thursday afternoon, when three men were buried beneath about 2,000 tons of gravel.

It seems Jean Richard and Jos. Rickney, corporation workmen, were working in the pit when they were joined by Frank St. Cyr, insurance agent, who started to talk insurance. The conversation had proceeded but a few minutes, when the men observed the bank falling. They made a desperate effort to escape, but could not get clear. Cyr's cries attracted the attention of the man who was hauling gravel and he gave the alarm. Very soon a large gang of men were at work with shovels, but it was not until two hours later that the bodies were recovered. The road aster stated that he had repeatedly warned the men not to work in the section of the pit where the accident happened. Three victims are married, and St. Cyr had just started to work for the Metropolitan Insurance Company.

BURGLARS MAN AUTO.

Escape After Securing $10 at a Newton Ct. Bank.

Newtown, Ct., Oct. 27.—An unsuccessful attempt to rob the Newtown Savings Bank was made early today. Burglars entered the bank by removing the iron grating of a window, and blew open a large safe, but secured only $10. Another safe in the bank was not molested, the burglars taking flight after the first explosion. It is believed that they made their escape in an automobile, which was seen going north from Newtown about 2 o'clock this morning.

All the negotiable securities of the bank are kept in a safety deposit vault in Bridgeport, and aside from the ready cash necessary for business these were nothing in the bank last night but the books, mortgage deeds and insurance papers. These papers, with a number of old garments which had been used to muffle the sound of the safe cracking, were found by the cashier today scattered about the floor.

$100 REWARD $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.

The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The fellow was before the police court a few days ago for drunkenness, but was let off on a promise that he would get out of town.
