

WILL NOT RETIRE.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley Makes Denial of Tory Report that He Would Quit Politics.

Hon. Dr. Pugsley returned to St. John yesterday from Montreal. To a Telegraph reporter the attorney general said that he was not to retire from politics, as had been intimated by a newspaper here.

When asked with regard to the new spapers' rumors in reference to his contemplated retirement from the provincial government and his going away for a rest of six months' or a year, Dr. Pugsley said that he had no present intention of retiring from political life. It is true that he had been advised by his physicians to endeavor to take things more easily than he had for a good many years past and, acting on this advice, might give up for a time the more strenuous work of his profession, but he did not think that it would be necessary for him to retire from politics.

The reporter also called Mr. Pugsley's attention to the interesting rumors which have been circulated in regard to his disposal of certain western interests, to which the attorney general replied that he did not suppose that his business affairs would be of any interest to the public. He might, however, say that he was very well satisfied with their present position.

Asked in regard to the judicature act and the report that there was opposition to it at Ottawa, the attorney general replied that it had not been decided by the government when the act should go into force. All that was necessary for the Dominion parliament to do was to pass legislation providing that where, in a Dominion statute, the supreme court of New Brunswick and the judges thereof are mentioned, these words shall mean the supreme court as constituted by the judicature act, and the judges of such court. The matter of appointing the judges has nothing to do, he said, with the bringing of the act into force, as, when the statute comes into operation, the appointment of the judges rests entirely with the Dominion government.

While not by any means recovered after the operation, it is pleasing to announce that Dr. Pugsley's hand is doing nicely and getting on well.

A BLAZE OF GLORY.

Pryotechnic Display on the River Witnessed by Thousands.

One of the grandest features in connection with the whole celebration was the illuminated water parade and pyrotechnic display last night on the river opposite the Bicycle and Boat Club House. The grand spectacular display was witnessed by from eight to ten thousand people. The river bank from Temple's landing to the railway bridge was one solid mass of humanity. There were scores of people on the water in canoes and motor launches and hundreds more saw the display from carriages on Queen street and adjacent windows and house tops. It is doubtful if such a large gathering of people was ever seen here before. There were upwards of thirty canoes and motor boats flitting about on the water and when darkness came on shortly after nine o'clock they displayed white and colored Roman candles, making a remarkably pretty scene.

The Marysville and Fredericton Brass Bands entered the proceedings with a programme of music.

Mr. George J. Barrett superintended the work of setting off the fireworks and everything was satisfactory. The fireworks were of a high quality, although there was not the variety that was expected. The aerial bombs and rockets and balloons were beyond a doubt the best ever seen here.

The exhibition began at nine o'clock and closed at eleven with a good night piece, showing outlines of the King and Queen, Mr. Barrett and his committee are deserving of every credit for the successful manner in which the exhibition was carried out.

Parliament Square and the Bicycle and Boat Club grounds were illuminated with Chinese lanterns and the effect was very pretty.

A great many carriages were drawn up along Queen street between St. John street and the I. C. R. crossing. The horses behaved very well, although there was one collision during the evening, resulting in one man losing the hind wheel of his carriage.

PROHIBITION CAMPAIGN.

To the Editor of the Herald:

Sir,—A Temperance convention, the program of which accompanies this letter, will be held in Fredericton July the 9th. The Grand Lodge of Good Templars will also meet in the city the same day. We hope in the near future to secure for New Brunswick what Prince Edward Island now possesses, a satisfactory prohibitory law. That province in 1902 passed the Prohibition Act. It was amended and improved in 1905. Its principal features are as follows: for the first offence the penalty is $100, for the second $200, for the third six months' imprisonment. It gives the stipendiary magistrate power to search places where he believes liquor is stored and its being found is prima facie evidence that it is kept for unlawful purposes and the owner is fined unless he can establish his innocence.

If a drunken man under arrest refuses to tell from whom the liquor was obtained he is committed to contempt of court.

The giving away of intoxicating liquors or any devices to evade the provisions of the act shall be deemed an unlawful selling.

Charlotteville has that 8,000 inhabitants at once accepted the act repealing the Scott Act, and after it was tested for years it was found so satisfactory that the counties of Prince, in which Summerside is situated, and Kings did the same. Recently Queens County in which Charlotteville is situated adopted the act by a vote of nearly eight to one.

Now were the people educated for such action? When the Scott Act was presented to the Island people, it was adopted at once, the clergy of all denominations having used their influence in its favor. It was not all they desired but those who were anxious to arrest the ravages of intemperance, were willing to use it until something better could be obtained.

The temperance people of the Island have a most excellent organization. There is not only an Alliance for the province but one for each county affiliated with it. The Rev. Fr. Burke, Roman Catholic clergyman, of Alberton is president of the Provincial Alliance.

Is the act a success? The Rev. Win Dobson, president of the Methodist conference, who has been in Charlotteville two years, stated to the writer that liquor is not sold to the Charlotteville people, it is a dry town. The following is from a recent issue of the Charlotteville Guardian:

"The telegram printed below shows how our prohibitory law is receiving attention in the Nova Scotia campaign and deepen the conviction that the other provinces will in time follow us in this matter:

Kentville, N. S.,
June 18th.

To Rev. A. E. Burke, Alberton:

Is Prohibition successful in P. E. Island? Would you advise Nova Scotia adopting your law?

(Sgd.) E. B. NEWCOMBE,
Alberton,
June 18th.

To E. B. Newcombe, Kentville,

Eminently successful, and we have the power to make it more so if it is not. I certainly would advise you to adopt it.

(Sgd.) A. E. BURKE.

The Methodist Conferences of the lower provinces recently passed resolutions recommending prohibition and recommended their people to vote only for those candidates for political honors who are likely to support a prohibitory measure.

As Christians and patriots we ought to be zealous in this cause. Intemperance is criminal. Six thousand of our fellow-Canadians each year are sacrificed to the demon of intemperance, and men are the best asset of our country. Is it nothing to us that 140 millions of dollars are spent annually for strong drink in Canada becoming conscious of herself as a nation, her wonderful resources, her outlook for the future that is so full of hope. Shall we allow the drink traffic that is the foe of the material, the moral and spiritual prosperity to continue its evil work, or will we toil in our might and destroy it?

It is with this object in view that we call upon the Christian and temperance people of this city and the county of York to join forces with the other counties of the province in securing for ourselves what is already a reality in the fair garden of the Gulf, made all the more fair because her sons are safe from the deadly serpent in the intoxicating cup.

LADIES' WORK APRON.

If there is one garment without which the housekeeper could not get along it is her work apron. One may wear house dresses and wrappers but when it comes to doing one's house work there is nothing to take its place. It requires only a few yards of goods and a few minutes time the garment, and then, too, how much easier it is to launder than a dress. The accompanying cut shows a model of immense convenience, made with a fancy yoke, big pockets and with full protecting sleeves and skirt. It is constructed with little trouble and has the virtue of being sufficient in itself without the aid of trimmings. Gingham, Holland pique madras linen or lawn may be used in the making. For medium size 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material are needed. 6276—Sizes 32, 20, 44 inches bust measure.

1. That the sessions be held in the George street U. B. church, using the vestry for the afternoon and the auditorium for the evening session.

2. That the afternoon be devoted to organization and discussion of the following subjects:

(a) The advisability of organizing for York Co. a branch of the Provincial Temperance Federation with a view to unifying the temperance forces of the county and of ultimately securing a Prohibitory Liquor Law, similar to that now in force in Prince Edward Island.

(b) That organization be effected in the various parishes of York Co. for the purpose of promoting temperance work (1) in its moral, (2) in its legal and (3) in its political aspects.

(c) That an effort be made to increase the temperance sentiment of the city of Fredericton and to take the necessary steps leading to the better enforcement of the present temperance enactment.

3. That at the evening session of the convention a mass meeting be held and addresses be given by Rev. Mr. Marshall and Mr. L. P. D. Tilley, both of St. John.

4. That the President and Secretary of this committee issue a call to all the temperance societies and churches throughout the city and county requesting that each church and society send as many representatives as possible; and that also a special invitation be extended to all clergymen and other persons whose interest in temperance is well known.

5. That free use be made of the press and the pulpit in advertising the convention and that every effort be made to have this gathering as representative and effective as possible.

6. That the following persons be appointed to lead in the discussion of the subjects assigned for the afternoon and to prepare suitable resolutions thereon:

a. Councillor MacFarlane.
b. Rev. J. J. Colter or Councillor Grosvenor.
c. Dr. McLeod.

J. J. COLTER, President.
J. CLEMENT WILSON, Secretary.

A HEROIC YOUNG CANADIAN.

Mr. Cyril Bland Takes Part in Rescue of Shipwrecked Crew.

A few days ago the schooner Crinthean went ashore near Samoa, California. Two of her crew lost their lives and the others were rescued with great difficulty after a night of terrible toil by a few brave men, who brought the ship wrecked sufferers to land by means of the breeches buoy. The Eureka Herald, in telling the thrilling story of the rescue, among those who took their lives in their hands, mentions Mr. Cyril Bland and Mr. Hugh Graham, from the office of the Vaucluse Lumber Company of Sarnia, Ont. Mr. Bland is a Canadian boy, a son of Mr. Thomas Bland of 256 Huron Street, Toronto. These young men heroically assisted the life saving crew throughout the entire night, most of the time working in the surf when the wild and chilling wind was blowing. Two of the rescued men were suffering from broken legs. Mr. Bland turned to immediate use some medical knowledge obtained in her earlier days in Canada, and promptly improvised splints and dressed the broken limbs so that the injured men could be comfortably removed to the hospital. The Eureka Herald speaks in very warm terms of the splendid work accomplished by Mr. Bland and his office associate.

ALMOST HOPELESS.

The Condition of Thousands of Pale, Anemic Girls.

"Almost hopeless is the best way to describe the condition I was in about a year ago," says Miss Marjorie Mannett, of Athol, N. S. "My health had been gradually giving way until I reached a condition when I feared I was sinking into chronic invalidism. I was as white as a sheet, my blood had no appetite, suffered from headaches and dizziness, the least exertion would leave me breathless, and it appeared that I was going into the life I had seen Dr. Williams' Pink Pills highly recommended by the newspapers and I decided to give them a trial. It was a fortunate day for me when I came to that decision, as the pills have not only restored me health but have actually made me stronger than I ever was before. I now have a good appetite, a good color, and new energy. I am satisfied that I owe all this to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which I cheerfully recommend to other pale, feeble, ailing girls."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills quickly cured Miss Mannett, because they made the new, rich red blood which enables the system to throw off disease, and brings robust health and cheerfulness to pale anemic sufferers. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure bloodlessness just as surely as food cures hunger, and the new blood which the pills make braces the nerves and tones and strengthens every organ and every part of the body. That is why these pills strike straight at the root of such common diseases as headaches, sideaches and backaches, kidney trouble, indigestion, neuralgia, rheumatism, St. Vitus Dance, paralysis and the troubles which women and growing girls suffer in silence. It has been proved in thousands of cases that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure after doctors and all other medicines have failed. But you must get the genuine pills with the full name, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, on the wrapper around each box. All medicine dealers sell these pills, or you can get them by mail at 50 cts. a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"I don't know about that, ma. I wasn't more than a day old when I gave my first bayl."
