HEARD IN COMMITTEE.

G. T. P. Seeking Incorporation of Telegraph Company--Municipalities' Rights to be Protected.

Ottawa, Ont., May 3.—(Special)— When the railway committee met today, the first bill discussed was that of the Grand Trunk Pacific to incorporate the G. T. P. Telegraph Company.

Before the committee met an arrangement was reached between the G. T. P. Telegraph Company and representative of the municipalities by which clauses were inserted in the bill protecting the rights of municipalities to control their streets. The clauses agreed to were the same as were inserted in the Canada Telegraph and Telephone Company's bills in 1903 and the Northwest Telephone Company's bill. The company must go to the municipalities and get their consent before taking local business.

The company will have the right to lay a long distance main line, the municipality having the right to say as to the route.

W. F. MacLean wanted to have a ministerial announcement as to government ownership, but Mr. Emmerson did not see that this was the moment for that. It was his intention to put the telegraph laws under the control of the railway act.

Mr. Zimmerman, Hamilton, said that if the committee knew the facts, they would not talk about the nationalization of telegraph and telephone lines. It would cost the country from $500,000,000 to $600,- 000,000.

The capital of the telegraph company was reduced from ten to five millions.

Delegations were present at the railway committee today from Toronto, Hamilton and Peterboro, with a view of getting the Bell Telephone Company bill amended in such a way as to give control to the municipalities of their streets.

The bill asks that the Company's stock be increased to $50,000,000, that is forty millions of an increase.

A PATHETIC SCENE.

Hardened Prisoners in San Francisco Jails Knelt in Prayer When Earth Quaked.

San Francisco, May 3.—(Special)— Locked in separate cells in the city prison are 100 prisoners, whose crimes range from plain drunkenness to brutal murder, and who knelt in prayer when the earthquake April 18th, shook the hall of the justice from basement to tower top.

The sin hardened men and women appealed to God to spare them.
Their prayers for deliverance came only after it became apparent that the attendants could do nothing for them. The earthquake had so twisted and warped cell locks that not a door could be opened for nearly an hour.

"I never want to witness such a sight again," said Prison Matron Ryan of the Central prison, who was on duty when the tremble came.

"There was something like 88 men and 22 women in the cells on the morning of the earthquake."

HON. P. WHITE DEAD.

Conservative Member for North Renfrew, and Ex-Speaker of House of Commons.

Ottawa, May 3.—(Special)—Hon.
Peter White, Conservative M. P. for North Renfrew, and ex-speaker of the House of Commons, died at his home in Renfrew this morning.

Mr. White was regarded as one of the best, if not the best, of the speakers since Confederation.

The deceased was a native of Pembroke, Ont., and was 68 years old.
He was extensively engaged in the lumbering business, and first entered public life in 1874 as the representative of North Renfrew in the House of Commons. He was unseated and defeated in the bye election, but was re-elected in Jan. 1876, in 1878, and in each succeeding election until 1896, when he met defeat. He was again returned in the last election.

From 1891 to 1896 he was Speaker of the House of Commons. In religion he was a Presbyterian, and in politics a very strong Conservative.

He was married to Mrs. Margaret Lansdowne (Mrs. A. George Blair, jr., of Ottawa), Charles Patrick, who is completing his final year in medicine at McGill University; Sara Elizabeth and Kathleen Gardner, both of whom reside at home.

With the exception of John C. Holden, all of Dr. Holden's children were at his side when death occurred.

Dr. Charles Holden died early last evening at his home in St. John after an illness of nine days from acute pneumonia. The deceased was in the 62nd year of his age and was one of the most prominent physicians in this province.

Dr. Holden was born in St. John on the 2nd day of January, 1845.
His father, Thos. Holden, now residing at Ottawa, Ho received his education in St. John and took his B. A. degree at King's College, Windsor. From there he went to Edinburgh University for a five year course in medicine, taking the degrees M. B., C. M., and L. C. R. O. (Ed.) in 1867, and in 1869 he received his degree of M. D., graduating with first class honors.

After graduating in 1869, Dr. Holden returned to his native city and started a practice which he has steadily followed up to the time of his death, his clientele being one of the largest and most select in the city.

Dr. Holden married Sarah Elizabeth Wetmore, daughter of the late Hon. A. R. Wetmore, Judge of the supreme court of this province, and a sister of Mr. A. R. Wetmore and Mrs.
T. Carleton Allen of this city. A wife and six children survive him.

The latter are Louise Ramsford (Mrs.
Philippe C. Robinson, wife of P. C.
Robinson, manager of the Bank of N. S. at Canning, N. S.), John Chione of Brandon, Man., Margaret Lansdowne (Mrs. A. George Blair, jr., of Ottawa), Charles Patrick, who

BLOWN TO ATOMS.

Fred Grass and Burdy Golding of Little Lake, Sunbury Co., Met Awful Fate on Aroostook River--Two Companions Share Their Fate.

Ashland, Me., May 3.—Four river drivers were instantly killed and their bodies horribly mangled by an explosion of a large quantity of dynamite which they were thawing out over a fire, about 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, at a point on the Aroostook river, about five miles above Ox

Bow. The dead men are:

Hugh Gillen, of Mars Hill, 22 years old, single.

Fred Grass, of Little Lake, Sunbury county, N. B., 42 years old, leaves a wife and six young children.

Emory McGuire, of Linneus, Me., 28 years old, leaves a family.

Burdy Golding, 17 years old, of Little Lake, N. B., single.

The dead men were part of a crew of 26 employed by the Ashland Company, and were the only ones in the immediate vicinity of the accident. The explosion was terrific, the bodies being hurled in every direction and a large hole torn in the ground.

The bodies were taken to Masardis, and will be shipped from there today to their respective homes.

It is a common practice among drivers to thaw dynamite over a fire, and why this particular lot should explode is a mystery. The most careful drivers are always put in
