BLEW HIS BRAINS OUT.

Teller of Defunct Chicago Bank Couldn't Stand Criticism Although Apparently Innocent.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—Frank Kowalski, for five years acting teller of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, which failed last Monday, shot and killed himself last night in his home 340 North Carpenter street.

Criticism by neighbors and friends who accused him of a share in the downfall of the bank, it is believed, drove Kowalski to suicide.

The acme of his trouble was reached Thursday night when a woman he had known for years, accosted him on the street and accused him of being responsible for the failure of the bank.

Speaking of the incident later in the evening, Kowalski complained bitterly of the suspicions of his friends and declared that unless his character was speedily cleared he would take his own life.

Kowalski's relatives assert their firm belief that he was innocent of any knowledge as to the mismanagement of the bank by President Stensland. When the bank failed Kowalski had $700 of his own money on deposit in the institution and his immediate relatives had in the bank nearly $50,000 Kowalski, who was thirty years old, had been with the bank for thirteen years, beginning as an office boy.

While the search for Paul O Stensland, the missing president of the failed bank, is extending to all parts of the country, Cashier Hering, who was arrested Thursday, spent yesterday with the State's Attorney examining the bank's collateral in an effort to determine the shortage in accounts.

After an all-day's search, forged notes aggregating more than $500,000 were found and are now in the possession of the state attorney, who will use them in the prosecution of persons responsible for their utterance. From statements made by Hering regarding loans made by Stensland to himself and the shortcomings found by previous investigations, it is asserted that when a final adjustment of the affairs of the bank is made, it will be found that President Stensland's alleged defalcation will aggregate nearly $2,000,000.

So gigantic was the total of frauds unearthed that the inquisitors are said to have come to the conclusion that the whole matter ought to be taken out of the justice courts at once and carried into a court of record. With this end in view, it was reported that steps were taken to secure bench warrants for the arrest of Hering and Theodore Stensland.

The possibility of a special grand jury to take up affairs was discussed and the opinion expressed that States Attorney Healey ought to summon such a jury as soon as possible.

TWO HUNDRED HOMELESS

Hull Fire Started by Boy Smoking Cigarettes.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—Two hundred of Hull's population are homeless and a loss of $35,000 has been caused through the careless smoking of a cigarette by a lad in a barn on Wall street.

The fire started shortly after eleven o'clock yesterday and before it was controlled, two hours later, thirty-seven houses were burned, depriving forty families of shelter. Most of the houses are small frame buildings, Ald. Poirier's grocery store being the most pretentious structure. His loss will amount to about $8,000, with an insurance of $2,000. The remaining houses are worth not more than $500 each, and there are perhaps a score on which there is three hundred dollars insurance.

With a high wind from the southwest prevailing, there were fears of a repetition of former conflagrations. Fortunately the direction of the wind was away from the more populous and wealthier quarter of the city. The dwellings on Wall, Woburn, Ann and St. Catherine's streets were licked up before the flames were subdued. Some exciting scenes were witnessed as the occupants of houses in the path of the flames streamed out with their belongings. The articles were handled in a rough manner so that in many cases although saved from the fire, they were riddled to pieces. The Hull brigade worked nobly, assisted by Chief Provost and a detachment from Ottawa. At one o'clock the flames were pretty well under control, and a heavy fall of rain put the finishing touches on the outbreak. At the commencement of the blaze the fire fighters were handicapped by insufficient pressure.

The finishing touches are being put on the new water works at Hull and it was not quite ready for service. Reliance for a time had therefore to be placed on the old pumping apparatus. Finally good pressure was obtained from the new pump house, and everything went well. A number of the homeless people have been provided with quarters in Levingue's mill, others have gone to friends elsewhere in the city.

Hull has obtained a bad name for fires, which its record seems to justify. On the ninth of August, 1889, occurred a serious outbreak, when the Roman Catholic church, the court house and market and score of dwellings fell a prey to the flames, the total loss being $200,000. The great fire of the 26th of April, 1900, which caused a loss of between six and seven million dollars, devastated Hull and the western part of Ottawa also, and left several thousand people homeless, also had its origin in the former city. And as late as August 9th, an unlucky date it would seem, the neighboring city across the river was swept by flames, starting from a defective chimney, and a loss of $90,000 was the result.

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

Aug. 11.—The lawn party given by the "Jennie Rogers Mission Circle," last evening on the Methodist parsonage grounds was a great success both socially and financially. The grounds are so beautifully adapted for an affair of this kind, having fine shade trees, were decorated with quantities of Chinese and other lanterns. The selections on the gramophone were very much enjoyed, for which thanks are due to Miss Annie Titus and Capt. Grey. Ice cream and cold drinks were served during the evening.

Mrs. B. Dowling and daughter, Grace are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tapley.

Miss Alice Eno of Boston, is spending her vacation with her father, Mr. Geo. Eno.

Mrs. Frank McLean and son of Boston, are visiting Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Robert Johnston.

Mrs. Couch and two children are visiting Mrs. Couche's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias White.

A very exciting, amusing and interesting ball game was played on baseball hill last evening between the Marysville crack team, the Victorias, and the Mysteries, a picked team of clever players, who defeated the champions to the tune of 13 to 11. The Hon. Chas. Boyce did the twirling for the winning team and certainly upheld the name of the team he represented, as his mysterious curves almost completely puzzled his opponents. When Charlie got tired pitching George Markey went into the box and still the batters were puzzled. The large score does not in any way effect the excitement of the game, as it was pronounced a dandy. Mr. Jack Osborne, the well known expert, umpired as fairly as could be expected. Both teams played well and if darkness had not settled down there would have been. The ideas in the minds of the Mysteries have been so enlarged that they expect to play with the Fredericton Tartars.

There will be a game of baseball tonight between the St. Mary's team and Marysville.

MAUGERVILLE.

Aug. 11.—Miss Hattie Brown left this morning for her school at Central Blissett, where she taught last term. Miss Brown is very popular wherever she goes.

Miss Mabel Brown takes charge of school No. 1, Maugerville, next term. Mr. Walter Smith left this morning by steamer Hampstead for Fredericton.

Mr. Geo. Day of Sheffield, was a passenger on board the steamer Hampstead this morning.

A number of the folks of Gibson, drove down to Maugerville, where they spent a very enjoyable evening at Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Treadwell's.

BRIDES WHO ELOPE ON THE HONEYMOON.

In this land where elopements are not popular, instances of brides running off with more favored suitors during their honeymoons are almost unknown, but in the States, the home of the "runaway match," "honeymoon elopements" are frequently reported.

As long ago as 1893, a very interesting case of the kind took place. It seems that a young girl of sixteen, belonging to a good family, was engaged to an elderly, but very rich, coffee-dealer, and the marriage was, apparently, looked upon by the bride's family with a good deal.

SHE WAS NOT IN HER ROOM.

however, and, thinking she was waiting for him in the public reception parlor, he entered the apartment only to find it empty.

An hour passed, and at last, thoroughly alarmed, he made inquiries of the hotel officials, but all declared that they had not seen her since she had left the dining room. To make a long story short it soon became apparent to the unhappy groom that his young wife had left him, and after notifying the police he returned to his home in Connecticut.

Two days later the bride was found. The young man who had boarded the train at Buffalo was a former lover, and with him she had fled, and, though she was implored to return, she absolutely refused to do so. A week later the man with whom she had run away was
