

HARMONY OF RACES.

French Canadians Want English Protestants to Stay in Quebec.

Montreal, Sep. 5, Special.—Under the caption "The English in Quebec," Le Canada today says in part: "Some days ago we advised our fellow countrymen in Quebec province to remain at home during the education campaign which has just been started with so much success. The most highly respected of our Protestant fellow citizens, Hon. Messrs. Fisher, McOrkill and Weir, have given their co-religionists the same advice. The Montreal Witness returns to the charge and with Hon. W. A. Weir advises the formation of an association having for its object the retaining of the English speaking Protestants on their farms. It is with the greatest pleasure that we join our arguments to those of the Protestant leaders. We want our Protestant fellow citizens to remain among us, and it is not mere curiosity on our part that gives rise to this wish. It is really in our own interest. The English speaking Protestant people of Quebec live among us in complete harmony and so give the lie to those fanatics from the other provinces who pretend that numerical supremacy of the French Canadians is such as to render life impossible. According to all reports to Protestants of the English tongue, they allow us to show that race antagonism the spirit of religious denomination the ambition to reduce everything to the level of the prejudices and caprices of the dominant nationality, do not exist to any degree in the Province of Quebec where the French Canadians are in great majority."

FAVORS APPEAL TO THE ELECTORS.

Hon. Mr. Fielding Says Opponents Raising Technicalities Only Mean to Embarrass.

Ottawa, Sep. 5. Although advised that he has good ground for appeal from the decision of the trial court in the Queens-Shelburne election case, Hon. Mr. Fielding is of opinion that the better way of dealing with the matter is to appeal not to the courts but to the electors. Consequently the Finance Minister's counsel did not file any appeal to the Supreme Court on the minister's behalf. "My opponent," said Mr. Fielding, "has however, filed an appeal with the object of preventing that appeal to the people of Queens-Shelburne that I am desirous of making. Conservative papers have been informing their readers that the Finance Minister would avail himself of an appeal to the Supreme Court as a means of holding on to his seat but it is now apparent that it is not Mr. Fielding but his opponent that is taking advantage of technicalities. My opponent abandoned at the trial the personal charges that had been preferred against me and not a single witness was called to justify them. Judgment was accordingly given in my favour upon this feature of the case and the Conservative appeal is clearly intended only to cause me embarrassment. How far these tactics will succeed remains to be seen but meanwhile I am in receipt of letters from the strongest Conservatives in the constituency who are most pronounced in their condemnation of the proceedings taken by a few vindictive men. The issue of the writ for a by-election in Queens-Shelburne, which had been expected to follow the cabinet council has been delayed on account of the court proceedings in Halifax that were taken by Hon. Mr. Fielding's opponent with the evident object of delaying the by-election.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Some Interesting Information for Busy Housewives.

To parboil means to put anything into cold water and bring it to the boiling point.

To impart a delicate odor to linen, saturate a piece of blotting paper with oil of lavender and place it among the various articles.

When boiling fish add an onion to the water and sweet herbs tied in a piece of muslin. This is a French cook's suggestion and very tasty.

When a fine secures a good plaster cast take it to an art store and have it sprayed with "fixing." It can be kept clean easily after that, and the ivory finish will add to its appearance.

As a carpet cleaner, bran slightly dampened, thrown on the carpet and then thoroughly swept out, is unequalled. Removes all dust, and being damp prevents dust from flying. For sponging matting use bran water.

A piano when new should be tuned once a month, the longer an instrument remains untuned, the lower the pitch becomes. It is common for a piano to think a piano should remain in tune at least a year.

An excellent polish for furniture may be made with equal parts of turpentine, linseed oil and vinegar. Spar varnish may be used to use on all furniture for out-of-door use, as it is both weather-proof and lasting.

TOMATO RECIPES.

The yellow tomato is better adapted to preserving than the red, but does not bear the addition of strong spices or flavors as well. For tomato preserves use small yellow tomatoes which are ripe but not soft; scald and peel them. To one pound of tomato add one pound of sugar and let it stand over night. In the morning take the tomatoes from the sugar and the juices which have drained from them. Boil this syrup and skim carefully. When it is clear, add the add the tomatoes and a few slices of lemon. Boil slowly twenty minutes, then take out the tomatoes and boil the syrup until it thickens. Put the tomatoes into a jar and pour the syrup over.

TOMATO FIGS.

The figs should be made from the small yellow tomatoes because their shape and texture are much like real figs. Pour boiling water over them and let stand a few minutes, drain and peel. Weigh and put them in a deep bowl with an equal weight of sugar. Let stand two days, pour off the syrup which must be boiled and skimmed until perfectly clear.

to have a thin neck, and the following treatment is said to be very beneficial:

Take plenty of exercise. The best for this purpose is head rotation. Afterwards bathe the neck in warm water to open the pores and then rub in a generous quantity of good skin food.

It is always a difficult task to give children medicine. A trained nurse says the best way to give castor oil is to fill a wine glass half full of orange juice, then pour in the oil with more juice on top. The oil forms a ball in the middle of the juice and it is swallowed without coming in contact with the tongue.

The women with no servant should never permit herself to get over-tired. When she begins to feel nervously tired, she should lie down for ten or fifteen minutes upon a couch on which she can stretch full length.

YOU CAN DYE IN Contentment or Misery

Every lady who has home coloring to do, devoutly hopes for success in her work.

Success in home dyeing, means profit and contentment. Failure, means discontent, misery and loss of money. The regular use of DIAMOND DYES in home coloring work, guarantees pleasure and financial profit.

DIAMOND DYES have proved direct money-savers and true friends to millions of women and girls. They are uniform and reliable under all conditions and circumstances, and always give those rich, full and brilliant shades that are never seen in the common weak and adulterated package dyes.

The ladies of Fredericton and surrounding districts, should bear in mind that some merchants, for the sake of big profits, push the sale of the common imitation dyes, which invariably prove ruinous to good materials.

Home success in dyeing, demands care when you are buying package dyes. It is always safe and prudent to examine what is handed to you, when you ask for DIAMOND DYES. See that each envelope bears the words, "DIAMOND PACKAGE DYES." Never be convinced by any merchant that other dyes are "just as good" as the DIAMOND DYES. All other package dyes are but poor and miserable imitations of the DIAMOND DYES. It has been truly said that the DIAMOND DYES are as far superior to other dyes as the sparkling diamond gem is ahead of common glass.

NEWSPAPER MEN RETORT.

Englishmen Object to Mr. Bryan's Criticism.

London, Sept. 5.—The St. James' Gazette objects to the remark Mr. Bryan made in his speech to New York journalists, that restrictions in rank and caste prevent the English newspaper workers from using their opportunities in the fullest sense. "We had not suspected that," says The St. James' Gazette. "Has Mr. Bryan observed the freedom, approaching gaily with which we roast our Peers and sons of our Peers when they do anything foolish? If you ask an English newspaper man why he is not so free as his American colleagues he will never complain of a shackled sense of decency, not very troublesome at all times; partly from a stricter libel law, and partly from a rooted notion that when he can be ought to get hold of facts. Snobishness takes a queer turn with us. It actually makes snobs about rank or caste much better reading than most other things."

HENRI LAURIER'S DEATH.

Youngest Half-Brother of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Mr. Henri Laurier, youngest half-brother of the Prime Minister, died Sunday night at Arthabaskaville of apoplexy. His death was altogether unexpected. The first intimation that Mr. Laurier was unwell came to Sir Wilfrid Sunday evening about 7.30, in a telegram from Lady Laurier, who is at the Premier's country home. The message stated that Henri was dangerously ill. Later on word was received that he had passed away.

Sir Wilfrid, accompanied by his private secretary, Mr. Boudreau, left at 4 o'clock Monday morning on the So. train for Arthabaskaville. His brother's death was a great blow to Sir Wilfrid, the most affectionate relations having always existed between them.

The late Mr. Henri Laurier was Prothonotary of the district of Arthabaskaville. Like Sir Wilfrid, he was a man of sunny temperament and winning personality, and had a wide circle of friends. Another half brother of the Premier, Mr. R. Charlemagne Laurier, M. P. for L'Assomption, recently went to Montreal for treatment.

REGAINED NERVE AND VITAL ENERGY.

From Walton, P. Q., Que., comes the following from Mr. Nazaire Beguin: "If anyone had told me any remedy could build up my nervous system so well, I would not have believed them. Before using Ferrozone I was run down in nerve and vital energy, and in very weak health. I didn't get enough sleep at night, felt poorly in the day time. Ferrozone has filled me with energy and vim, increased my weight and made a man of me."

Hundreds tell the same story—Weak and dispirited, everything going wrong, unable to catch up. They took Ferrozone and all was changed to health and energy. Price 50c. per box at all dealers.

BOY'S RUSSIAN SUIT.

Nothing could be more appropriate to the little people than the present simplicity of their frocks. There are no frills or tulle-lace to be mussed up or in the way during their constant activities and youth is never so attractive as when allowed to be its own adornment. Here is a pretty little Russian blouse suit consisting of blouse and knickers. The blouse has tucks over the shoulders ending where the leather belt girdles this in long waisted effect. Small tucks form the cuff on the sleeve and the pretty finish. The dress is easily made and suitable to any of the children's materials, serge or flannel in a plain color with the three bars or an emblem embroidered in red upon the front, would be excellent for wear. Butcher's linen is appropriate as well as other washing fabrics.

For the medium size 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch material are needed. 4702—Size 2 to 6 years.

BRITISH ROUGH RIDERS.

First Introduction of Element Into Militia.

London, Sept. 5.—An interesting test is being made to-day to settle the rival merits of the western-American and Queensland (Australia) methods of managing animal pack trains. The teams, one from the Legion of Frontiersmen, made up of men who gained experience on western ranches and in mining camps, and the other composed of Queensland rangers, started this morning from London for Brighton, after having attached a hundred pounds load to each of their pack horses. The distance from this city to Brighton is about fifty miles. The teams will return from Brighton to London to-morrow. It is not so much a question of time as the condition of the horses and packs on their return. The Legion of Frontiersmen is being organized throughout the empire, being the first introduction of the rough rider element into the British militia. The Frontiersmen are recognized by the government and engage to offer their services as guides, etc., in time of war.

DREYFUS WILL RETIRE.

Paris, Sept. 5.—Major Dreyfus' friends say he will resign his commission in the army in a month, when he will have completed thirty years' service. He is reported to be much dissatisfied with his assignment to an administrative position in the suburbs of Paris, where he is not in touch with the army. He would have preferred active service with a line regiment, but the government officials say they have already gone as far as they can go with safety in making rehabilitation so thorough and complete. A close friend of Dreyfus who visited him recently in Switzerland, where he lives, says he intends to liquidate the pension due him and leave France forever and devote himself to re-writing a fresh story of his case.

EASY TO RETAIN HEALTH.

Most important of all is proper attention to the bowels. Avoid constipation it's the health-killer of today. Harsh, gripping medicine is ruinous—beware of it. Best results follow a truly vegetable remedy like Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut which not only relieve costiveness in one night but cures the cause of the trouble, and prevents its return. No distress or inconvenience attends the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills which are world famous for their mildness and efficiency. Sold everywhere, 25c. per box.

USEFUL BLOODHOUNDS.

They Save the Life of a Four-Year-Old.

Utica, Sept. 5.—The four-year-old son of John Dowd of Sanderfield wandered away from his mother at 4 p. m. yesterday while she was at work in George Allen's hop yards at that place, and although searching parties scoured the country for miles around last night and to-day no trace of the missing boy was discovered until tonight at seven o'clock, when bloodhounds came upon the child in Nine Mile Swamp, several miles from the spot where his mother last saw him. The boy was found seated on a log weeping, and greatly weakened from lack of food and his exertions, but otherwise none the worse for his experience. His parents had concluded that he was drowned. Former Assistant Secretary of War William Cary Sanger heard of the boy's disappearance to-day, and immediately telegraphed to Greene, N. Y., for a pair of bloodhounds. The animals were given the scent at 5 o'clock this afternoon, and two hours later came upon the missing boy.

There were some phases of country life with which the little city girl had as yet only one day's acquaintance, but the rights of property owners and property renters were firmly fixed in her mind. "Mother," she called in evident excitement, the morning after the family had settled for the summer in Sunset View Cottage, "mother! Just come here and look. There's somebody's hens wiping their feet on our nice clean grass."

IS YOUR COLD BETTER?

No, it's as bad as ever. Nothing seems to help. Why not use the up-to-date specific "Catarrhzone," which drives out cold in one day. Inhale Catarrhzone and you will be relieved in two minutes. Continue the treatment and cure is assured. Healing, germ destroying and pleasant, nothing for colds, throat trouble and Catarrh compares with Catarrhzone. Sold everywhere, 25c. and $1.00.
