HONORS ROYALTY.

Prince Arthur of Connaught Visiting Mont- real a Guest of Sir Montague Allan-- His Programme for Today.

Montreal, May 8.—(Special)—Prince Arthur of Connaught, reached Montreal at 11 o'clock this morning for a two days visit in the Metropolis and will sail for England by the Virginian on Thursday.

The Mayor and civic officials were at Windsor station to receive the Prince where, in spite of the dark weather, a large concourse of citizens had gathered to welcome the nephew of King Edward.

As H. R. H. came out of the station, a guard of honor from the Prince of Wales fusiliers dipped the royal colors which were carried, in view of the fact that King Edward is honorary colonel of the regiment.

From the station, after inspection of the guards the Prince was driven to Ravenscrag, the residence of Sir Montague Allan, where he will be a guest during his stay in the city.

After luncheon His Royal Highness will repair to the city hall, where the mayor will present the civic address.

Following this ceremony, the Prince will inspect the fire brigade and the cadets.
Dinner at the St. James Club and an evening party at Ravenscrag will complete the day's programme.

Tomorrow the Prince will open the horse show.

MONCTON BUDGET.

Thieving Boy Committed for Trial-- Police Magistrate's Bereavement.

Moncton, May 8.—(Special)—Harry Dryden, a lad of about thirteen years, was committed for trial today for the theft of a waterproof coat from the store of E. C. Dobson, was this morning committed for trial.

The evidence went to show that Dryden not only stole the coat but has been operating all along in the thieving line quite extensively, selling the plunder for mere nothing to parties who gave him lodging.

The case is one of the worst unearthed by the police for some time.
It is not improbable that those who have been profiting by Dryden's stealing may also be prosecuted.

Stipendiary Magistrate Kay this morning received word from Buctouche informing him of the death of his father, one of the oldest and best known residents of Kent County. Deceased has been ailing for some time and death was due to old age and general break up.

Rev. J. D. Murray, of Buctouche, who recently underwent an operation in the Moncton Hospital, has been obliged to return here to the hospital for another operation.

ket today was next door to being on

JUDGE'S MOTHER DEAD.

Halifax, May 8.—(Special)—The death occurred this morning at her residence, Brenton street, of Mrs.
Catherine Wallace, mother of Judge Wallace, of the Halifax County court.

Truro Daily News: A Fredericton man claimed to have the receipt for the last slave sold in New Brunswick—a slave sold by George Harding to John Harding, July 8, 1877.

But Mr. W. C. Milner of Sackville, has a bill of sale of a negro boy named Peter, sold by Jas. Law, of Fort Cumberland, to Titus Knapp dated 9th of January, 1804. The consideration was forty two pounds.
There is also another one of a still later date in the Milner's possession; 10th of May, 1808, by which Sarah Allan conveyed a Mulatto boy named Bacchus to Titus Knapp for thirty pounds. This date is two years later than the advertisement in New Brunswick Gazette of Daniel Brown offering for a sale a negro woman.

COMING TOMORROW.

No. 8 Company of the R. C. R. Left St. John's this Morning.

No. 8 Company of the Royal Canadian Regiment left St. John's, Quebec, for this city this morning and will arrive here at 1.15 p. m. tomorrow in special cars, attached to one of the most prominent men in the Standard Oil Company, was shot and instantly killed shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday morning.

Mr. Spier, who heard the burglar enter his house, arose, and taking a loaded revolver from a drawer in his room groped his way down stairs to the dining room, where he ran into the intruder. Mrs. Spier lay paral-yzed with fright while she listened to the sounds of her husband and the burglar scuffling in the room beneath.

Only a moment elapsed before she heard the revolver and arousing herself rushed down stairs, only to find the dead body of her husband lying across the doorway. Beside him was a revolver. The murderer was nowhere to be seen. In the meantime the servants were aroused and sent at once for Dr. Paterson, but he could do no good, as death had been instantaneous. He, however, found Mrs. Spier in a critical condition.

The murderer man was only thirty-eight years of age and a great personal friend of H. H. Rogers, who has ordered all the available Standard Oil detectives to help in the search for the murderer. The latter is believed to have got away in his row-boat moored at the foot of the terrace leading to the house.

The only clue is several finger marks of the murderer on the door leading from the room where the murder was committed. H. H. Rogers, Jr., has been at the scene investigating all the afternoon and has offered heavy rewards for the capture of the murderer.

The late Mr. Spier represented New Jersey and Staten Island in the oil company's interests.

THE FIRST TROUT.

Mr. H. B. Rainsford, clerk of the legislature, received a nice present from Tuesday side this morn in the shape of a mess of trout, the largest of which weighed 2½ pounds. They were caught by Mr. Edward James, in the Ormoceto Lake. Mr. James is in an excellent condition to accommodate fishing parties.

FOR THE FRISCO SUFFERERS.

Mayor McNally this afternoon forwarded through the Bank of Nova Scotia the sum of $329 to Mr. J. T.
Phelan, chairman of the relief committee of San Francisco. This amount includes the proceeds of the concert given by the Fredericton Brass Band a short time ago. The balance was made up by private subscriptions.

Rev. A. B. Murray, rector of St. Stanley, accompanied the passengers who arrived on the I. C. R. this afternoon.

Mr. R. W. McLellan returned last evening from a business trip to New York and Albany.

There is one reward no man seems to be in a great hurry to get to, and that is the reward piled up for him in heaven.

Graft makes some other things respectable by comparison.

VICTORIA PULLED OFF.

Mishap With Which Star Liner Met at Oak Point.

St. John Sun: The Star liner Victoria ran aground yesterday in a dense fog shortly after 12 o'clock.
The steamer was on her down trip and grounded near the head of "the Mistake," about a mile above Gorham's Bluff but on the opposite side of the river.

Between one and two hours after the May Queen, also on her down trip, was signalled by the Victoria and came to her assistance. The May Queen made several attempts to extricate the Victoria from her plight, but without success. Finding it useless to endeavor to get the Victoria off the May Queen took her passengers aboard and landed them at In-diantown a little after 5 o'clock none the worse for their adventure.

Captain Charles Taylor of the Victoria also came down and reported to the company. Last evening seen at 7 o'clock the tugs W. H. Murray and Hercules started up river to pull the Victoria off her muddy bed.

R. S. Orchard, manager of the Star Line Company, and Capt. Taylor went up with the tugs. A scow was taken along to lighten the Victoria of what little freight she had. The tugs would probably reach the Victoria about 10 o'clock last evening and have everything in readiness to take her off at full tide. Little difficulty is expected in getting her off as the river is rising quite rapidly, and that together with the high tide will greatly aid in getting her off. The steamer is not damaged any and no loss is occasioned by the incident other than the delay and cost in floating her again.

(A telephone message this afternoon states that the Victoria was floated at 1.30 p. m., and proceeded to In-diantown. She sustained no damage and is expected to reach Fredericton some time this evening.)

MURDERED BY BURGLAR.

Standard Oil Magnate Shot dead in his Home by Midnight Mar- auder.

New York, May 8.—During a deathly struggle with a desperado in his dining room Charles L. Spier of West Brighton, Staten Island, one of the most prominent men in the Standard Oil Company, was shot and instantly killed shortly after 3
o'clock yesterday morning.

Mr. Spier, who heard the burglar

DEAN HOLE'S STORIES.

Among the notable characteristics of the late Dean Hole, says The Daily Chronicle, were his robust humor, his polished wit, and his contempt for humbug. While he was personally one of the most charming of storytellers and after-dinner speakers, there were few men concerning whom so many interesting stories are told.

We give below two of the anecdotes with which his name is associated.

Three or four years ago the Dean and Mrs. Hole landed at Dover, much exhausted, after a rough Channel crossing. While waiting for the train the Dean passed over the railway registers. "Ah," he said, addressing the station inspector, "it's one consolation after such a crossing and this tiresome wait that we go back half-price." "I don't understand, sir," was the official's reply; "there is no special rate for the railway registers." "Ah," he said, "I've just been reading all your notices, and you state that you take returned empty at a much reduced rate!"

At an agricultural dinner the Dean began the carving of a quarter of lamb by cutting off the shoulder and placing it on a plate beside him. The laborer next to him stared for two minutes. Then he shook his head. At last he gave a great guffaw, and said to the Dean, "Well, measter, it's a biggish quarter, but I'll wrestle wi' it!"

CRICKET REVIVAL.

Meeting Tomorrow Night to Organize Club-- Old Time Cricket in Fredericton.

There is every prospect of the revival of the good old English game of cricket in Fredericton this summer, and a meeting of all interested in the sport is to be held at the B. and B. club rooms tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

A large number of the young men of the city and quite a few of the old cricketers have expressed their intention of being present to assist in the organization of a club, and it looks now as if the thing would go with a swing.

When Wilmot park was laid out, the donor of that popular pleasure resort had a cricket lawn prepared near the southern driveway and it is now available for the proposed club, the park commission giving their consent for its use. It is hoped also to secure use of officers' square for a practice ground.

When Fredericton was garrisoned by British regiments it was famous as a cricketing centre, and for some years afterwards the troops were withdrawn, this city had one of the crack cricket clubs of Canada, but from say 1870 to 1879, the sport was practically dead here.

A revival, however, came in 1879-- and on the 6th of May in that year the Fredericton cricket club was organized at a meeting of half a dozen gentlemen in the law offices of Messrs. Allen and Wilson, Mr. Geo.
B. Seely was elected to the chair and Mr. L. C. Macnutt appointed secretary, and after a general discussion on the prospects of the proposed club the following were elected officers:

President—Lieut. Col. Saunders.
Hon-pres.—Hon. John A. Beckwith.

President—T. Carleton Allen.
Vice president—Geo. B. Seely.

Secretary—Treasurer—L. C. Mac-nutt.

Managing Committee—H. C. Rutter, E. H. Allen, A. G. Beckwith, John Robinson and L. C. Macnutt.

At a later meeting a constitution and bylaws were adopted, and the following were enrolled members of the club, on the payment of a fee of $1.00:

Hon. John A. Beckwith, Lieut.
Col. Saunders, T. Carleton Allen, Joshua Chandler, A. G. Beckwith, Geo. B. Seely, A. F. Street, G. Fred Fisher, T. G. Loggie, Harry Beckwith, Geo. W. Allen, Jos. E. Collins, John B. Grieves, John Black, Agnew A. Bell, W. A. Quinn, W. B.
Phair, W. C. Cox, W. M. Cathels, J. S.
Fred Richards, John Robinson, H.
C. Rutter, H. LeB. Smith, E. H. Allen, James S. Neill, L. C. Macnutt, Frank L. Morrison, Geo. T. Scully, Alonzo Staples, E. A. Smith, W. K.

VICTORIA HOSPITAL MATTERS.

Trustees Propose Reconstruction of Contagious Eli-- Call for Tenders--Amendment of Bye-Laws-- Medical Staff--Mr. Kitchen's Generosity.

Vice President T. Carleton Allen, now, and filling vacancies as they (chairman pro tem) and Trustees A.
H. F. Randolph, M. Tennant, J. T.
Sharkey, Mayor McNally and Dr. G.
C. VanWart of the Hospital Board of Directors, were in attendance at the regular monthly meeting yesterday, which disposed of a considerable bill of fare. There was a universal expression of sorrow by the members over the cause of absence of their co-trustee, Mr. Willard Kitchen, owing to the recent sudden death of his only son.

Secretary Sampson's report showed that the present month opened with twenty-five patients under treatment.
Nine diphtheria cases, of which the nurses themselves constituted four occupied the contagious wing during the past month, and all recovered.
Of the graduating class of nurses, Miss Slipp and Miss Likely entered upon their final examination for diploma yesterday. For probation nurse, Miss Barry of Nashwaak, was reported as having passed successfully the entrance examination.

It was also reported that after considerable probationary tests for a competent cook, the Matron had secured a very satisfactory one at $14 per month.

After some discussion it was decided to have the matter of reconstructing the Dow wing for contagious diseases, referred to the building committee, with Dr. VanWart added, to report upon the probable cost, etc., at the next meeting.

An application from two of the physicians not listed upon the medical staff for the purpose of being referred to the board, as to the advisability of enlarging that branch of the hospital administration. The proposal did not commend itself for adoption at present, it being deemed better to keep the number thereon as it is.

Allen, W. H. Tippet, E. L. Wetmore, Frank McInnes, Alfred Yerxa, J. W. Kelly, M. J. McLaughlin, LeB.
Twedde, W. E. Russell, Harry Kingston, David Colwell, John C. O'- Brien, D. Simpson, Daniel Tobin.

Anderson's field, now Scully's, was secured as a practice ground, but practice and scratch matches were generally played on Officers' Square.

During the same season the Europa Cricket Club was organized in Fred-erickton, among its prominent members being W. Smiler, M. Hanlon, E.
T. O'Brien G. S. T. Bliss, C. F.
Byrne, W. Sutherland, R. Colwell, Charles L. Richards, W. A. Adams, Chas. H. Biggs, and others, and the two clubs had a series of exciting matches, reviving to an intense degree all of Fredericton's former interest in cricket.

Both clubs also played matches with the St. John Cricket Club and the season was a most successful one.

The Fredericton club's first blow-out for playing foreign matches was composed of E. H. Allen, A. F. Street, M. J. McLaughlin, David Colwell, John C. O'Brien, R. LeB. Twedde, Geo. W. Allen, H. C. Rutter, L. C.
Macnutt, Harry Kingston and John Robinson.

The first match between the Fredericton club and St. John was played on Officers' Square, August 14, 1879 and resulted in a victory for St.
John by eight wickets. McLaughlin made 42 runs, the highest score for Fredericton, and the Fredericton bowlers were John C. O'Brien and George W. Allen. J. D. Hazen umpired for Fredericton, and T. G. Loggie was scorer.

The St. John bowlers were Harry H. Harvey and Alex. Thompson.

The season throughout was a very successful one, as we have said, but the next year, 1880 the Fredericton and Europa clubs were united under the name of the Union Club, the rivalry between the two clubs was gone and the spirit of the sport commenced to lag and finally died.

Some years later another club was organized with Mr. R. S. Barker as its leading spirit and matches were played here with St. John and Hal-fax Wanderers and the Halifax Garrison, but the interest was short lived, and cricket again became practically extinct in Fredericton. The last match was played on the Officers' Square here against St. John about five years ago, the home eleven including W. H. Burns, W. H.
Norton-Taylor, G. W. Farrell, R. S.
Barker and others, St. John winning.

It is hoped that all who favor the revival of cricket will be present at the meeting at the B. & B. Club house tomorrow evening.
