AUDITOR GENERAL APPLIES CLUB TO MONTCALM
SILVERWARE YARN.

Ottawa, Ont., July 4.—(Special)—Auditor General Fraser was examined at the public accounts committee today by Hon. Mr. Brodeur, minister of marine and fisheries, in the regard to the Coughlan account for supplying silverware to the Montcalm, icebreaker.

Mr. Coughlan had previously been examined in respect to this, and testified to having refunded a certain amount of the price to the department.

Today Mr. Fraser told the committee that in the first instance, he had been informed that the silverware was not on board the steamer at all, and he went to Quebec to look into other matters, and at the same time inquired into whether the goods were in the Montcalm. He found them there.

When Mr. Brodeur, became minister of marine, he reported about the price which he considered too large. This was before the session met. The minister was pressing for a settlement of the matter, and the necessity of having whatever was paid too much refunded. This was done.

Mr. Brodeur—And what profit did Mr. Coughlan make, about five per cent was it not?

Mr. Fraser—No he did not make five per cent. The profits would not have reached more than three or four per cent.

Mr. Brodeur—So that the government was not the loser.

Mr. Fraser—No the government was not the loser.

Mr. Northrup—Thanks, to this committee.

Mr. Brodeur—The matter was investigated and settled before the parliamentary session opened.

Mr. Fraser—Yes, the matter was disposed of before the committee met, and the refund ordered. The minister was pressing upon me for a settlement.

In answer to Mr. Northrup, Mr. Fraser said that he asked the department for the original invoice, but did not get it. He got it elsewhere. He did not want to say as a rule where he got his information.

Mr. Northrup asked if he did not hear from several people that the silverware was in Ottawa, and not on the Montcalm.

Mr. Fraser said he did not hear that the goods were in Ottawa. He was first told that they were on the boat, and when he got to Quebec he found the silverware on board. Some of it was in the cabin, some in the storeroom.

To Mr. Taylor, Mr. Fraser said that the goods for the Champlain were in the storeroom, and those for the Montcalm were placed on board not very long before he visited Quebec.

Col. Gourdreau told him that the reason the silverware was not on board earlier was because the boat was under repairs.

HEIR TO THRONE.

Germany Rejoices at Birth of Kaiser's First Grandson—Salutes and Decorations.

Berlin, July 4.—(Special)—The crown Princess Frederick William, was safely accouched of a son at 9.15 this morning. The boy is well formed and strong.

The guns of a battery of artillery began to fire slowly in the square opposite the palace at noon, and tens of thousands within hearing of the salutes, stopped in the street or paused in their work, counting the guns for it had been announced that 72 would be fired for a girl and 121 for a boy.

Seventy-one, seventy-two, seventy-three, then the city knew that the heir presumptive had been born. An hour later half a million copies of the Official Gazette contained the following proclamation:

"Her Imperial and Royal Highness the crown princess of the German Empire and Prussia was happily delivered of a Prince at 9.15 a. m., in the marble palace at Potsdam to the joy of His Majesty the Emperor, Her Majesty the Empress, and the entire Royal family.

This pleasing event will be made known to the inhabitants of Berlin through the usual cannon shots. The Crown Princess and Prince are in the best possible condition.

(Signed) VON WEDEL, Minister of the Royal House.

All the public and many private buildings are decorated with flags. News of the birth of his grand son was communicated to Emperor William by means of a wireless despatch from Kiel, to the steamer Hamburg, on which His Majesty was proceeding to Trondheim, Norway. The steamer was last reported in the Great Belt.

There was great rejoicing at Potsdam, when it became known that the crown princess had given birth to a son. A salute was fired and the city decorated.

ENJOYING EXEMPTION.

Indian who Discovered Gold in Yukon Practising Habits of the White Man.

Vancouver, July 4.—(Special)—Tagish Charley, the Indian who first discovered gold in the Klondike Creek, and who is wealthy, is permitted to enjoy affluence in a manner forbidden in Canada to all others of his race.

In consideration of the valuable service he rendered the country in discovering gold, the Dominion government exempted him from the law prohibiting Indians from purchasing whiskey.

As a result Charley gets drunk nearly every day now, according to news reaching here from the Yukon, and he is regularly arrested and as regularly released on paying a fine of $25.

THE LIQUOR FLOWED.

Canyon, City Col., July 4.—(Special)—City officers, assisted by a number of church members, yesterday entered the Canyon City Labor Club, where liquor-selling is said to have been going on, arrested the proprietor after a hard fight, and spilled the stock of liquor into the gutter of the street. Throng on the way to church watched the attack on the club, and as the whiskey, beer and wine filled the gutters sang "Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow."

The temperance people got control of the city council a year ago. The saloons quit business, but many alleged "clubs" started up, which have made a stubborn fight against efforts to close them up.

CIRCUS CARS WRECKED.

Wild Animals at Large on the Prairie.

Saskatoon, July 4.—(Special)—Wild animals and circus paraphernalia filling three cars were ditched five miles north of the city early this morning, and the attendants of the 23-car train of Norris & Rowe's Shows en route to exhibit in Prince Albert yesterday were put to their wits' end to corral the terrified and enraged animals trying to regain their liberty. The trick African lioness' cage was bent and twisted, while "Victoria" made night hideous with her savage yells.

Nervy men by means of shifting the den, got the terrified and angry beast into another cage, and after a very exciting period the others animals were finally corralled and pacified. Flopping about on the prairie was a sea lion that was easily housed into a suitable enclosure. The office car of H. S. Howe, general manager, and the performing apparatus were splintered and scattered into a mixed medley of tickets, records and broken furniture.

ELEVEN MEN KILLED.

Altoona, Pa., July 4.—Eleven men who were returning from Portage to Puritan, both mining towns, were killed shortly before midnight on the Puritan branch, a spur running from Portage to Puritan, a distance of four miles, by a runaway car, which had been started down the steep mountain grade by some unknown person.

When the car was finally stopped near Portage it was seen that the wheels were covered with blood and shreds of clothing, and an investigation disclosed the bodies of the men lying along the track. Some of the bodies were half a mile apart. Not more than two bodies were found in any one spot.

CONTRADICTS ELLIS.

Canada Not Making for National Independence Says British Premier.

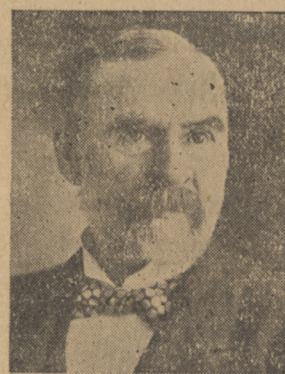

London, July 2.—(Special)—In the House of Commons Mr. J. B. Londeale of Mid Armagh called attention to the fact that Senator Ellis was reported to have said that there was a movement in Canada making for national independence. He asked what the government would do to counteract disintegration.

The Premier was surprised at the question. The feeling in Canada was not toward disintegration, but closer union. He advised the member not to be frightened by the speeches of Senator Ellis or anyone else.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S PARADE.

Young Fredericton's Part in the Celebration—Patriotic
Address by Mr. Rideout.

It requires more than a shower or dress, which was frequently punctured by cheers and the vigorous waving of flags. Every Canadian boy and girl, he said, should be proud of the British flag, and they should also be proud of their country. We have a great country and should not forget the duty that we owe to it. The great British empire covers one-fifth of the land surface of the globe, and Canada covers one-third of the land surface of the British empire, and is one of the biggest gems in the crown. We have the greatest wheat fields in the world, the greatest system of inland navigation, and the greatest water power in Niagara Falls. Think of our Canadian history from the time that Wolfe ascended to the Plains of Abraham, and led his men to victory in 1759. When the strong hold of Quebec was attacked in 1776, the Canadians stood true and repulsed the invaders; the same was accomplished by Brock and his gallant men in 1812. Our nation is a nation of peace today, and we boast of our nine provinces, where happiness and prosperity abound. Well may you be proud of that flag that has braved the battle and the breeze for one thousand years, that flag that has been honored and achieved glory since the days of King Alfred. It is not war or the navy that makes a nation great, but greatness lies in the hearts of its people. Be loyal, be true to your flag and give to your country the best that is in you. (Cheers.)

MR. C. A. SAMPSON.

Secretary of the Fredericton Board of School Trustees.

Arriving at the Parliament Square the children were halted facing the club house, and were called to order by Sheriff Sterling, who introduced Rev. Mr. Rideout as the orator for the occasion. The rev. gentleman delivered an eloquent and patriotic address.

The speech making over a committee of ladies composed of Mrs. J. R. Howie, Mrs. J. J. Weddall, Mrs. G. C. Vanwart, Mrs. Payson, Miss Beverly, Miss Sampson and others, distributed bags of candy among the children.

The happy gathering dispersed with cheers for the ladies, Mr. Sampson, Sheriff Sterling and the singing of the National Anthem.

The committee in charge of the school children's parade was composed of Sheriff Sterling, A. D. Thomas, and C. A. Sampson, and they did their work well.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

The council met this morning at ten o'clock with Warden Timmins in the chair, and all the members present.

The Secretary-treasurer at the request of Coun. Brooks explained the amendments to the highway act passed at the last session of the legislature. The collecting in York county, he said had been done promptly. Another amendment provides for the payment of county officers who handle the road fund.

Coun. Scott submitted the following report from the committee on public accounts: "Your committee appointed to examine and audit the books of the secretary-treasurer of the municipality of the county of York, beg leave to report that we have carefully examined the books of accounts and vouchers and we find that the balance on hand November 30th, 1905, was $5,015.68. TEACHERS' PAY.

Premier Tweedie Made an Interesting
Announcement at Chatham.

In reporting the speech of Premier Tweedie at the provincial teachers' institute at Chatham last week, reporters of the daily newspapers made some important omissions which are supplied by the Chatham World as follows:—

"Premier Tweedie trembled, he said, in facing so critical an audience and would be careful to advance propositions with which all would agree. It was the best looking and most intellectual body of gentlemen and ladies he had ever seen, and all the teachers were underpaid. (Great applause.) It was said that he was about to step down and out from office, but he hoped, before doing so, to be able to announce the adoption of a policy by the government that would increase the salaries of teachers and establish a pension fund—making provision for their old age. (Applause.) Most of our country schools were too small and he hoped to see the principle of consolidation accepted by parishes. He looked upon 30 cents at too low a county tax for school purposes, and thought it should be 50 cents. (Applause.)"
