

Events of a Day

THE JULY RACES.

The Fredericton Park Association will hold a meeting at the office of Recorder Collier this evening to arrange for the big race meeting to be held here on July 3rd and 4th.

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION.

The Forty Hours Devotion exercises will open at St. Dunstan's church on Sunday morning, and will continue until Tuesday evening. It is understood that Rev. Father McManus of Woodstock, will preach the closing sermon on Tuesday evening.

YOUNG FOXES.

Three young foxes are on exhibition in the up town window of Gus Tweeddale & Company's hardware store and are attracting considerable attention. They were captured by a resident of Scotch Lake a few days ago.

A DRY CARGO.

The steamer Victoria's freight list on her trip to St. John today included seventy-five barrels of empty bottles. The labels did not indicate that the bottles had ever been used in connection with the maple industry. This is said to be the third large exportation of empty bottles within a fortnight.

A PECULIAR ERROR.

A case of whiskey disappeared mysteriously yesterday from the Star Line Company's temporary shed lately erected on the city high water wharf. The loss is not causing agent Copley much anxiety as he thinks that the box was taken by mistake by some city truckman and will be returned. Up to a late hour this afternoon the mistake had not been rectified.

THE CIVIC CONTEST.

The election to fill the aldermanic vacancy in St. Ann's ward will take place on Monday next. The candidates in the field are Mr. Cornelius

Kelly and Mr. Judson Barker. Both are canvassing hard and it seems to be a toss up as to who will come out ahead when the votes are counted. The poll will open at nine o'clock and close at 4 p. m. The returning officers and clerks for the polls will be: City Hall—No. 1.—Frank Vanwart, William Todd, No. 2.—John C. Harding, R. B. Vandine. Court House—No. 1.—William Lockhart, J. B. Hawthorn. No. 2.—John W. Bobbington, T. C. Doherty.

THE CRICKET CLUB.

Mr. G. E. Theodore Roberts, secretary-treasurer of the Fredericton Cricket Club, is meeting with great success in his canvass of the city for members. Already the membership of the organization has passed the sixty mark and the indications are that it will reach one hundred in the course of a few days. Many old time devotees of the game have put their dollar and joined and a lot of desirable young men are coming in. Cricket is generally recognized as one of the most manly of out door sports and it is certain to boom in Fredericton during the coming summer. The managing committee are now negotiating with the U. N. B. students for the use of their athletic field for practice. The application will be considered by the students at a meeting tomorrow.

SMELT ARE PLENTIFUL.

There is still a good run of smelt in the river and fishermen all over seem to be having good sport. Ex-City Clerk Beckwith was out this morning whipping the river from the piazza of the B. & B. club house. The ex-city clerk in his younger days was quite an expert as an angler, but he was unable to induce the smelt to bite this morning. He thinks he was not located in just the right spot. Several other well known citizens were out with hook and line early this morning, and claim to have made fairly good catches, although nobody can be found who saw their fish.

Prof. W. A. Prussell of Nashua, was in the city today.

DRIVES DOING WELL.

Favorable Reports Received from the Headwaters.

Encouraging reports have been received from the lumber drives on the Upper St. John and Tobique, and there is reason to believe that every log will be got out. The ice is not yet out of some of the lakes on the headwaters, but all the driving crews are at work. Most of the drives on the Tobique and Gulkane are already in safe water, and many of the logs from that section have already reached the booms. The total cut on the Tobique is about thirty million feet. Mr. A. H. F. Randolph has been notified that Handolph & Baker's drive on Little River, Manawaska County, in charge of Mr. Frank Whitehead, is all in safe water. This drive contains nearly two million feet.

The river here 14, 35 at four inches last night, but as there has been considerable rain at the headwaters during the past few days another rise is likely to occur here very soon.

A good many logs are running in to the Douglas boom, and tank logs are coming in fast. It is likely that rafting operations will be begun at the Mitchell boom the first of next week.

At St. Leonard's last night the river rose about a foot and many logs are running at that place today. The weather keeps cool and cloudy.

At Grand Falls the river is reported to be rising and plenty of logs are running. At Woodstock the river is at a standstill and logs are running thick.

ST. MARY'S BAZAAR

List of Those Who Captured the Different Prizes.

The bazaar which has been conducted during the week in aid of St. Anthony's new church at St. Mary's was brought to a successful close last evening.

The interest taken in the different games during the week was kept up until the closing hour and the several booths were also well patronized.

The number of ladies and gentlemen present for the different departments are entitled to great credit for the obliging and efficient way they treated the many guests to the bazaar.

UPPER MILLS SMALLPOX.

Fifteen Known Cases and Others Suspected.

St. Stephen Courier—A serious condition of affairs exists at Upper Mills where smallpox has developed in a number of families.

Last week Wm. Watters, of that place, visited Dr. Deacon's office, suffering with a disease the symptoms of which indicated smallpox. Dr. Deacon was not sufficiently familiar with the disease to pronounce definitely upon the case, and sent for Dr. Fisher of Marysville, chairman of the provincial board of health, who has had much experience with it. Dr. Fisher visited the district on Saturday and readily recognized smallpox, though of a mild form.

Then it developed that the supposed 'skin disease' had prevailed in the community for some time, without its true nature being realized.

So far as now known three cases occurred in the family of Mrs. Thos. Marsh and three in the family of John Hall, but these have recovered.

In the family of William Watters, where the disease is now most prevalent, eight cases have appeared, and in the family of Thomas Fairhead, Jr., there is one case.

These houses are strictly quarantined, and other houses where developments are considered possible are closely watched.

Dr. Deacon has general supervision of the quarantine precautions, and John Hacker, who has had smallpox is in charge of the enforcement of orders at Upper Mills. Mr. McLellan has been placed in charge of the bridge to prevent communication with Baring, while Frank P. Todd and Edward Perkins prevent communication with Milltown.

General vaccination is enforced at Upper Mills and all families are required to remain in their own homes.

The authorities are satisfied that the disease originated from infection at McAdam. On the night of March 2nd a man slept at Stein's boarding house at McAdam, where the disease subsequently appeared. Next day he proceeded to Upper Mills, and on March 14th the 'skin disease' appeared on him.

GAVE UP ITS DEAD.

Body of an Unknown Man Found in the River at Kingsclear.

The body of an unknown man was found floating in the river near McGinley's ferry this morning by some men working in that vicinity. It was that of a man in the neighborhood of forty years of age, and was badly disfigured. The supposition is that the poor fellow lost his life some point far up the river, probably before the ice formed last fall.

Coroner McEwin of this city, was notified of the find and drove at once to Kingsclear to investigate the mystery. It is quite probable that he will hold an inquest.

An impressive service was conducted at the house by Rev. A. A. Rideout, after which the body was taken to the rural cemetery and there interred.

FOUND POT OF GOLD.

In Ancient Foundation Casement Near Buffalo.

New York, May 11.—(Special)—A special to the Herald from Buffalo, says:

In an ancient foundation casement beneath the old Richardson home-stand in the village of Holland an iron pot containing about $900 in gold and silver coins and bearing the mintage stamp of more than a century ago was discovered by William T. Miller. Miller was engaged in tearing down the old house.

The discovery of the money caused intense excitement among the farmers for miles around, and many hastened to the spot with pickaxes and shovels and commenced digging, in hopes of finding more treasure. As yet none have met with success.

It is believed that the coins were placed in the casement by Philo Richardson, who died more than fifty years ago.

THE SEWERAGE PIPE.

Nearly Forty per cent of the First Shipment Found Unfit for Use.

A crew of fifteen Italian laborers, who are to work for the McManus Co., on the sewerage system, have arrived in the city and are domiciled in a shanty erected for them near Scully's grove. They started work yesterday afternoon unloading the terra cotta pipe from the two scows moored at the Normal school wharf. They are all young men and appear to know how to work.

The pipe, which arrived yesterday, is being unloaded, tested and delivered by the McManus Company, although strictly speaking, it is not part of their contract. A surprisingly large quantity of pipe, estimated at forty per cent, was found either broken or cracked. Each piece as it was taken from the scow was sounded by Mr. Cosman, an employee of the McManus Company, and if found defective, was promptly thrown aside. Some of the large pieces appear to have been broken in transit, but most of the joints which were thrown out must have been defective when they left the factory. Mr. McManus is quite certain that Hyde and Webster, the contractors, did not have an inspection made of the pipe before it left Scotland. It looks as if this lack of foresight on their part will take most of the profit of the contract, as the condemned pipe will be returned to them by the city.

Ex-Ald. Stockford, who was appointed an inspector by the sewerage committee at Tuesday night's meeting, went on duty yesterday afternoon. He watched the Italians transfer the pipe from the scow to the wharf, and kept a record of the joints passed by the inspector. This morning Mr. N. A. Laforest, another inspector, joined Mr. Stockford.

Mr. A. K. Grimmer, the transit man, assisted by Mr. Cosman, with the inspection of the pipes. Several teams were immediately set to work hauling the pipe from the wharf to the streets where it is to be used.

Mr. D. J. Shea is superintending the unloading of the pipe for Hyde & Webster, the contractors.

Contractor McManus says that he will be able to do very little in the way of excavating for the sewerage system until the water in the river falls considerably.

City Marshall Thibault, is quite ill at his home on King street.

Mr. Ernest Fenety has gone to Montreal to accept a position with the Great Northern Telegraph Company.
