THE MARITIME BAPTISTS.

Consideration of Missions Occupied Convention's Opening Day.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Aug. 20.
The sixtieth annual meeting of the Maritime Baptist convention opened here yesterday morning. An address of welcome to the delegates was made by J. K. Ross on behalf of the Charlottetown Baptist church.

Rev. H. Laflamme returned missionary from India, spoke of his purpose in visiting the convention—to secure a more complete union in Baptist foreign missionary organization throughout Canada.

Rev. Mr. Stackhouse, of Manitoba, gave a spirited address conveying greetings from the west.

Rev. R. G. White, of Charlottetown was elected president, J. J. Wallace, of Moncton, Dr. McKenna of Wolfville, vice-presidents; Rev. J. H. Mac-Donald, of Fredericton, secretary, A.
W. Sterns of Charlottetown, treasurer.

The retiring president, in his address, dwelt particularly upon the claims of home mission work; reminding the delegates that there are many feeble churches and neglected mission fields which greatly need immediate help in spiritual matters.

Union between the maritime Bapt-tists and the Free Baptists has been a source of much rejoicing among the churches of both denominations. The marked success of Acadia College was due, he said, largely to Dr. Trotter, a bright future, he said, opens before the maritime Baptists in their great work of extending the gospel and building up the church of Christ.

MISSION RESULTS.

The report of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board was read by Rev. J.
W. Manning and showed that the prospects of gospel progress in India are brighter than ever before, but great difficulty is found in securing suitable missionaries.

About four thousand dollars was raised for foreign missions through the agency of the twentieth century fund. Legacies have been more numerous than usual, amounting to $4-547; total receipts were $25,712, and of this amount $21,183 was expended in salaries and other indebtedness of the foreign missionary board. It is estimated that $21,625 is needed to meet the expenses of the current year. The general results of missionary efforts during the year have been encouraging.

There are eight churches in the foreign field with a membership of 525.

Obituary reports contained references to Rev. Howard Roach, Rev. E.
H. Sweet, Rev. T. L. Higgins, Rev.
James C. Steadman, Rev. James L.
Reid, Chas. E. Knapp and Bowley Howat.

In the evening a missionary meeting was held and addresses were delivered by Rev. H. F. Laflamme, Rev. H. Y. Corey, Mabel E. Archibald, returned missionaries, add Laura Peck, who intends taking up the work. The needs of the work among the Telegus territory covers nine thousand square miles and has a population of four millions, only one missionary for every quarter million; 120 additional missionaries and considerable increase of funds are required.

SUNDAY'S SERVICES.

On Sunday the sermon was preached in the morning by Rev. W. J.
Parker, of Windsor, who gave an exhaustive discourse on the attainment based on 1st Peter 1-18, 19.

The address was delivered in the afternoon by Rev. H. F. Adams, field secretary of the Twentieth Century fund. The whole fund is now $40-000. Of the $50,000 aimed for by the Maritime Baptists more than $35,000 has been pledged and $20-000 collected of the amount pledged.
185 pastors, missionaries and delegates gave $4,000. Had the people given as liberally as the pastors a quarter million could be raised easily.

Mr. Adams made a powerful appeal for further support to the fund.
Mabel Archibald, of Kentville, returned missionary, spoke on the work among children and women of Telegu mission in India, making a fervent appeal for more women missionaries to labor among the 40,000,000 women of India, who are not allowed to look on the face of man.

Rev. J. H. Jenner, of Halifax, delegate to the World's Baptist Congress in London, described several leading features of the great gathering where all the delegates accepted the Scriptures as sufficient to the faith in Christian life and accepted supremacy of conscience indicating there can be no union of church or state.

COREANS ACCUSE JAPS.

Complain Latter Have Treated Them Outrageously.

Ashbury Park, N. J., Aug. 21.—The two Koreans, Syngman Rhee of Seoul and Rev. P. K. Yoon of Hawaii, who recently presented to President Roosevelt a memorial at Oyster Bay in behalf of Koreans, and who were unofficially informed by the President that their suit should be presented to the Korean Legation at Washington, today made public the details of this memorial. They are stopping in this city. The petition says that the Koreans made a treaty with the Japanese for offensive and defensive purposes, and that Korea was opened to the Japanese armies. Japan's appreciation of this was to introduce reforms in Governmental administration along the lines of the modern civilization of Europe and America.

Japan was also to advise and counsel the Korean people in a friendly manner. But to the Koreans' disappointment and regret, the petition says, the Japanese Government has done nothing toward improving the condition of the Korean people. On the contrary, it is declared in the memorial, Japan has turned loose several thousand rough and disorderly men in Korea, who are treating the inoffensive Koreans in an outrageous manner.

The memorial says that the United States has many interests in Korea, industrial, commercial, religious and educational, and that a clause in the treaty between the United States and Korea gives the Koreans a claim on the United States for assistance. The memorialists say they appreciate the fact that during the conference between the peace envoys the President might not care to make suggestions to either party, but they ask him to do all in his power for the Korean people. The committee will make another effort to have an audience with President Roosevelt on the subject. The Korean Minister at Washington is said to have refused to have anything to do with the memorial.

POTTER'S BOWIE KNIVES.

Late Congressman's Daughters Give Them to Historical Society.

The State Historical society's museum has just received from the Misses Rebecca Lewis Potter and Fanny Potter of Lake Beulah some exceedingly interesting relics of their father, the late John F. Potter, who in war times was known the country over as "Bowie Knife" Potter. In 1890 Mr. Potter was a member of congress from the First district of Wisconsin. A fellow member was Roger A. Pryor of Virginia.
Pryor in a sharp debate on the slavery question fell foul of Potter, who gave him as good as he sent. Pryor challenged the Wisconsin congressman to a duel, which the latter accepted. When Pryor's second called on Potter, according to the rules of the "code" to name the place, date and weapons Potter coolly suggested bowie knives. Pryor's friend recoiled in horror from the use of "such barbarous weapons between gentlemen" and at once dropped the affair. "Bowie Knife" Potter became a popular hero in the north, and it was long the correct thing to present to him bowie knives.

In the collection just presented to the society and now on display in the room devoted to Wisconsin war relics are the bowie knife and pistol habitually worn by Potter himself while in congress in those stormy days (1857-63), the knife with which he proposed to fight Pryor, a long, ugly looking weapon calculated to stir with horror the most inveterate "fire eater;" two Confederate bowie knives presented to Potter on ceremonial occasions and a tin dispatch box carried in the Revolutionary war by Mr. Potter's granduncle, for the fighting spirit appears to have been in the Potter blood.—Madison Rules to Follow in Conversation.

Railfery is the finest part of conversation, but as it is our usual custom to counterfeit and adulterate whatever is too dear for us, so we have done with this, and turned it all into what is generally called repartee, or being smart, just as when an expensive fashion cometh up those who are not able to reach it content themselves with some paltry imitation. It now passeth for railfery to run a man down in discourse, to put him out of countenance and make him ridiculous, sometimes to expose the defects of his person or understanding, on all which occasions he is obliged not to be angry to avoid the imputation of not being able to take a jest. It is admirable to observe one who is dexterous at this art singling out a weak adversary, getting the laugh on his side and then carrying all before him. The French, from whom we borrow the word, have a quite different idea of the thing, and so had we in the politer age of our fathers. Railfery was to say something that at first appeared a reproach or reflection, but by some turn of wit, unexpected and surprising, ended always in a compliment and to the advantage of the person it was addressed to. And surely one of the best rules in conversation is never to say a thing which any of the company can reasonably wish we had rather left unsaid, nor can there anything be well more contrary to the ends for which people meet together than to part unsatisfied with each other or themselves.—Dean Swift.

Popular Names Abroad.

Numerous as are the members of the Smith family, they do not occupy as prominent a place in European directories as they do in those of England or at home, though they take up much room in the Berlin directory, 5,000 Schmidts being registered. They have to give room, however, to the Schultzes and Mullers. In Brussels the Janssen family is the most numerous represented, while the greater space in the Paris directory is given over to the Martineis.

Morelli and Vitelli are the names most numerous in Naples, and here the Smiths sink into insignificance; but, like the word "hello," the name of Smith is heard around the world and is represented in practically every directory published, more than may be said of any other surname, whatever its nationality.
