RUSSIA'S TROUBLES.

Civil War in the Caucasus Adds to Difficulties of Czar--Tartars and Russians Fight Fierce Battle.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—As anticipated in these despatches July 29 the triangular truce between Armenians, Tartars and the Russian troops before Shusha was of the briefest nature. The display of white flags and the naming of representatives of the warring factions to arrange a lasting peace was but a prelude to the resumption of hostilities yesterday upon a larger and bloodier scale.

The fighting is not only in full progress at Shusha itself, a town of 30,000 people, (180 miles to the southeast of Tiflis), the Tartar quarter of which apparently is in flames, but it has spread to the surrounding country. The Tartar population has risen and is striving to overwhelm the Armenians and the Russian troops. General Zolozhchikov, in command of the Russian forces, has appealed urgently for reinforcements. A battalion of riflemen at Yelisavetpol, the nearest point where there are soldiers, has been despatched to the scene.

St. Petersburg, July 31.—Advices received here from Tiflis dated yesterday show that a regular campaign is progressing between Armenians and Tartars in that section. Yesterday large forces of Tartars attacked Askeran Pass, which was occupied by Armenians but were unable to break through the Armenian cordon. Fighting is now going on in the villages of Havarum, Halad and Karanukh. The Tartars are concentrating against Askeran Pass.

On July 29, Kurds attacked the villages of Kalbalkhed and Kiermizhan, and were endeavoring to force an entrance into Shusha. At the latter place they were repulsed by Russian troops under General Zolozhchikov.

News received here from Yelisavetpol says that communication between Agdam and Shusha has been interrupted for seven days. Firing between Armenians and Tartars continued from July 25 to July 28. The fighting near Shusha increased in severity on July 29 and resulted in the burning of the town.

MORE SOLDIERS MUTINY. Krasnovodsk, July 31.—A company of the railway battalion, stationed here, mutinied today and accompanied by a mob of workmen, marched to the jail and endeavored to set at liberty the participants in the recent disorders at Lashkert, who have been in prison here. The battalion guarding the jail remained loyal and dispersed the mutineers.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, July 31.—M. Burago, the leading official of the Sochatchev district, and a policeman who was escorting him, were shot dead by revolutionists near here today in revenge for the part they had taken in the repression of the agrarian strike movement.

Odessa, July 31.—A common soldier caused a remarkable sensation in the Cathedral here Sunday by arising in the body of the church during service and contradicting certain political statements of the archbishop uttered from the pulpit. A thanksgiving service for the dissolution of the lower house of parliament was being held in the Cathedral. It was attended by all the local authorities. The archbishop arose and declared among other things that the members of the opposition were anarchists and enemies of the state. When he had finished, a soldier got up and began to make a speech. He said it was not the opposition but men like the archbishop who were the real enemies of the state. A scene of great confusion ensued, amid which the soldier was arrested and taken to prison.

TERRIBLE TRAIN WRECK.

Engine Plunged Into River and Many Thought to be Killed or Injured.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 31.—(Special)—Train No. 27 of the Pacific express, which left the Grand Central station, New York, at 9.32 last night, is reported badly wrecked at Chelsea, 11 miles below this city on the line of the N. Y. C. and H. R. R. R. The engine is said to have plunged into the river, and every doctor in Poughkeepsie has been summoned. The wrecking train and a large force of wreckers is preparing to leave for Chelsea.

The wreck at Chelsea is a severe one according to the first meagre dispatches received. Urgent requests have been sent to New York for physicians and a special train is being made up there also to go to the scene.

Several persons are reported killed and many injured. The wreck was on the line of the New York Central & Hudson River railroad.

BURPLE-RUBINS.

Details of a Recent Wedding, the Principals of Which Were Former Frederictonians.

Woodstock Press.—The handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Burpee, Avondale, Carleton Co., was the scene of a very happy event on Wednesday, July 25th, the occasion being the marriage of their son, Arthur Lee Burpee to Alice Louise Rubins of St. John, N. B.

Owing to a recent bereavement in the bride's family the wedding was very quiet, only the immediate relatives being present.

The parlors were beautifully decorated with palms, maiden hair ferns and cut flowers. A canopy of flowers was formed between the two windows and from the sides hung white ribbons and maiden hair fern. This was artistically brought down and fastened on each side of the pretty little altar that had been arranged with tall palms on each side and white ribbons drawn across.

Before this and under the canopy of flowers the bridal party stood. They were unattended and at 4.30 the groom came into the room, proceeded to the altar to wait for his bride, who came in shortly after on the arm of her sister, who gave her away. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Cahill. The bride looked very pretty in champagne silk, with lace trimmings. The soft strains of the flower song were heard during the ceremony, and after they were pronounced man and wife the wedding march was played. The music was furnished by Mrs. J. Tilley Brewer of Woodstock.

The bride received many beautiful presents, including cut glass, china and silver and a substantial cheque from the groom's parents and sister. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful pearl pin in the form of a wish-bone. At 5 p. m., a very dainty supper was served, later in the evening the party drove to Woodstock. They have taken rooms with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Tilley.
