COMING IN DROVES.

Exceptionally Fine Class of Immigrants Landed Today at Halifax Bound for Different Points in Canada.

Halifax, N. S., April 12.—(Special.)—There is an unusually large proportion for Toronto and other parts of Ontario, many for the west and quite a number for the maritime provinces.
On the passage of the Corinthian there was a death from pneumonia, Michael McLeod, a Scotchman, who had been in Canada for forty years, and been to his old home on a visit.
He was attacked with pneumonia and died about a week ago, being buried at sea. His home was at Prince Albert.
The Corinthian proceeded today to Boston.

WORK DIVIDED.

C. P. R. Boats will Help Allan Liners to Carry Mails Between Canada and Britain.

Ottawa, April 12.—(Special.)—The Allan Line have arranged with the C. P.
R. to do part of their contract which the Allan people have from the government for carrying the British mails. The department of trade and commerce has consented to this and the order will be approved today.
The Allan Line will use the Victoria and the Virginian and the C. P.

R. will utilize their two new steamers, the Empress of Britain, and the Empress of Ireland.
The Empress of Britain will have her trial trip on the Clyde Saturday and the Empress of Ireland will be ready about May 1st.
This arrangement will be satisfactory to all parties and will give the Allan Line time to get new steamers.

Miss Little sails from New York early next week.

MILLINERY OPENING AT MARYSVILLE.

The millinery opening at Marysville on Tuesday was largely attended and the sales were satisfactory. The display was a very good one comprising some beautiful creations. Flowers are used extensively this season and the blending of shades requires an artistic eye. Noticeable were some beautiful flowered hats of an oval turban shape. One of the shades of roses, another of violets and one of mauve hyacinths being much admired. Some very pretty straws in leghorn and fancy braid trimmed with ribbon and flowers were shown.
Shades of old rose and purple predominated while hats of Alice blue and dark green found favor with many. Miss Tufts and her assistants were kept busy showing their work and certainly it could not be exceeded.

Thomas F. Sheehan, of Fall River Mass., who till St. Patrick's day was in all respects an able-bodied man and working regularly as a moulder, is doomed to lifelong blindness as the result of a strange afflic-tion which befell him while he slept.
Sheehan, it appears, retired on St.
Patrick's night as well as usual. He awoke the next morning blind and all efforts by private physicians and hospital experts have been unavailing in restoring his sight. Physicians in Boston declare that the man will be permanently blind. Sheehan has a wife and an infant child.

"Mary" said a lady to her cook,
"I must insist that you keep better hours and that you have less company in the kitchen at night. Last night you kept me from sleeping because of the uproarious laughter of one of your women friends."
"Yes mum, I know," was the reply "but she couldn't help it. I was telling her how you tried to make cake one day."

The friends of Mr. H. B. Rainsford will be glad to learn that there is a slight improvement in his condition today.

A SERIOUS AFFAIR.

St. John Boy Dead it is Thought from Beating at the Hands of Another Lad.

St. John, N. B., April 12.—(Special.)—The death occurred last evening of Stanley Crawford, aged 11.
Young Crawford is believed to have been killed as the result of a beating received at the hands of Fred Laskey, aged 14.
The young lad's body was bruised.
The police are working on the case.

ELEVATOR BURNED.

Wallaceburg, Ont. April 12.—(Special.)—Fire destroyed W. D. O'Leary's grain elevator here this morning. The total loss is estimated at about $25-000 partly covered by insurance. The fire is supposed to have started in the boiler room.

THE SCOTT ACT.

And the Manner in Which it is Enforced at Woodstock.

Woodstock Dispatch.—At the meeting of the town council last Friday evening Coun. Fields moved that Mr.
Colpitts, Inspector under the Canada Temperance Act, be paid a salary of $200 if he enforced the Act by 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, offences, and only $100 if he does not do so. The motion was withdrawn, but on a motion of Coun. Fields, seconded by Coun.
Fisher a committee was appointed to wait on Mr. Colpitts and give him the views of the board.

The manner in which Mr. Colpitts enforces the Act has been for years the most prolific subject of discussion in the town and county councils and in the community at large.
Wars, famines and prize fights come and go. They attract attention for a few brief days or weeks and are forgotten, but this question we have always with us. Every year some councillors, at both boards, demand that the Act be rigorously enforced, that a man shall be fined only once on a first offence, the next information shall be for a second offence and a third information, they demand, shall be for a third offence, the penalty for which is three months imprisonment, with no option of a fine.
Eight or ten years ago Mr. Colpitts adopted this method of enforcing the act, and we all remember what happened. He sent four well-known citizens to jail, and the town arose in wrath, almost as one man, and declared the proceeding to be a disgrace to the community and there were not a dozen men who dared to defend the action of the inspector.

The moral of this is plainly to be seen. Woodstock is a temperance sort of town in name. Public sentiment seems to agree that a man who violates the provisions of the Canada Temperance Act shall be fined once and then, but it won't stand for putting anyone in jail, unless it be some poor pocket-peddler who has no friends.

The only enforcement of the Act that Woodstock can ever have, with the present temperance sentiment, is just such enforcement as Mr. Colpitts is now giving.

Temperance sentiment in town is very weak. It is true a petition to repeal the act could not get the requisite number of signatures to bring the matter to a vote, because there are many people, who, though they might like to see the act repealed, for business reasons would not sign the petition, but if the matter could be voted on the act would undoubtedly be defeated.
To put the matter in a nutshell, the temperance question in existence, there will be just the sort of enforcement we have now, or none at all.

WANT MORE PAY.

Ottawa, April 11.—A deputation of Canadian postmasters waited on the postmaster general yesterday in the interest of postmasters of the dominion, with a request for increased remuneration and were promised full consideration of the claims they put forward.

The bill of particulars presented by the postmasters contained nineteen items. They asked in the first place that the minimum wage be raised from $25 to $50 and that when the pay is determined on the percentage basis the scale be adopted.

The other requests were for a ten per cent allowance for rent, fuel and light, that an allowance be paid for service before eight and after seven p. m.; that the post office department furnish stationery for the local postmasters; that newspaper publishers be compelled to fold copies of their papers so as to admit of easy sorting; that the money order system be further simplified; that the savings bank department interest be allowed from the date of deposit to the actual date of withdrawal; that a postal stores depot be established at Winnipeg for the convenience of the west; that postmasters be allowed to take advantage of the cheap government insurance now provided for civil servants; that a better quality of paper be used in postage stamps and that circulars, etc., mailed in a whole sale manner be not allowed to leave the office of mailing until securely tied in bundles ready for forwarding to the different postoffices; that a basis of remuneration be established for postmasters in towns where the work has largely increased by the establishment of customs ports of entry and that salaries be provided for all accounting offices.

The deputation was introduced by H. J. Logan, M. P., and was supported by several other members of parliament. Their speakers were Ira Stratton, of Stonewall, Manitoba; James Scott, of Clinton, Ont.; and B.
W. Ralston, of Amherst.

RUIN EVERYWHERE.

50,000 People Homeless and Damage of $20,000,000 from Vesuvius Eruption.

VOLCANO STILL ACTIVE AND CONDITIONS AT NAPLES
VERY UNPLEASANT.

Naples, April 12.—(Special.)—From all quarters come reports that the situation has not improved, but ashes from Mount Vesuvius are still falling everywhere.

Houses are collapsing and burying their occupants, and the roads near the volcano are no longer opened than they are closed again by falling ash.

Inhabitants of the city are enduring the gray atmosphere of yesterday, which is even more oppressive than before.

From early in the day crowds gathered before the palace, where men were heard to exclaim:
"He comes, but the pope stays at home. Long live the king."

The most consoling news this morning is that the lava is cooling on all sides.

Some extraordinary escapes from death have been recorded. A man and four children have been rescued after having been lost in an ash covered wilderness for 56 hours. They were terribly exhausted and seemed more like skeletons than human beings.
The presence of King Victor Emmanuel in Naples, which always produces a good effect on the inhabitants, has acted as a tonic on the Neapolitans who have superstitious veneration for his Majesty.

The popular costume of those who can afford it, consists of an automobile coat, cap and goggles, which enables the wearer to maintain reservance of clean lines, but people generally have to be contented with paper masks and raised umbrellas.

The drivers of trolley cars are wearing masks of some transparent material under the visors of their caps.

More shops were opened today and the city is slowly resuming its normal life. People have recovered from panic of yesterday and less downhearted.

Finnish have been sent from Palermo, Sicily and other places to the villages, which have suffered the most from the fall of ashes in order to assist in removing ashes from roofs and relieve exhausted soldiers.

Camp kitchens have been placed at a number of places, and free meals are being distributed wherever possible to those in need of them.

Naples, April 12.—The whole of the Vesuvius district as far as Naples, Caserta and Castellamare is one vast Saharan desert.

Reports from all sides state that the fall of ashes is not so heavy as it has been for the last few days and that the ashes are much finer, and from this it is argued that the prospects are much brighter.

Reports of the destruction of two towns, Sarno and Genarro, the former having happily proved to be without foundation. At Sarno 5-000 persons from nearby villages and farms have found refuge. At Genarro, where many lives were lost on Monday, is now practically buried.

There is great difficulty in ascer-

THIRTEEN TO SEVEN.
First Division in Saskatchewan Legislature.

Regina, April 9.—The first division of the session took place this afternoon, when the Opposition's amendment to the address, in reply was voted down by 13 to 7.

On the Government side Messrs.
Champagne and Stewart were absent, while Dr. Elliot was missing from the opposition benches. Prince Albert district was also unrepresented, though no official announcement has been made yet as to Dr. Tyerman's resignation. These, with the Speaker, complete the roll of twenty-five.

Speakers to the address in reply during the afternoon session were Mr. Sutherland (Saskatoon), who was speaking at Friday's adjournment; Mr. Sanderson (Kinistino); Mr.
Garry (Yorkton) and Hon. J. A.
Calder, all on the government side, while Messrs. Ellis (Moosomin) and Wellington (Moose Jaw) presented the case for the opposition.

Mr. Ellis took up the challenge of the Premier and named Messrs. Ayotte, Murchison and Potts of Brandon as the election crooks who had travelled with members of the Cabinet during the campaign. The Premier denied in each case that these men were election crooks, and said they were reputable citizens of Manitoba. Mr. Ellis said these men had all come up before the courts taining the actual condition of affairs in that part of the stricken districts nearest the volcano. The train and railway tracks are deep under sand and ashes, the roads are obliterated, and even the fishermen who ply their calling on the Bay of Naples are afraid to venture out on the water anywhere in the vicinity of Vesuvius.

All these conditions make it difficult to give an intelligent estimate of the loss of property. One estimate is that $20,000,000 damage has been done and that 50,000 persons have been rendered homeless.

Everywhere in Naples and Castellamare and other towns are being flooded with refugees who but a few before were prosperous and living under the shadow of that perpetual menace, the volcano of Vesuvius. For these people, whose homes and crops have been destroyed, there is little consolation in the statement of scientists that ultimately the valleys and hill-sides will become as fertile as ever they were.

Until communication can be restored and search of the houses in the two afflicted districts can be made it will be impossible to determine how many people have perished by this eruption.

Yesterday was a disquieting day in Naples. The people, alarmed by what has happened, have deserted their shops, and the manufacturers are nearly all closed. The crowds are in a temper for any excess. It would only require a spark to start a conflagration.

The arrival of King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena has done much to restore calm. They have been received with great joy, which turned into delirium whenever the sovereigns left a hospital after a visit to the wounded there. One poor woman exclaimed: "I would consent to be wounded for the sake of being kissed by the Queen." Others cannot find words in which to express their gratitude that both the royal palaces of Capodimonte and San Fernando have been given up to refugees.

The opinion is expressed that the volcano has spent itself. All the papers recommend that the public be calm, pointing out the improved condition of affairs. All the theatres, cafes and places of amusements have been closed. Before the shrine of the streets many candles are kept burning, while smaller images are carried in the thoroughfares, often being set down in the open air and surrounded with candles.

Troops are being employed to clean the roofs of buildings of the accumulation of sand and ashes, the weight of which endangers the structures.

The large glass-covered galleries throughout the city, which are much frequented, have been ordered closed, lest they collapse.

The village of San Gennaro has been partially buried in sand and ashes, and several houses have collapsed.
At that place three persons were killed and more than twenty wounded.

while Ayotte was deputy returning officer in one of the famous "thin red line" cases. He went on to refer to what he termed the grooved work in North Qu'Appelle, "where one Mike Voll had discovered five dollar bills growing on bushes," and out of pure patriotism had used them to influence votes in favor of Hon. W. R. Motherwell."

Mr. Calder (South Regina) was in the middle of a strong defence of the government when the House adjourned until 8 p. m.

In conducting experiments on the Cove Field, Quebec, with a new cartridge adapted to the Ross rifle some remarkable results have been obtained. A muzzle velocity of 2,735 feet per second was obtained, as compared with a velocity of 2,000 feet per second given by the present service ammunition. The tremendous advantage this new cartridge will give to troops provided with it is so great that it is difficult for the lay mind to grasp. It makes it possible for a fixed sight to be used up to a 700-yard range.

Consternation is felt over the fact that sixteen milch cows in the P. E.
I. government dairy herd are infected with tuberculosis.

McGill University will confer the honorary degree of L.L.D. on Mr.
Carnegie.
