

Events of a Day

DOING GOOD WORK.

At the Mitchell boom on Monday and Tuesday of this week a crew of one hundred and thirty-two men rafted seven hundred joints of lumber.

A NEW CABLE.

The Telephone Company have men at work laying a new cable in the channel of the river, beneath the draw of the highway bridge.

POLICE COURT.

One drunk, captured by the police last evening, forfeited a deposit of five dollars at the police court this morning.

GARDEN PARTY.

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Church, are to hold a garden party on the beautiful grounds of Mr. John A. Morrison, at the Mills this evening. Hanlon's orchestra has been engaged to furnish music and the affair promises to be a grand success.

ENJOYABLE PICNIC.

Mrs. Frank L. Cooper gave a picnic at Kaskiseboo Kamp last evening in honor of her niece Miss Frances Cooper of Kansas City. A large number of young people attended and the affair passed off very pleasantly.

COUN. CLIFF'S WILL.

The will of the late Councilor A. E. Cliff of Kingsclear has been admitted to probate. The executrix and executors are Mrs. Martha M. Cliff, Alexander M. McNally and James S. Cliff. The estate is sworn at $1,800, of which $1,500 is real estate. With the exception of a 10-acre island lot, which he left to his widow, Mr. Cliff left his estate to his son, Charles W. Cliff, dependent upon his providing a home for the deceased's widow and daughter.

NATIVE OF FREDERICTON.

The death of Thomas Becroft Edgar, occurred at his home at Three Brooks, Vic. County, June 22nd. Deceased was the fourth son of Joseph and Agnes Edgar who landed in St. John in 1819 from Scotland, and was born in Fredericton, July 12th, 1828. Of a family of seven there now remain but two, namely, John Edgar, of Three Brooks, Vic. County, and a sister, Mrs. M. M. Hovey of Centreville.

MORE JUNE BRIDES.

A Number of Weddings Yesterday in City and Country.

STORM-STAPLES.

A very pretty wedding ceremony took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rainsford Staples, St. Mary's at seven o'clock last evening, when their only daughter Miss Lena Staples was united in marriage to Mr. D. Valentine Storm, salesman of the St. Mary's departmental store. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. H. Simpson, M. A., pastor of the United Baptist church, in the presence of the immediate friends of the contracting parties.

At the conclusion of the ceremony luncheon was served after which the happy couple drove to this city where they took the evening train for Moncton and other points on a wedding trip.

On their return they will reside at St. Mary's. The bride who is one of St. Mary's most popular young ladies, received a large number of handsome, costly and useful wedding presents. The bridegroom presented her with a handsome pearl necklace.

BROWN-RIDEOUT.

Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Mary Rideout, Gibson a quiet and pretty wedding took place, when her daughter, Blanche E. was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. M. Brown. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jas. Crisp. After lunch the happy couple started on their wedding tour by taking the morning boat to Saint John. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

MOORE-HAMILTON.

Mr. Geo. M. Moore, Penniac and Miss Clara Hamilton were united in marriage at the United Baptist parsonage yesterday afternoon by Rev. H. H. Ferguson.

EDWARDS-MCGRATH.

Mr. David Edwards of Scotch Lake a well known Tobique guide, and Miss Ada McGrath, daughter of Mr. David McGrath, Springfield, were united in marriage at the Roman Catholic Chapel, Kingsclear yesterday morning by Rev. Father LeBlanc. The happy couple reached home in the afternoon and were given a rousing reception.

GIBSON-HALLETT.

At the Methodist parsonage yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Rogers performed the ceremony uniting in marriage Mr. Thomas Gordon and Miss Chrissie Hallett, both of Nashwaak.

FOSTER-MCKENZIE.

Mr. C. B. Foster, district passenger agent of the C. P. R. at Toronto, formerly of St. John, was married at Chicago yesterday to Miss M. B. McKenzie of St. Paul. Mr. Foster is one of the most popular officials in the C. P. R. service and his many friends from Atlantic to Pacific will wish him much happiness in his future wedded life. Mr. Foster was the recipient of many presents from railway and newspaper men. His former associates in the St. John office presented him with a cut glass service.

A Chicago despatch to the Herald this afternoon says: "At Chicago yesterday Miss May Barber McKenzie, eldest daughter of Alexander McKenzie of St. Paul, Minn., was married to Charles Beverly Foster, district passenger agent of the C. P. R., Toronto, formerly of St. John."

The ceremony took place at the McKenzie residence with only the immediate friends of the contracting parties present.

Mr. McKenzie, father of the bride, was a former resident of Ontario. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Foster left for the maritime provinces for their honeymoon.

RODGERS-STOTHART.

Mr. Jeremiah Rodgers and Miss Minnie E. Stothart, both of Stanley, were married at St. Paul's manse, last evening by Rev. Wilfred Macdonald. They left for their future home in Stanley by this afternoon's train.

JEWETT-WRIGHT.

Mr. Albert Jewett and Miss Myrtle Wright both of this city, were married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Wright, at 7 o'clock last night by Rev. A. A. Rideout.

ANDERSON-HARRIS.

Mr. George H. Anderson, of Lower Kingsclear, and Miss Annie Harris, of Kingarth, were united in marriage last evening by Rev. Canon Montgomery. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bridegroom's parents, where a reception was held. A large number of people paid their respects to the young couple and the evening passed very pleasantly.

POLICE UNIFORMS.

It is to be earnestly hoped that Ald. Kelly, the new minister of justice, will call his committee together, some time during the present summer and negotiate new uniforms for the members of the police force. The summer raiment now being worn by the cops has seen considerable service and as they are entitled to a new outfit, there is no reason why they should not have it at once.

Rev. Mr. Roxburgh, a Church of England curate of Easingham, accompanied the Middlemore children to Fredericton.

Mr. Enoch Dewes, of New Zealand, is visiting his sister, Mrs. James Bishop.

ADDRESSES ON JAPAN.

Gibson Methodist Church Scene of an Interesting Meeting.

There was a large congregation at the Gibson Methodist church last evening to hear very interesting addresses by Arthur Ozawa and Mr. E. Brecken. Mr. Ozawa, who is a Jap., appeared in native costume and made a very interesting address on Japan and told of his conversion to the Church of God, as Mr. Ozawa is a student of four years' standing in a Toronto college and his address was rendered in an excellent manner. It is his intention to return home next fall and preach among his own people.

Mr. Brecken, who is a son of Rev. Ralph Brecken also spoke along the lines of missions and made an interesting address, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

These gentlemen will lecture in the Methodist church at Marysville tonight. Rev. Dr. Duffy is to hold an open air service on the rectory grounds, Gibson, on the Sunday afternoon before the 12th of July, on which occasion he will address the Orangemen.

Rev. James Crisp, of Gibson, who is to move to St. John next month, will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday week at the Gibson Methodist church.

THE LUMBER DRIVES.

Mr. George Kilburn, foreman for Mr. John Kilburn, returned last night from a business trip to the headwaters. He says that there was some rain in that section last week, but not sufficient to bring out the logs hung up below Seven Islands. When he started for home the river was still nine inches lower than when the drives were abandoned early in the month. Mr. Kilburn thinks another big rain would make it possible to get the stranded lumber into the corporation limits.

OPEN AIR CONCERT.

Mr. George J. Barrett, the energetic agent of the Columbia Graphophone Company, has arranged to give another open air concert tonight on the river weather permitting. The latest records from the J. G. list and others if requested. This free open air concert is worth hearing and can be heard from the river bank near the B. & N. club house.

ANGLERS STILL BUSY.

Messrs. F. H. Peters and Daniel Lucy, J. P., left this morning on a fishing trip to the Pokok, to be absent several days. Mr. W. T. Chestnut returned last night from a very successful fishing trip on the Musquash. He started in the woods at Clarendon Station and made the trip to the mouth of the river by canoe, returning home by train.

APPROACHING WEDDING.

Miss Hester Edgecombe, (Queenie) eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edgecombe of St. John, formerly of this city is to be married in St. John, July 18 to Mr. John G. Settle, a traveller for the Hart Boat and Shoe Co. They will reside at Montreal. Miss Edgecombe was here yesterday for the McLellan-Palmer wedding and received the congratulations of her friends on the approaching event.

MANY AUTOS COMING.

Ten automobiles are coming from St. John on Saturday night and Sunday to attend the Old Home Celebration and take part in the parade. About forty people will travel in the autos and have taken rooms at the Queen for the celebration. The Herald learns that Mr. F. H. Todd of St. Stephen is also coming for the celebration and will bring his ten thousand dollar seventy two mile an hour automobile.

OFFICIALS FOR RACES.

Following is the list of officials for the big race meeting at the driving park on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.
