GREAT LIBERAL TRIUMPH.

The Liberals of Nova Scotia did not do quite as well as was anticipated in the provincial elections, but they will be fairly comfortable, thank you, with thirty-four of the thirty-eight seats at their command.

In some constituencies local jealousies among the Liberals and prohibition helped the Conservatives to partially succeed, but the sweep of Liberalism was quite general throughout the province.

The serious losses to the government were in Pictou and in Kings, where Hon. George Patterson and Hon. H. H. Wickwire, members of the administration without portfolio, were defeated, the latter by a Liberal prohibitionist, who will probably be found supporting the government.

The Conservatives carried two of the three seats in Pictou where Mr. Tanner, the opposition leader is re-elected, one in Hants, one in Richmond and may have one supporter in Kings, but in all the other constituencies, the government won straight and in most cases overwhelming victories, the majorities running in several instances up to and over one thousand.

Premier Murray won his election in Victoria by acclamation. Hon. Arthur Drysdale, attorney general has a fair majority in Hants, although his colleague was defeated, and Hon. W. T. Pipes commissioner of works and mines carried Cumberland by some three hundred. These are the portfolio holding members of the government, and the non-portfolio members elected are Hon. C. P. Chisholm by acclamation in Antigonish, Hon. A. H. Comeau, the Acadian representative in Digby, and Hon. D. Macpherson in Halifax.

Among the prominent private members of the late house re-elected is Mr. B. F. Pearson, the well known Halifax lawyer and promoter, who with his colleague Mr. Hill, carried Colchester by the largest Liberal majority recorded there in many years. Mr. Pearson's majority in the last election was 18. It is now up in the hundreds.

Mr. Geo. E. Faulkner, one of the winning Liberals in Halifax, is a well known popular business man, and secretary of the maritime province commercial travellers' association.

The Liberal majorities in Halifax average about 1200 and will be interesting reading for Mr. Borden, the Tory leader at Ottawa, who was defeated in that constituency in the last federal election by a majority of some 600.

Premier Murray and his colleagues are to be very heartily congratulated on the result of the elections. This is the third successive endorsement his administration has received at the hands of the Nova Scotia electors, and it well deserved a renewal of confidence. Since 1867. The Tories have carried only one general election, that of 1878.

CURRENT COMMENT

The Tories cut an insignificant figure in the Nova Scotia provincial elections.

The Sabbath observance bill at Ottawa has been made a government measure, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier appears as one of its most valiant defenders.

One half the membership of the Tory party in the late Nova Scotia legislature was defeated in yesterday's elections. It was embraced in the person of Mr. McLeod of Cumberland. The other half—Mr. Tanner was successful in Pictou.

The United Baptists of this district have just closed a successful annual meeting of their association at Gibson and the Methodist conference of New Brunswick and P. E. Island to-day entered on its annual meeting at Marysville, which as usual extends a hospitable welcome to the delegates.

Three newspaper men were candidates in the Nova Scotia provincial elections yesterday, Mr. Farrell, Liberal, and speaker of the last house, editor of the Liverpool Advance, Mr. Nickerson, Liberal editor of the coast guard Shelburne and Mr. Jamieson, Conservative editor of the Amherst Telegram. The two former were elected by large majorities, but Brother Jamieson met an overwhelming defeat in Cumberland. But then

REV. WILLIAM DOBSON, M. A.
Elected President of N. B. and P. E. I. Conference.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The conference next proceeded to the election of officers the following being among those nominated for the presidency: Rev. W. Dobson, Rev. J. W. McConnell, Rev. E. Bell, Rev. Thomas Pierce, Rev. S. Howard, Rev. Jas. Strothard and Rev. G. M. Young. The first ballot was very close and it was found necessary to take four ballots before a candidate was chosen.

Rev. Wm. Dobson was elected, with James Crisp a close second.

The next office was that of secretary and the nominees were G. M. Young, Matthew R. Knight and Jas. Crisp. Rev. Mr. Knight was elected on first ballot and addresses by the newly elected officers brought the session to a close.

drove to their future home at Upper Haynesville, where a reception was given them.

Dagger Money.

In former times when traveling was not so safe as in the twentieth century the judges often needed an escort when passing from one town to another on circuit. It was the duty of Newcastle to provide such protection for the journey between that town and Carlisle.

As time went on the actual provision of a guard was replaced by the payment of money for the purpose, and it was this contribution that became known as "dagger money." To this day the old custom is kept up, and at the Newcastle assizes the judge receives from the mayor a coin that is probably itself a curiosity and also serves as an interesting souvenir of this strange survival.—London Mail.

Spiders' Sight.

Experiments have been made to decide how far spiders can see and it has been determined that they have a range of vision of at least a foot. It is not always possible to tell, however, whether the lower animals perceive by sight or hearing or by the action air in motion has upon their bodies. Experiments tend to show that mice are sensitive to motions of the air which to human ears create no sound whatever.

Hard to Handle.

Citizen—What'll you charge me, Uncle Rastus, to cart away that pile of stone? Uncle Rastus—Bout two dollars, sah. Citizen—Isn't that very high? Uncle Rastus—Yes, sah, jes' for cartin' away de stone, but I gotter hire a man to help harness de mule.

An Economical Housewife.

"Why do you so often invite that old gossip, Mrs. Brown?"

"Oh, she always knows so many interesting things to tell that every one forgets to eat, and almost all the cake is left."

Brief, but Effective.

Terse diplomatic correspondence between two Irish kings is recorded in Leland's history. "Send me tribute or else!" wrote Tyrconnel. "I owe you none, and if"—replied O'Neal.

All in the Family.

Mrs. Cloak—I'm so sorry the dress maker I recommended to your wife did not give her a fit. Mr. Soak—Never mind. Her bill gave me one.

Something Coming to Him.

Maizie—Fanny, isn't it that Alger non doesn't smoke? Daisie—Well, he will soon. I overheard papa say that he was going to fire him.
