FOR THE HOME OR CAMP.*The San Mateo Mantel Mission Clock

Height, 20 1/2 inches. Width, 9 1/2 inches. Dial, 6 inches.

The first mantel clock made in the pure Spanish mission style, and sold at a reasonable price. Simple and beautiful lines. Case of heavy antique oak, in dull finish, carefully and substantially built. Fitted with a durable eight-day American movement that is guaranteed to keep good time, and strikes the hour and half-hour on a SWEET-TONED CATHEDRAL GONG. Figures and hands of polished brass finish, on a dark oak luteo metal finish. Latch and hinges of old fashioned brass in metal finish.

Highly improved machinery and lessened cost of production enable the manufacturers to offer this beautiful clock for $5.50.

ST. JOHN ARREST.

Hugh L. Linden, a life insurance canvasser belonging to Moncton, is under arrest at St. John for passing worthless checks on the Royal Bank in purchasing clothes for himself.

BROKE HIS LEG.

Mr. John A. Scott, formerly proprietor of the Springhill hotel, who went west last year, had one of his legs broken while working in the lumber woods of British Columbia, a few weeks ago.

SALVATION ARMY MEETINGS.

will be held on Sunday as follows: 7 and 11 a. m., and 3 and 7.45 p. m. Subject of night's meeting, "Little Things." The public are cordially invited. Ensign and Mrs. Lorimer and Capt. Talle are in charge.

FOR STREAM DRIVING.

Lumber operators are hiring men to work on the drive and it is likely that several crews will be sent forward the latter part of next week. The rate of wages this year will average about two dollars per day.

ENJOYED A DRIVE.

The members of the George Street Baptist church choir and a few friends, including Pastor Rideout, drove to Marysville Thursday evening and were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. George Tapley.

LAI'D TO REST.

The remains of the late Mrs. Gabriel VanHorne arrived from Boston by the noon train on Friday, and were conveyed by Undertaker R. B. Adams to her former home at Nashua, where interment took place. Rev. Dr. Duffy conducted the burial service.

AUCTION AT HANWELL.

On Tuesday next, April 3rd Auctioneer George W. McEwin will sell at the residence of Mr. Charles W. Gallop, Hanwell, a quantity of stock and farm machinery, blacksmith tools, household furniture, etc. Terms will be made known at the sale.—d.

TAKING GREELEY'S ADVICE.

DEATH AT BURTON.

The death occurred at Burton, Sunbury county, last night, of Mr. William Case, a well known resident. He was in his 82nd year, and leaves a family of one son and four daughters. The remains will be interred at Burton on Monday afternoon. Mr. Robert B. Adams is the officiating undertaker.

MEN'S MEETING.

Arrangements have been made to have Rev. A. A. Rideout give a series of talks to young men at the Y. M. C. A. four Sunday afternoons in April. The first of these will be given tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Music will be furnished by the choir of the George Street Baptist church. All men are invited to attend.

VALUABLE ESTATE.

Letters of administration have been issued out of the York Probate court to the administrators of the estate of the late Mr. D. Cook Joslin of Kingsclear. The estate was sworn at $9,000 of which $3,000 is real and $6,000 personal property. He died intestate, and the property will be divided among his widow and three sons. Mr. R. B. Hanson is proctor.

GOOD DRIVING PROSPECTS.

Mr. Frank Whitehead, who has been looking after Randolph & Baker's lumbering operations near Edmundston, arrived home last evening to spend a few days. He speaks very hopefully of the stream driving outlook, and does not think it could be much improved upon. From the latest reports he thinks there is at least five feet of snow in the woods on the upper St. John.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT.

The schedule for next week's games in the Queen Hotel bowling tournament has been made up as follows: Monday—Winslow vs. Allen. Tuesday—Flewelling vs. McLellan. Wednesday—Staples vs. Randolph. Thursday—McLeod vs. Babbitt. Friday—VanBuskirk vs. Dickson. The schedule of games for the remaining weeks of the tournament will be published later.

HOLINESS MEETING.

One of the largest audiences that have yet attended the holiness meeting held in the I. O. G. T. Hall, over Burt's grocery store, Queen street, was at the last meeting, and a fine service was held. The next meeting will be held (D. V.) in the same place, on Monday evening next, April 2nd, at 8 p. m. It is expected that the Rev. G. B. Traflet, of Marysville will conduct the service, and he will likely have Evangelist Rev. D. R. and Mrs. Pierce to assist him. A grand time is looked for. All are invited.

ESTEEMED LADY'S DEATH.

Mrs. John McDonald, formerly of Fredericton, Passes Away in New York.

Miss F. C. O'Connor has received a telegram from New York announcing the death at that place on Thursday night of her aunt, Mrs. McDonald, widow of the late Mr. John McDonald, who for many years was proprietor of the dry goods store here, known as the Golden Fleece.

Although well advanced in years, Mrs. McDonald was at last accounts in the enjoyment of her usual good health and the news of her death was a great shock to her relatives here. No particulars have been received other than the announcement contained in the telegram.

The deceased lady was a daughter of the late Mr. Michael O'Connor, deputy crown land survivor of this city. She was about eighty-five years of age and is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Thomas A. Sharkey, and the Misses Agnes and Josephine McDonald, all residing in New York. Mr. T. G. O'Connor of this city is a nephew and Miss F. C. O'Connor a niece.

The late Mrs. McDonald was a lady of very kindly and lovable disposition and during her long residence in Fredericton, she made hosts of warm friends who will learn of her death with feelings of very great regret. She has been a resident of New York since 1894, her husband having died here the previous year.

No information has yet been received as to whether or not the body is to be brought here for burial.

MAY LOCATE HERE.

The Salvation army immigration agency at St. John is now bringing a number of desirable farm helpers to this country and it is also their intention to bring in the near future several immigrants who desire to purchase farm properties. Mr. H. B. Rainsford who has a wide knowledge of all the desirable farms in this locality has been in communication with Staff Captain Creighton, and other salvation officials with a view to having the intending purchasers inspect farms in this country. Mr. Rainsford offered to drive the Staff Captain or any official around and point out these different places, and it is just possible may induce some of them to settle here. Staff Captain Creighton leaves for England shortly in connection with the matter.

ORANGE GRAND LODGE.

A large delegation of Orangemen from this neighborhood will go to Woodstock on Monday to attend the meeting of the Provincial Grand Lodge, which opens at that place on the following day. The delegation will include Grand Master McLeod, George Haviland, John Oldham, George Beatty, (R. W. Gregory, Holly Wandless, N. J. Smith and Howard Segee, of this city; John McNabb, of Covered Bridge, Eeris Clarkson, of Williamsburg, Hiram White of Cross Creek, and C. M. Smith of Marysville. Grand Master McLeod will be a candidate for a second term.

GRAND EASTER BAZAAR.

The Easter week bazaar to be held by the Catholic congregation of St. Mary's in their new church building promises to be a big success. The main body of the church will be so far completed by that time as to allow of the big bazaar being held there. The congregational committees who are arranging the matter represent the different sections of the parish, and each committee is trying to have their section surpass the other. Particulars of this grand affair will be given later.—d.

HOSPITAL AID BALL.

Invitations are out for the ball to be given April 24 at the Queen Hotel, under the auspices of the Victoria Hospital Aid Society, to raise funds for the hospital. The amusements will be dancing and prize wheel and the chaplains are Mrs. R. F. Randolph, Mrs. W. E. Smith, and Mrs. A. R. Wetmore. Tickets will be $1.00 each and may be obtained in exchange for invitations and cash at McMurray's.

"So you can't help stealing?" asked the Magistrate, kindly. "No, your Honor; an impulse comes over me that I can't resist." "Too bad, too bad! An impulse to send you up for six months is getting hold of me. There, it's got hold. Six months; can't resist. Impulse is a wonderful thing."—London Mail.

Miss Marjorie Blair, daughter of Hon. A. G. Blair, sailed from Halifax today to visit her sister in England.

The secret of a self made man's success isn't any secret.

A PRACTICAL Fashion Display

The summer styles have become fixed, and our Sait department represents the last word of these fashions. There are but two lengths of coat for suits that are proper—the short pony coat and the Eton.

Circular Skirts are much in favor and the skirt is trimmed considerably.

It is not a minute to early to think of your Easter suit. The days will fairly fly now, and Easter will be here before you know it—besides you will never get a better selection than now, the stock will never be as complete, nor the showing more attractive.

Our stock is more important than a mere exhibit—it is an authority on spring styles, and even if you do not buy you should see.

The Very Latest Suits.

Are in here in a variety of styles, each one different from the other. Tweeds, Broadcloths and Panamas. The colors are grey, alice blue, reseda green, myrtle green, green, navy blue and black.

Prices $10.75 to $33
