WOODSTOCK BLAZE.

Whole Business Block on Main Street Practically Wiped Out—Losers and Insurance.

Fire Broke Out at Three O'clock This Morning and Burned Several Hours.

Woodstock, May 30.—(Special)— The fire this morning was quite a severe one for the town.
The whole block of buildings from Payson's corner, north to Nobles' corner, on Main street, has been burned, with the exception of the Sheasgreen drug store building, the upper part of which was occupied by C. H. Merritt & Co., formerly of St.
John, as a residence and photo studio, which however was gutted.

Shortly after three o'clock, Night Watch McIntosh noticed a blaze and returning, after ringing in the alarm, he found the back part of the whole block from Connell street in a blaze.

The firemen were promptly on the scene and worked faithfully, but owing to the situation of the block, which was always considered a fire trap and dreaded by the insurance companies, the fight was a hard one.

They continued playing on the smouldering ruins all morning, and the water supply was excellent.

It is thought the fire started in Wilson's studio, although the proprietors were not in the building last evening.

Insurance agents say about $20,000 insurance was carried by the burnt out firms.

THE LOSSES.

The following business places were destroyed:
Holyoke & Brown, grocery, insured for $1800 on stock.

Wilson Bros., photo studio, $2500
insurance.

W. J. Cogger, barber, $300 insurance.

Singer Sewing Machine Company, insured.

Garden Bros., drug store and ware-rooms, about $5,000 insurance.

Sullivan Bros., meats and fish, no insurance.

Sullivan Bros., grocery, $1,000 insurance.

A. Embleton, barber, no insurance.

L. E. Young, barrister, insured.

Mrs. Turner, dressmaker, total loss.

R. S. Welsh, billiard parlors, $400
insurance.

Mrs. John Loane, book store, loss $8,500, insured for $2,500.

C. H. Merritt & Co., photo studio.

William Blake, restaurant, insured.

Sheasgreen Drug Co., part of stock saved, about $2,500 insurance.

McAfee estate, heavy losers, $500
insurance.

Mrs. J. C. Doherty, building, insured.

CONVOCATION AFTERMATH.

Mount Allison University Students, Old Grads and Visitors Enjoy Social Reunions-- Board of Regents' Meeting.

Sackville, N. B., May 30.—(Special)—The reception held last night in the Ladies' college was not attended by the usual crowd on account of the unfavorable weather.

The rain has not ceased during commencement, and needless to say has put a considerable damper on the pleasures of the occasion.

The program was given in the Y.
M. C. A. Parlor, and all the numbers were well received. The Sackville Cornet Band gave a well selected programme in Beethoven Hall.

The annual banquet of the Alumni and Alumnae Societies was held in the Ladies' college dining hall from 9 to 12 o'clock and about 150 persons were present.

After the menu had received well deserved attention, Mr. J. T. Mellish, of Charlottetown, president of the Alumni Society made the opening speech, and was followed by Miss Fannie Palmer of St. John, president of the Alumnae Society, who made a most pleasing address.

Other speakers were Rev. J. W.
Wood of Springhill, Rev. Wm. Dobson of Charlottetown, Rev. E. B.
Moore of Wolfville, H. A. Powell, ex-M. P. of Sackville, Prof. Tory of McGill, and Rev. S. Howard of St.
John.

Dr. Andrews read an address from Mr. M. J. Butler, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, Ottawa. This was intended to have been read at the convocation but unfortunately arrived too late.

A good time was enjoyed by all and the meeting broke up about twelve o'clock.

The annual meeting of the Board of Regents convened this morning in the University Library. Dr. Evans of Hamilton in the chair.

Satisfactory reports were read from the heads of the institutions, Dr. Allison, Dr. Borden, and Mr.
Palmer.

The board continued its deliberations this afternoon.

NO QUESTIONS TO ASK.

Tories Summoned Jury All Way From England to Give Evidence in Parliamentary Enquiry and Then Find They Didn't Want Him.

Ottawa, Ont., May 30.—(Special)— At the agriculture committee this morning, Mr. Preston was discharged and the motion of Mr. Duncan Ross, that Mr. Preston be reported to the house for his refusal to answer certain questions already referred to along with evidence of Mr.
Preston, was passed.

Mr. Alfred Jury was called for when Mr. Monk said that he had no questions to ask him but perhaps some one else had.

Hon. Mr. Fisher said that Mr.
Jury was summoned by Mr. Monk, and therefore the committee expected that he would proceed with the examination.

Mr. Monk replied that when he summoned Mr. Jury, he expected that he would be able to give information concerning some matters which two other witnesses refused to give, but found that he had none to give.

Mr. Fisher said that Mr. Monk had evidently found out from Mr. Jury privately that he had no information to give regarding the North Atlantic Trading Company, but then the committee might be anxious to know something about immigration from Mr. Jury, and how it was being conducted in Europe.

Mr. Monk said that he would not move for Mr. Jury's discharge because it did seem strange to ask witness to come so far and not ask him anything. He (Monk) had some business before the railway committee and he would like to go there.

Mr. Fisher said that this being so, he would move that the committee adjourn and the committee then adjourned.

THE STOCK MARKET.

Montreal, May 30.—(Special)—The stock market was unusually dull this morning and the trading was devoid of importance. The most active issues were:

Colored Cotton 60.
Nova Scotia Steel, 68.
Toronto Railway, 115½.
Havana Electric 46.

WINDSOR MURDER TRIAL.

Windsor, N. S., May 30.—(Special)— At the Stanley murder trial this morning, three witnesses, Mary Ann Fisher, Jas. Fisher and Edgar Mc-Carthy were examined, but nothing new was elicited.

FOSTER SQUEALS.

Ottawa, May 30.—On a question of privilege in the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. Foster declared that the correspondent of La Presse misrepresented him by declaring he was consciously throwing gratuitous slanders in the faces of the people of Quebec, French Canadians and Catholics, and of everyone and everything which is respectable and which ought to be respected, and that Mr. Foster represented French Canadians as fools and the Catholic clergy as an aggregation of fanatics and hypocrites. Mr.
Foster also declared that Le Canada misrepresented him. At a convenient time he would offer a resolution on the subject.

FATEHR MEEHAN'S ESTATE.

In the Westmorland probate court at Dorchester Tuesday, the accounts of Hugh F. Hamilton, executor of the estate of the late Fathur Meehan of Moncton were passed and allowed by Judge Emmerson.

The probate value of his real estate was set at about eight thousand dollars, and of the personal property at four thousand dollars. Three life insurance policies of one thousand each were given to the sisters of the deceased priest.

The rest of his personal property was given to the priest in charge of St. Bernard's church, Moncton, to be used by him for church purposes, his real estate was devised by him to the Roman Catholic bishop of St.
John, his successors and assigns in trust for the benefit of the church in the diocese of St. John.

UPPER QUEENSBURY.

May 28.—Farmers are getting along well putting in their crops as the weather has been very favorable for several days.

Quite a number took in the excusion from this place on the 24th and report a very pleasant time.

Among the latest visitors to this place are, Mrs. Geo. Peters of Fredericton, the Misses Tracey of Tracy station, Mrs. and Miss Tompkins of Meductic, Mrs. David McLeod of Southampton, Miss Rideout and friend of Middle Simonds, Carleton Co., Miss McKay and Mrs. Stevens of Fredericton, Mrs. Ernest Hay of Richmond, Carleton County and Messrs. J. C. Maxon of Fredericton and W. Horton of Amherst, N. S., who have all been visiting their respective relatives and friends here during the past ten days.

Mrs. Ira Hagerman is visiting relatives in Southampton.

Mrs. A. Keetch is visiting relatives in Woodstock.

A large congregation gathered in the Episcopal Church here last Sunday (many from a distance) but were disappointed as our clergyman the Rev. Mr. Fullerton was unable to get over the river owing to the heavy wind which prevailed.

Several of our old residents who have been in poor health for a number of weeks, are not improving as rapidly as we would like to see them.

Hanford Hagerman has recently purchased a fine young horse in the vicinity of Millville.

Some of our young ladies carry very genial smiles now that the boys are returning from the upriver drives.
The Rev. A. A. Rutledge preached in the Baptist church here yesterday afternoon to a large congregation.

THE BIG FESTIVAL.

The firemen are making great preparations for the grand festival in Scully's grove next Tuesday evening of next week. There will be all the usual games and attractions and valuable prizes will be put up for competition. The Fredericton Brass Band has been engaged to provide music for dancing. The proceeds of the affair will go to swell the tournament fund. Everybody should go and give the fire laddies a lift.—d.

FIREMEN TO MEET.

A meeting of the fire department is to be held this evening to make arrangements for the festival to be held next Tuesday evening.

UNIVERSITY ENCOENIA.

List of Students Who Won Honors and Distinctions—Order of Graduation.

The old University of New Brunswick will close another most successful term tomorrow. The encoenia exercises will be held in the library commencing at 2.30 o'clock and promise to be unusually interesting. His Honor, the Lieutenant Governor will occupy the chair, and members of the government, senate and alumni society will occupy seats on the platform. Dr. McDonald, professor of economics and philosophy will deliver the address in praise of the founders.

Next on the programme will be the distribution of medals and prizes and certificates and the conferring of degrees. Fifteen candidates will receive the degree of B. A. and sixteen will take the degree of B. S. I.

The honorary degree of LL. D. will be conferred upon Prof. Roberts and Class I.—H. M. Manzer.

Mr. S. W. Kain, of St. John, will receive the honorary degree of M. A. and it is likely that one or two candidates will receive the degree of M.
A. in course.

The valedictory address will be delivered by Rev. Edmund H. Cochrane of Fredericton Junction, who has just completed an arts course at the institution.

Prof. A. Wilmer Duff, of Worcester, Mass., a graduate and at one time professor of physics at the U. N. B., will deliver the alumni oration.

The Associated Alumni Society will meet this evening to award the alumi gold medals for the best Latin essay and also the Brydson-Jack Memorial Scholarship.

A meeting of the senate will be held at the education office tomorrow morning. Dr. Scott will tender his resignation at this meeting and it will probably be accepted. The appointment of a successor will not doubt be left in the hands of a subcommittee.

The faculty held a meeting this morning and arranged the order of graduation for encoenia. Following is the list of degrees to be conferred at the encoenia, showing the honors and distinctions:

THE STOLEN LETTERS.

Griffith Unblushingly Justifies His Action and Would do it Again.

Ottawa, May 30.—(Special)—At the public accounts committee today, W. L. Griffith, secretary of the High Commissioner's London office, was questioned.

He said that copies of Mr. Preston's letters to Mr. Ennis had been handed to him by Mr. Jury.

He consulted counsel who advised him that there was no privilege in the correspondence as against Lord Strathcona, and he then handed them to the commissioner.

Lord Strathcona refused to open them until he knew how they came into Jury's possession. He therefore wrote Mr. Jury and received in reply a letter of which Mr. Preston had given the substance.

In reply to Mr. Gorman, the wit-
