

THE SASKATCHEWAN ELECTIONS.

Premier Scott Well Satisfied with the Result of the Contest.

Haultain Made Unfair Use of Archbishop's Memorandum.

Regina, Sask., Dec. 18.—Premier Scott, in discussing the result of the Saskatchewan election, said: "On the whole I see no reason for dissatisfaction with the outcome of the contest, although some excellent candidates have gone down under very narrow majorities. It was always conceded that Saskatchewan Liberals had a much more difficult fight to confront than had the Alberta Liberals yet had it not been for the widespread and distorted use made of Archbishop Langevin's memorandum we should have made almost as clean a sweep as did the Alberta Liberals on Nov. 9."

THE ARCHBISHOP'S MEMORANDUM.

"Then you think that the Archbishop's memorandum cost you some seats?"

"Undoubtedly, it cost us Moosomin, Grenfell, Wolsely, Maple Creek, Regina City, without any shadow of doubt; it cost us scores of votes in Souris and South Qu'Appelle, and in many other constituencies our majorities would be greater but for this cause. The memorandum was represented as being a command issued by the Archbishop to all good Catholics to vote against Mr. Haultain. Mr. Haultain, in the face of the Archbishop's plain denial, made it appear in his last manifesto, that the Archbishop's name was signed to the memorandum, and that it was issued as a pastoral letter or command to be read by all priests from the pulpits, as was done in Quebec in 1896. The fact is, of course, according to the Archbishop's own statement, that he issued no pastoral statement, that he issued no pastoral letter or command. The memorandum was a mere abstract statement of opinion, such as Protestant clergymen are constantly giving upon political or other subjects, in the form of interviews or otherwise, without anybody objecting. The Haultain manifesto, however, contained the memorandum with the Archbishop's name dishonestly attached, as I compelled Mr. Haultain to admit on the Regina platform last Monday night. The manifesto was printed and circulated in thousands all through the Protestant districts in the last week of the campaign, and without any question there were hundreds of Protestant voters who went to the polls yesterday in full belief that the Roman Catholic Archbishop was directly taking part in our contest by directly instructing his people to vote against Haultain. The Haultain manifesto charged, too, that I had made a compact or understanding with the Archbishop and the hierarchy by which in return for their favor and support I should later on grant special separate school privileges to Roman Catholics beyond what are provided in the autonomy act. At the Regina meeting on Monday night Mr. Haultain failed to attempt to prove the charge, and, indeed, tried to deny making the charge, but no report of his failure could overtake his circular manifestos, which had been placed in thousands of Protestant homes. In some of the districts at the end of the canvass was the straight question, "Are you going to vote for Haultain or for the Pope?" the same as in London and Oxford last June.

UNBLUSHING APPEAL TO PREJUDICE.

"It was a most unblushing appeal to Protestant prejudice. An official letter was issued by the Territorial Grand Orange body to all members of subordinate lodges, directing them to work and vote for the Provincial rights party and against Roman domination. All these things combined to disturb the people in Protestant sections in an extraordinary degree, and scores of men who thoroughly understand our school system and wish to see no change made in it went into violent opposition to our candidates with the idea that in some way or other Protestant liberties were in danger. Scores of other men who strongly favor national schools in the United States model voted against us in the belief that Mr. Haultain's policy was an exact copy of that model. At our Regina meeting on Monday night Mr. Haultain denied any such thing by declaring that he would not repeal the provision for a half-hour of religious instruction in the schools, but, of course, his denial did not reach any outside district. It was not intended to.

SIXTEEN TO NINE WILL DO.

"Sixteen to nine seats, nevertheless, will serve to uphold the Government and its policy very nicely. I am more proud than ever of my Ministers, as each of them faced difficult ridings. As you know, bets were being freely made until nearly the end that not a Minister except possibly myself could be elected. Mr. Lamont faced a three-cornered fight and has made a really excellent fight of it. Mr. Motherwell, who was going to lose his deposit, will have 200 majority to the good. But the star battle in the whole Province was made by Mr. Calder in South Regina, when he wins in an enemy's stronghold with nearly 100 majority. We will have sixteen at least, and if our friends' calculations respecting the disputed ballots prove accurate we shall take Regina City and Moose Jaw City in addition. "The G. P. R., did you say?" continued Mr. Scott. "Well, yes, the C. P. R. showed considerable interest in Saskatchewan's Provincial rights, but really I have heard so much about the school question and the C. P. R. monopoly for so many weeks that I feel I should like to forget both subjects for a spell."

A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS MAN.

Mr. J. F. VanBuskirk Has Made His Mark in the Commercial Life of Fredericton.

Few of the younger generation of Fredericton business men have enjoyed a more successful career than Mr. James F. VanBuskirk, the genial and energetic dealer in agricultural implements, carriages, sleighs, harness, fur goods, etc., who holds forth at Phoenix Square. Merit will win its reward just as sure as water will find its level, and the large and profitable trade which Mr. VanBuskirk now enjoys is due entirely to his own energy, ability and sound judgment.

Mr. VanBuskirk is a native of Cambridge, Queens County, and has been a resident of this city about twenty years. When scarcely out of his teens he completed a course at the provincial Normal School and obtained a first class license. He taught school for several years, but finding the work altogether too unremunerative for his ambitions, he abandoned it for a calling that would give greater scope for his splendid persuasive powers and business acumen, and time has demonstrated the wisdom of his step.

At the present time Mr. VanBuskirk is carrying the largest and most varied stocks of furs ever shown in this city. It consists of men's fur coats, in coon, wallaby, brown and black bear, Australian eul and Esquimaux all marked down at prices that defy competition. In sleigh robes he has Arctic musk ox, grizzly bear, black and Rocky Mountain bear and black and grey goat and Saskatchewan.

In ladies' goods Mr. VanBuskirk's stock is unusually large and well selected. He has ladies' jackets in near seal, electric seal, Bohemian, Astracan and coon. In ladies' neckwear he has goods to select from of sable, Isabella fox, mink, martin, Columbia sable, black and white Thibet, grey lamb and grey squirrel.

Mr. VanBuskirk also carries a complete stock of gauntlets and muffs, men's fur caps, gloves, etc. The goods are made by the leading fur-riers of Canada and every article is guaranteed. A special discount will be made on all fur goods during the next three weeks, as Mr. VanBuskirk does not intend to carry any stock over if he can help it.

Mr. VanBuskirk had in stock at the present time $3000 worth of driving harness, which he brought before the recent advance in price. Anyone contemplating the purchase of harness would do well to get his prices.

Mr. VanBuskirk has in stock at the celebrated Doherty organ, considered to be the best high grade instrument on the market today. Parties contemplating the purchase of an organ just now will find Mr. VanBuskirk ready to do the right thing by them.

MR. JAMES F. VANBUSKIRK.

It is generally conceded that Mr. VanBuskirk is showing in his spacious warehouses the largest and best stock of stylish sleighs and punts to be found in any one establishment in the province. Everyone is guaranteed in quality and Mr. VanBuskirk is prepared to sell at prices that cannot be discounted in these parts.

The modern cream separator is in great favor with the enterprising farmers in the province, and in this connection Mr. VanBuskirk is able to supply all wants. He has the agency for the Uneda, Empire and the National. Each one of these he is prepared to sell with a ten years' guarantee. In reference to the Uneda Mr. VanBuskirk has the exclusive agency for the province. No intelligent farmer should be without a cream separator, and none should think of purchasing without examining Mr. VanBuskirk's machines, and getting his prices.

Always genial and courteous Mr. VanBuskirk takes pleasure in extending the glad hand to all who visit his establishment, and those who patronize him are assured of receiving the benefit of the best goods, the lowest prices and the easiest terms.

JOYS OF MATERNITY

A WOMAN'S BEST HOPES REALIZED

Mrs. Potts Tells How Women Should Prepare for Motherhood

The darkest days of husband and wife are when they come to look forward to childless and lonely old age. Many a wife has found herself incapable of motherhood owing to a displacement of the womb or lack of strength in the generative organs.

Frequent backache and distressing pains, accompanied by offensive discharges and generally by irregular and scanty menstruation indicate a displacement or nerve degeneration of the womb and surrounding organs.

The question that troubles women is how can a woman who has some female trouble bear healthy children? Mrs. Anna Potts, of 510 Park Avenue, Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

My Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"During the early part of my married life I was delicate in health, both my husband and I were very anxious for a child to bless our home, but I had two miscarriages, and could not carry a child to maturity. A neighbor who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advised me to try it. I did so and soon felt that I was growing stronger, my headaches and backaches left me, I had no more bearing-down pains, and felt like a new woman. Within a year I became the mother of a strong, healthy child, the joy of our home. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a splendid remedy, and I wish every woman who wants to become a mother would try it."

Actual sterility in woman is very rare. If any woman thinks she is sterile, let her try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free to expectant or would-be mothers.

LINCOLN, THE OFFICE SEEKER.

A characteristic story of Abraham Lincoln has been recalled by the New York papers to the memory of a recent appointment of an American Consul at the other side of the world. The war president, it is related, was once importuned so persistently for a post of this nature that he decided to get rid of the applicant as effectively as possible. Accordingly, he instructed his secretary to go to the globe in the Cabinet Chamber and find out the Consular post situated at the greatest distance from Washington. This discovered, he promptly appointed the office seeker to it, "with a sigh which indicated that like Alexander of old, he regretted the limited areas of this small world."
