A DEPARTING PASTOR.

Rev. Dr. Rogers, who has said his farewell to the Methodist congregation of this city after a faithful service of four years, is an old and honored clergyman, a gentleman of much culture, earnestness and popularity, and the large circle of friends he has made in this city, among all denominations will wish him success and happiness in his new charge at Sussex.

Dr. Rogers was ordained to the ministry in Centenary Church, St. John, forty years ago, and during his long pastorate has occupied some of the leading charges in the Maritime Provinces. Dr. Rogers has given a son to the Methodist ministry, and other members of his family are prominent in the banking and commercial life of Canada.

Mrs. Rogers' friends too in Fredericton part with her with feelings of sincere regret. In the church and in societies of a charitable nature and for moral reform, she was a prominent and energetic worker.

The Herald joins with the many friends and admirers of Dr. Rogers and his estimable wife in wishing them Godspeed in their new home.

THE JUDICATURE ACT.

The bill giving effect to certain provisions of the New Brunswick judicature act, has passed both branches of parliament, and the judicature act will become law on being proclaimed in the Royal Gazette by the local government. Senator Ellis, Sir MacKenzie Bowell and some other members of the senate made objections to the measure and amendments were moved but they were voted down.

Senator Loughheed, the Tory leader thought the bill should be amended so that the judges would be reappointed according to present seniority, thus taking up the Tory cudgels for the chief justice, but no such change was made.

The federal government is thus left with a free hand in the judges' reappointment, except that the minister of justice has stated that all the present judges will be reappointed. The question of seniority, what three judges shall be appointed to the appeal and what three to the trial division rests with the government, and no pledge has been made as to what will be done in the matter.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Parliament is rapidly winding up its business and prorogation will likely take place the last of this week.

Hon. Mr. Lemieux, the postmaster general, promises to give earnest consideration to the question of postmaster's salaries, especially in the rural districts.

The meeting of the Anglican Synod in this city tomorrow will be attended by the absence of His Lordship, the Bishop, whose continued illness is a source of great anxiety to his family and friends.

The King of Spain, has not only a new wife, but a new ministry. The former premier wanted Alfonso to dissolve parliament, and on His Majesty's refusal the ministry resigned.

A CRUEL JOKE.

New York Woman thrown into Hysterics and Attempted Suicide, when told in Jest that her Husband was Dead.

New York, July 9.—(Special)—The World this morning says:—

When told as a joke that her husband, with whom she was very much in love, was dead, Mrs. Irene Duff, a young wife living in west 37 Street, attempted to cut her throat with a carving knife last night, and may lose her mind.

Mr. and Mrs. Duff came here some years ago from Nova Scotia. They appeared greatly attached to each other, so much so that it was the cause of comment among their friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Duff was at her home last night talking with friends, when some one came in and told her that her husband was dead.

Mrs. Duff fainted. She was revived and became hysterical.

She refused to believe the matter was a joke and thought she was being deceived. She went to the kitchen, picked up a carving knife and slashed her throat.

Her friends caught her and while they were trying to quiet her Mr. Duff returned. He was hardly inside the door when his wife again became hysterical, and her condition was so serious that he ordered a cab and took her to Bellevue Hospital. Mrs. Duff was still hysterical after arriving at the hospital and force had to be used to restrain her while her wound was being dressed.

Dr. Hawks said that while the wound on her throat is not serious, he believed it would be best or her to remain until she fully recovered. He said the shock to her nervous system was so great it might impair her mental condition unless she received most careful treatment.

OUT WITH AN AXE.

Probably that Lord's Day Bill will be Slaughtered or Hung Up in the Senate.

Ottawa, July 9.—(Special)—The Sunday Observance bill was up in the senate today.

Hon. Mr. Scott explained its provision on proposing the second reading of the bill.

He said that on a subject of this kind all parties should give and take in the interests of harmony and good will.

berland, was married at Fort William, Ont., today to D. C. McDonald formerly of Halifax, travelling freight agent for the C. P. R.

Rev. J. D. Murray, a retired Presbyterian clergyman died at his home at Buctouche, Sunday morning. He was a native of Pictou, N. S., and for some years was pastor of the Moncton church. He retired in 1904.

The fast express for Sydney, N. S., ran off the track at Lourdes, Saturday afternoon. The train was running at full speed when the engine and four cars left the track. Fortunately no one was hurt, though the cars were much damaged. The cause of the accident is not known.

Saturday was "Chamberlain Day" and the whole city of Birmingham irrespective of politics enjoyed a holiday in honor of the distinguished tariff reformer, Joseph Chamberlain, who celebrated his seventieth birthday. There were decorations everywhere, the city was filled with visitors and all sorts of processions and entertainments were going on. The lord mayor and lady mayors gave a reception and luncheon to Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain. Subsequently the party made a tour of the parks, where thousands of the city school children were being specially entertained. Mr. Chamberlain took advantage of the occasion to give out a characteristic message to the nation, as follows:—"Treat foreigners as they treat us, and treat your kinsmen better than you treat foreigners."

THREE ISLAND CAMPS.

New Summer Resort at Magaguadavic Which is Destined to Become Popular.

A party composed of Messrs. C. Fred Chestnut, F. B. Edgecombe, J. Palmer, J. W. McCreedy, W. F. Chestnut, and R. P. Allen of this city, W. B. Howard, district passenger agent of the C. P. R. and F. B. Ellis of St. John, and Charles Cremin of Scotch Lake, spent Sunday at Three Island camps, Magaguadavic Lake, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Moore, and returned home at noon today. They report having had a most enjoyable time, and speak in glowing terms of the country and the manner in which they were entertained. Mr. Moore has erected four camps on a small island near the head of the second Magaguadavic Lake, thirteen miles from the railway station, and is now in a position to accommodate tourists and sportsmen. His camps are thoroughly equipped with everything needed for comfort and the location is ideal. He has a splendid motor boat, which he uses to convey guests to and from the railway station, and he also has a number of canoes at the camps. There is splendid trout fishing in the immediate vicinity of the camps, and some idea of what the region has to offer sportsmen, may be gathered from the fact that the party above named while on their way down the lake early this morning saw eleven

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

July 9.—The baseball match on baseball hill Saturday night drew a very large crowd, on which occasion the St. Mary's Stars crossed bats with the Marysville nine and a very good and exciting game was the result, ending in a grand victory for the cotton mill team 12 to 8 being the score. The battery for the St. Mary's team was Malloy and Hughes while Brogan and Dennison did the honors for Marysville. Both pitchers worked hard to win the game. Bert Dennison was umpire.

Marysville was well represented in Fredericton Saturday night, the trains being well filled in both trips. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Caplin are receiving the congratulations on the arrival at their home of a bouncing baby boy.

The garden party last Friday evening on the beautifully decorated lawn of Mr. Alex Robinson under the auspices of the Mission Band was a very enjoyable affair and young and old alike spent a very pleasant evening.

Tomorrow evening there is to be a temperance meeting in the Baptist church to be addressed by one of the delegates who are attending the Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T.

There were large congregations at both services in the United Baptist church yesterday. In the afternoon the pulpit was occupied by the pastor Rev. H. H. Ferguson and in the evening by Rev. Mr. Fenwick of St. John. In the afternoon Mrs. Cooper sang a solo and Mr. Cooper sang in the evening both of which were well rendered.

The Marysville band boys have started a subscription list in order to raise money to erect a new band stand. As this band had been very kind in giving free open air concerts, the citizens should be generous on this occasion and help the boys along as a band stand is greatly needed and it will fill a long felt want.

The Marysville Band intend giving one of their popular entertainments in the near future in Orange Hall. It promises to be the musical event of the season.

APPOINTED PRINCIPAL.

Mr. J. W. Hill, B. A., who has lately been teaching school at McAdam, has been appointed to the principalship of the Gibson-St. Mary's school. Mr. Hill, who graduated in 1904 at the U. N. B. last year, is a young man of ability and should make a successful teacher.

NEW MARKET NOTES.

Mr. Hugh Foley, our popular merchant and millwright, is now agent for gasoline engines (called the new way). Mr. Foley is prepared to repair all kinds of engines when they do not go just right.

Mr. William Kennedy, who has visiting his brother who resides at McAdam, has returned home.

Mr. Boone, of St. Stephen, held an entertainment in our school room on Saturday with his magic lantern and graphophone. A large number were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. James McMullen spent Monday evening at Mr. Hugh Foley's where he played some fine music on the violin.

"Norah," said the literary woman "I wish you would go down to the library and bring me 'Flavius Josephus.'"

The new girl left the room to execute the commission. Presently a terrific noise was heard on the stairway and Nora pushed the door open a moment later with her foot, dragging in by the collar a large and reluctant Newfoundland dog.

"Here he is, Mrs. Dennis," she said, "but ye oughtn't to have sent me f'r'im. It's a man's job. The baste tried to bite me an' I had to fight 'im iv'ry fut o' the way."
