HONORABLE JOHN COSTIGAN

New Brunswick's "Grand Old Man" comes out strongly in favor of "Fruit-a-tives."

Who has not heard of the Honorable John Costigan? He is to-day one of the most powerful, as well as one of the oldest, figures in Canadian politics. He was one of Sir John Macdonald's ablest lieutenants, and for nearly 20 years held various portfolios in the cabinet.

To-day at the age of 71, he is the idol of the electors of New Brunswick, and a power to be always reckoned with in Parliament. His rugged eloquence—biting sarcasm—and ready repartee—make him at once the dread of his opponents and the delight of his conferees.

When a public man of the Hon. John Costigan's position voluntarily testifies to the marvelous cure effected by "Fruit-a-tives," it is bound to carry convincing weight with the whole Canadian people.

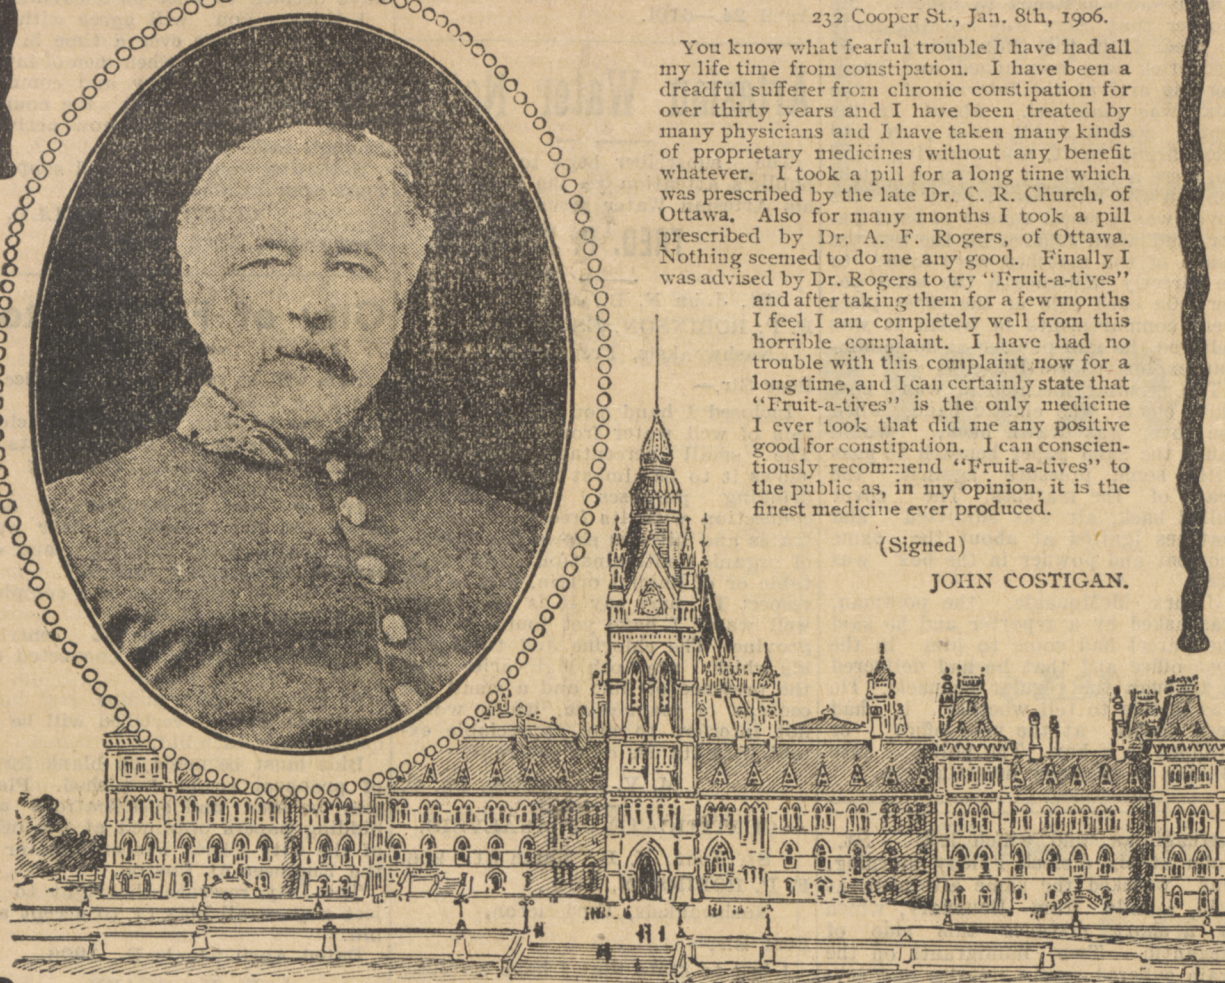

OTTAWA, ONT.,

232 Cooper St., Jan. 8th, 1906.

You know what fearful trouble I have had all my life time from constipation. I have been a dreadful sufferer from chronic constipation for over thirty years and I have been treated by many physicians and I have taken many kinds of proprietary medicines without any benefit whatever. I took a pill for a long time which was prescribed by the late Dr. C. R. Church, of Ottawa. Also for many months I took a pill prescribed by Dr. A. F. Rogers, of Ottawa. Nothing seemed to do me any good. Finally I was advised by Dr. Rogers to try "Fruit-a-tives" and after taking them for a few months I feel I am completely well from this horrible complaint. I have had no trouble with this complaint now for a long time, and I can certainly state that "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine I ever took that did me any positive good for constipation. I can conscientiously recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to the public as, in my opinion, it is the finest medicine ever produced.

(Signed)

JOHN COSTIGAN.

Was ever medicine put to a severer test than this? Here was a great Public Official, who had suffered for more than 30 years with Chronic Constipation. The leading physicians of Ottawa prescribed for him without affording any permanent relief. Finally, as a last resort, "Fruit-a-tives" were ordered. And in THREE MONTHS, Mr. Costigan WAS WELL.

"Fruit-a-tives" did in THREE MONTHS, what doctors and drugs failed to do in THIRTY YEARS.

"Fruit-a-tives" are the most perfect combination known to medical science. They are fruit juices, concentrated and combined with tonics and internal antiseptics.

Unlike liver pills, anti-bilious pills and all preparations containing calomel, cascara, senna, licorice, etc.—"Fruit-a-tives" act like fruit directly ON THE LIVER. They arouse this organ to vigorous health—strengthen it—and increase the flow of bile. It is the bile, given up by the liver, which enters the bowels and makes them move.

Unless the liver is active and excretes sufficient bile to move the bowels regularly and naturally every day, there is bound to be constipation. And the only remedy that will cure Constipation is one that puts the liver in a healthy, active condition as "Fruit-a-tives" do.

Do you suffer with Chronic Constipation? Are you bilious? Is the liver inactive? Is the stomach out of order? Does the head ache? Do your kidneys trouble you? Is the skin disfigured with pimples? Is the appetite poor?

Take "Fruit-a-tives." They sweeten the stomach—regulate the liver, kidneys and bowels—clear the skin—and build up, strengthen and invigorate the whole system. One box will prove their value. 50c. a box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Sent on receipt of price if your druggist does not handle them.

"It seemed hopeless to keep father from drinking, and we all felt the disgrace. When things were at their worst a friend advised me to try Samaria. I saw that you offered a free sample treatment and that the remedy was tasteless and could be given secretly. I determined to try it, and have been glad every day since. The full treatment, which I gave him in his tea, cured him, and I am pleased to say he never touches whiskey now. How glad I am that I wrote you and how happy we all are together. MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Very Sensational Tragedy Took Place on a Public Street—Case of Unrequited Love.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 4.—A double tragedy that grew out of a love affair, was committed yesterday afternoon, when John Korycinski, murdered Mrs. Frances Skryczka, and then ended his own life with bullets from a thirty-eight calibre revolver, while the two were in front of John Kielawa's drug store at Sweet Ave. and Broadway.

The murder and suicide were among the most sensational tragedies that have been committed in East Buffalo in several years. Korycinski loved Mrs. Skryczka devotedly and the woman did not return the affection. Yesterday afternoon they met by appointment. Pedestrians observed the two talking excitedly. Then Korycinski was seen to dramatically wave his arms, apparently trying to convince the woman on some question.

Judging from her actions Mrs. Skryczka feared her infatuated lover would do harm to her. She seemed on the point of wheedling him out when Korycinski reached out and caught her by the right arm. There was a brief pause, during which Korycinski's right hand went to his hip pocket.

The next instant the shining barrel of a revolver flashed in the light. Mrs. Skryczka made one frantic effort to free herself, but in vain. There was a flash and a report and when the smoke raised Mrs. Skryczka was seen to stagger backward.

With a piercing cry Mrs. Skryczka whirled and threw both her hands to her face. She was sinking to the sidewalk when two more shots rang out in quick succession. The murderer's aim was true. One of the bullets had pierced the woman's heart, and the other one entered her breast. The third did not strike the woman.

Pausing a few moments Korycinski glanced about him. Men were running toward the spot. With deliberation, Korycinski places the barrel of the weapon to his own breast. His eyes were riveted on the prostrate form of the woman on the sidewalk. There was a muffled report and then Korycinski dropped to the walk within a few feet of the woman.

Had the murdered been a skilled marksman his aim could not have been better. The bullet, which he intended to blot out his own life like the two he fired into the breast of the woman he loved, pierced his heart. He died almost instantly.

There was a wild scene of confusion immediately after the double tragedy had been committed. The shots caused men, women and children to rush from half a dozen nearby stores, and from their homes. Kielawa, the druggist, was one of the first to reach the man and woman. He lifted the woman's head from the sidewalk. Her waist was saturated with blood. There was no beating of the pulse, and Kielawa realized that the woman was beyond all earthly aid.

Then attention was turned toward Korycinski, but, he, too, was dead, in the excitement some one appeared with two blankets and the two bodies were covered.

BOARDER FELL IN LOVE.

The murder and suicide was the direct result of Korycinski's insane love for Mrs. Skryczka. Mrs. Skryczka, was 32 years old and lived with her husband, John, and their two children at No. 14 Kosciuszko street. The Skryczka family moved here from Altoona, Pa., two months ago. It was in Altoona, where Korycinski boarded with the Skryczkas, that he first met and learned to love the woman for whom he took her life and then his own.

John Skryczka and his family lived happily until Korycinski went to board at their home in Altoona trouble began. Skryczka then decided to give up his position in the steel works in Altoona and move to Buffalo, where he hoped he and his wife would no longer be bothered with Korycinski.

Skryczka found employment here at the American Agricultural Chemical Company's plant, at Lewis and Lyman streets. He was at work when the tragedy was enacted. On Tuesday Korycinski went to Mrs. Skryczka's home and tried to persuade her to let him board with them again. She said no. Korycinski went away angry.

Korycinski sent word to Mrs. Skryczka that he wanted to meet her. Whether the woman had any intention of keeping the appointment is not known. She left her home shortly before noon, and was walking along Broadway from the market toward Kosciuszko street when Korycinski stopped her.

When Deputy Medical Examiner J. D. Howland examined the two bodies before they were removed to the morgue, he found that Korycinski had passed the revolver so close to Mrs. Skryczka's body that the powder had burned the flesh.

BRUTALLY ASSAULTED.

Glenburn, Me., Woman Bound, Gagged and Left to Die—The House Robbed.

Bangor News.—Mrs. Arthur Rowe, wife of a well known farmer of Glenburn, is hovering between life and death from a most brutal and cowardly assault—a crime even more fiendish than murder outright as the poor victim is living in a delirium of torture of weakened nerves shocked almost to a fatal train. Perhaps the most frightful situation a good woman can conjure—alone, helpless, startled from a sound sleep to find standing over her a masked man of most villainous appearance—then a desperate, despairing struggle for her honor. No one to hear her screams, no one to stay the hand of the cowardly desperado in whose hands the victim was but little more than a child. This was the experience of Mrs. Rowe, at some time in the day Monday.

Mrs. Rowe is 28 years old, of good family and a most estimable woman. She has been in ill health for some time and suffering from nervous troubles. On Monday last her husband left the house at about seven o'clock to bring a load of produce to Bangor. After completing her household duties, Mrs. Rowe locked the doors, drew the shades and went to sleep in a chamber.

When her husband returned at night he found his wife unconscious. Her clothing was torn in shreds, her arms and legs were bound with strips of cloth and a gag made from a knotted handkerchief fast in her mouth. There were signs of a desperate struggle everywhere.

The house had been ransacked from cellar to attic. Every drawer and closet had been searched, boxes emptied of their contents, and the only money in the house, about $18, was missing.

Since that time Mrs. Rowe has been in a semi-conscious, hysterical state. In brief clear intervals it has been gathered from her fragmentary talk that she was assaulted by a large man wearing a black mask. The physicians say that her life depends upon absolute quiet and to press her further for details at present might bring on most serious conditions.

Although the crime took place on Monday, it was not known in Bangor until shortly after noon Thursday, when County Attorney Patton and Deputy Sheriff Sproul returned here after a long and thorough investigation.

They found what they believe to be important clues. They are quite sure that the crime was committed by some one familiar with the premises. The assailant entered the house by the back door and other conditions lead to this conclusion.

THEORIES AND CLUES.

The Rowe place is not far from the line of the Seaport railroad, the next house to the highway crossing between Hudson and Glenburn. During the construction of the road many disreputable characters were in the neighborhood, and although the officials will not affirm or deny, it is understood that suspicious point strongly to a man known to have been about the place.

County Attorney Patton said on Thursday night that good progress had been made, considering that there was but little to work from, and he thought an arrest quite probable in a short time. He said that he considered the condition of Mrs. Rowe very serious.

Mr. Patton believes that the motive of the crime was robbery, to which criminal assault might have been added.

The crime has created great excitement in the district near the scene, and all kinds of stories are rife, mostly without foundation.

MILLION DOLLARS SQUANDERED.

It was estimated that this sum was wasted last year by people trying to get a cure for catarrh. Foolish for sufferers to experiment when it is so well known that "Catarrhazone" is the only remedy that cures permanently. Other treatments only relieve, but Catarrhazone cures and prevents the disease from returning. "I had catarrh in its worst form," writes G. F. Fadden of Royan, Que., "I was so bad that ordinary medicine didn't even relieve. Catarrhazone cured me perfectly." No chance of disappointment with Catarrhazone—it's certain as death to cure Catarrh—just try it.

Automobilist—Is there a good place to eat here?
Austere Citizen—No, sir; I don't know of any place that really could be called edible, but if you are looking for one where you can obtain what is designated technically a square meal you will find it two doors north of the post office, in the next block.

A lazy man has no compunction about working a hardship on his wife's relations.
