ACROSS THE RIVER.

Interesting Budget of News From Gibson and St. Marys.

Oct. 29.—Mrs. B. H. Babbitt is expected home today from a visit to friends at Boston, Mass.

Mrs. J. A. Ruel and family who have passed the Presbyterian manse in Fredericton, are moving from their homestead this week.

Mrs. W. R. Robinson, wife of Rev. W. R. Robinson formerly the popular pastor of the Gibson Baptist church, arrived on Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hobbs. Mrs. Robinson's many friends will be pleased to welcome her home again. Rev. Mr. Robinson is stationed at Plainfield, Ill.

The I. C. R. is erecting a large water tank on the ground adjoining the machine shops at Gibson. The capacity of the tank will be fifty thousand gallons. This is a much needed feature in connection with the I. C. R. property here.

Rev. Father Ryan will leave on Thursday next for a trip to England and Ireland and will also visit Paris before returning. Rev. Father McLaughlin of Queens County, has arrived here and will take charge of St. Anthony's church during Father Ryan's absence.

On Thursday morning Rev. Father Ryan will celebrate mass at eight o'clock and at nine o'clock high mass will be sung by Rev. Father McLaughlin, who will then take charge of the congregation.

Mr. Ralph Sherman of Fredericton, has acted as lay reader at the Church of England here since the resignation of Rev. Dr. Duffy and filled the position very acceptably. A meeting will be held tonight to select a rector.

Mrs. Walter McFarlane, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Limerick, who reside with her, are moving this week to Lower St. Mary's.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

A case of cruelty to animals on the part of a well known character who resides in Carleton Place, has been reported to The Herald, and if the facts are as stated, it would be well for the S. P. A. C. authorities to look into the matter. The man referred to, who lives alone in a shack, came to the city on Saturday week without making any provision for the care of his stock. He keeps a number of cattle, pigs and hens on his place, and it is said they were without food or water from Saturday until Wednesday. A neighbor milked one of the cows on Wednesday, and took twenty-three quarts from her at a single milking. It is reported that the owner of the stock got on a spree while here and did not reach home until Saturday. The case is certainly one that should be looked into.

A BANKER'S DEATH.

Mr. John F. Grant for Many Years
Cashier of St. Stephen Bank.

St. Stephen, N. B., Oct. 29.—In the death of John F. Grant which occurred at his residence on Marks street on Saturday evening, this town has lost one of its oldest and most respected citizens. Mr. Grant was born here in 1829 and excepting for a few years spent in California, about 1850, had passed his entire life in St. Stephen.

He entered the service of the St. Stephen's bank on November 4, 1853 as a clerk under David Upton, who was then cashier. He served in like capacity under the late Robert Watson and at his death was appointed cashier on October 12, 1880. Faithfully and well he served the institution until about ten days ago, when he was stricken with pneumonia, which terminated fatally.

Mr. Grant was married in marriage with Georgiana Marks, a grand daughter of one of the loyalist founders of this town. Her death occurred on February 13, 1902. Two sons, Herbert C. in New York, and Walker L. at home, and one daughter, Helen M., now critically ill at home, survive.

Mr. Grant was a regular attendant at the services of the Methodist church and was held in universal esteem and respect.

The funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at 2.30.

GUSHER ENRICHES FARMER

Pennsylvania Oil Well Brings Owner of Land $14 an Hour.

Franklin, Pa., Oct. 29.—From comparative poverty to an income of $2,640 a day is a long step, but it has been taken by Andrew Rapp, who has brought in the biggest oil well the Pennsylvania oil fields have had in 25 years. In half an hour from the time the oil began to flow it was gushing to the top of the derrick, and before the workmen could get the well under control 100 barrels of oil had been lost.

The well is now making 75 barrels an hour, which at the present price, of oil amounts to $2,600 per day. The man who owns the farm gets a royalty of one-eighth, which leaves Mr. Rapp a total of $2,250.25. The well will increase its production to possibly 4500 barrels a day as soon as arrangements can be made to care for the fluid.

The Standard Oil Company's pipe line subsidiary the National Transit Company, has a large force of men at work laying new lines to the gusher. The old farmer who owns the property can sit in his house and count the money coming in at the rate of $14 an hour.

Ancient Love Letters.

The oldest love letters were found recently. They were written by a Babylonian gentleman about 2,200 years before Christ and were sent to a woman in Sipparra. It is surprising to find that, barring a slight quaintness of diction, they might have been written yesterday. One of these letters is addressed to the writer's "little sheep," and it is declared that "you alone are my life. I could spend eternity in the light of your eyes."
