

Events of a Day

THE WEATHER.

Maritime.—Easterly to south winds with sleet. Saturday, winds shifting to westerly, and turning colder.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement is announced at St. John, of Ernest R. Sewell, formerly of Gibson, to Miss Ella Macaulay, daughter of Alex Macaulay, St. John.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. William Hagerman and family desire to return their sincere thanks for the many kind expressions of sympathy extended to them during their recent bereavement.

WILL RUN FOR MAYOR.

Ald. Stockford announced today that he had definitely decided to offer as candidate for the mayoralty at the approaching elections. His card will be given to the public next week.

KINDNESS APPRECIATED.

The family of the late Postmaster Hilyard, wish through the columns of the Herald to return their heartfelt thanks to the numerous kind friends who assisted them in their recent bereavement.

BACHELORS' BALL.

The young bachelors of the city are to entertain their friends to a ball at the Masonic Hall this evening. A large number of invitations have been issued for the function.

THE STUDENTS' CON.

The students of the U. N. B. are to hold their annual convocation in the Arts' building on Thursday evening, February, 22nd. The chaperons will be Mesdames L. W. Bailey, S.W. Perrott, and A. W. Scott.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Mr. E. L. Dunn, a well known resident of Morrison's mills, and Mrs. Effie Duffy, were quietly married last evening by Rev. G. B. Payson. The worthy couple have many friends who will wish them every happiness.

MOON'S ECLIPSE.

There was a total eclipse of the moon early this morning, which was quite visible in Fredericton. The shadow first made its appearance shortly before 2 o'clock, and gradually crept over the face of the moon until at half-past three the eclipse was total. By half-past five this morning the moon was again clear.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne is going on in the legislature this afternoon. The address was moved by Mr. Murray of Northumberland, and seconded by Mr. Robertson of St. John. When the House adjourns this evening it will likely stand adjourned until Monday.

COLLEGE Y. M. C. A.

The College Y. M. C. A. intend holding a series of talks on fundamental truths, by prominent clergymen, at their Sunday afternoon meetings, for the next five weeks. The first one of the series will be given by Rev. Willard MacDonald at four o'clock Sunday. All students and friends are invited to be present.

SPECIAL SERVICES.

A week of prayer and preaching, a preparation for Lent, will be commenced at St. Mary's Parish Church on Monday evening, February 19th, at 8 o'clock. Several clergymen are expected to give short, pithy, stirring addresses, at least two each evening, calculated to awaken the sinner and quicken the saint, from which a gracious Lenten tide is expected.

THE CIVIC CONTEST.

The large crop of prospective candidates, which appeared on the civic horizon a short time ago seems to be gradually thinning out. It is quite certain, however, that there will be contests in some of the wards, but there is some doubt as to who the new aspirants for aldermanic honors will be. The election takes place on the second Monday in March.

NATURAL HISTORY SOCIETY.

The regular meeting of the Society will take place on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock. Being the anniversary meeting, there will be a presidential address, followed by the election of officers. The president will then further address the meeting on "Some Recent Advance in Scientific Thought and Practice." All persons interested in science will be welcome.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The first games of the Basket Ball League were played in the gymnasium last night. The first game, Y. M. C. A. vs. Business College, won by Business College. Score 23 to 11. 2nd Game, Freshmen vs High School, won by Freshmen. Score 20 to 9. The Debating Club meets tonight and take up the question: Resolved, that the introduction of a sewerage system in Fredericton is undesirable.
