

TRY A LIGHT COAT

Don't wear that Heavy Cloth Coat these hot days, when you might be enjoying real comfort in one of our thin unlined Flannel or Lustre Coats.

Nothing like a Light Coat for coolness now, and they look good too.

Our range of styles is very large this year, and any size man can get fitted. We keep 'em as large as 46-ins.

AFTER PRESTON'S SCALP.

Monk Moves For His Dismissal but House Said no by 50 Majority

French Members Indulge in Scrap Over Lord's Day Bill.

Ottawa, July 4.—In the House yesterday afternoon there was an echo of a row among the French members over the Lord's Day Bill.

Mr. Piche of St. Mary's division, Montreal, declared that at a public meeting in Montreal, Mr. Bourassa and his countrymen, that Mr. Bourassa had used inflammatory language which was not worthy of him.

Mr. Rivet of Hochelaga division, Montreal, repudiated the charge of betraying his countrymen, that Mr. Bourassa had made against him at the public meeting. He resented the charge on behalf of himself, his countrymen, his colleagues and the prime minister.

Mr. Bourassa in reply, said it had been agreed between himself, Mr. Piche and Mr. Rivet that he, Bourassa, would on third reading of the Sunday bill, make an amendment which had been lost on the committee, they were to do this to record a vote.

Mr. Piche denied the compact.

Armand Lavergne said he was there and had heard it made.

Mr. Bourassa charged Mr. Piche with having sent men and money to his country, Labelle, at the last election. Mr. Bourassa said he had chased them both out of the country.

The incident then closed.

In committee on the railway subsidy bill, Mr. Haggart complained because the Ontario government had been refused a bonus to its provincial railway.

Mr. Emmerson said it was not proposed to increase the provincial grants in this way.

An amendment was accepted from Mr. Logan of Cumberland declaring materials for the subsidized lines must be bought in Canada when they can be secured at fair prices and adequate quantities. The bill was read the third time.

In motion to go into supply, F.D. Monk offered an amendment declaring that the investigations into the immigration business of Canada had shown that W. T. R. Preston, commissioner of immigration in Canada, should no longer be continued in that office.

In support of his motion, Mr. Monk had no desire to prosecute Preston, but thought he had not been frank with the committee. Preston failed to respect his instructions, as he had sent skilled labor to Canada. The relations which Preston confessed to having had with Leopold, who was really Lazarus, a Jew, showed Preston was active in establishing a labor bureau. The government should have a man of highest responsibility. There was evidently no confidence between Lord Strathcona and Mr. Preston.

Hon. Mr. Oliver said Mr. Monk was giving a fine example of a man leading his friends out of the small end of the horn. Mr. Monk had announced an immigration scandal and had held up business for days while it was being investigated. Now after his investigation had been completed Mr. Monk's case simmered down to a demand that Mr. Preston should not be dismissed, but should be removed from his present position to another because he was displeasing to Mr. Griffith and Mr. Jury.

Mr. Oliver admitted that some improvement was necessary and that the House might very well expect that the matter would be looked very carefully into. But to say that Preston should be dismissed on one sided evidence was not reasonable.

Mr. Borden.—What does the minister mean by one sided evidence?

Mr. Oliver—Mr. Preston was not permitted to give any evidence in rebuttal.

The minister went on to say that Mr. Leopold conducted the farmers' auxiliary and through it sent agriculturalists to Canada, Mr. Preston had a right to look into that.

Mr. Monk—But it was shown by Ennis letters.

Mr. Oliver said that those letters were stolen, and would not be accepted in any court as evidence against any man.

Mr. Monk said that they were taken when Mr. Ennis was not looking, and were not stolen. (Laughter.)

Mr. Oliver said that whether they were stolen or not they were one-sided evidence and it was not possible to offer any evidence in rebuttal.

The minister said that as Mr. Preston was instrumental in sending through the North Atlantic Trading Company so many settlers to the Northwest in this way he created a great market for the product for skilled labor and for which he was now asked to be dismissed. In 1903 the Canadian Manufacturers' Association wrote the deputy minister at Ottawa asking the British immigration agents to assist them in getting skilled and unskilled labor from Britain. The department refused to do so.

Monk's amendment was defeated by fifty majority.

UPPER MAUGERVILLE.
July 4.—The local travel on the steamer Hampstead is increasing especially among members of the fair sex.

Quite a number from here went to the picnic at Gagetown on Monday. Misses Mary and Annie Harding are home on a vacation trip.

Miss Emma Ladds who has been teaching the past term is home again.

Miss Hattie Brown who has been teaching at Central Blissville is at home for the holidays.

Miss Mabel Brown has resigned her school in number 2 district.

The York and Sunbury Milling Company of Gibson are having their new mill here put in readiness for operation and expect to start in a few days.

Word has been received of the safe arrival at Weyburn, Assiniboia, of Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Dykeman and little daughter Vera.

Miss Lydia Baskin of St. John, West, is visiting Mrs. A. A. Treadwell.

Miss Gertrude Marsh of St. John, West is expected here to visit Mrs. C. W. Shields.

Mr. A. A. Treadwell has returned from a business trip through the western parishes. He reports crops somewhat backward especially the grass crop.

The grass crop down here does not seem encouraging. The tops are all right but the grubs seem to be injuring the roots.

In some cases the farmers have had to plant their crops a second time, owing to grubs getting in their fine work.

Mr. Jacob Hazleton has erected a fine barn on his farm here. The size is about 50x75 feet.

CORK SETTLEMENT.
July 3.—The weather for the past week has been very warm, with a occasional shower, which promise good crops.

Mr. Henry Dineen of McAdam, made a flying visit to Cork this week.

Mr. James Maloney has purchased a very handsome organ and also a very fine buggy from Mr. Gaynor.

A very sociable dance was held at Mr. O'Connor's music, furnished by Mr. John Discoll, Mr. William Ross, borough of Acton, attended, and showed us some fancy dancing.

Mr. Robert Little of Harvey, our road supervisor, has been here making repairs to the roads, but he did not get along as well as was expected on account of a strike for wages among the men and also the teams which were not balky, but refused to work.

LONG OVERDUE.
Great Anxiety Felt for Safety of French Steamships With 150 Persons on Board.

New York, July 4.—No news of any kind has yet been received of the Fabre line steamer America, which sailed from Marseilles June 3 for this city, carrying 150 souls, 110 of whom were passengers and forty comprising the crew. Real apprehension for the safety of the steamer was expressed in shipping circles today. Relatives and friends of those aboard the beleaguered steamship have, for days, been making inquiries at the offices of the agents of the ship, but no information concerning the vessel would be given them. Hope has not been abandoned by the steamer's agents, who explain that she likely has become disabled by a breakdown of her machinery or the loss of her propeller.

It was June 11 that the steamer left the Azores and she should have come into port here in nine days with good weather. Twenty-two days have passed and no vessel arriving from Mediterranean port has sighted the America. The Germania, a steamer of the same line coming from Marseilles and Palermo, over the same track, reported upon her arrival here last Friday that she had seen nothing of the America. Today the Maddona, also of the same line, came into port from the Mediterranean, but nothing of the America was seen on the trip.
