WHY HAULTAIN IS OUT.

Result of His Famous Speech at Woodstock, Ont.— Premier Scott Continues the Debate in the Saskatchewan Legislature.

Regina, Sask., April 6.—The sensational feature of today's sitting of the legislature was the uplifting of Premier Scott of the curtain over the events, prior to the summoning of himself by Lieutenant Governor Forget to form the first government of the Province of Saskatchewan, whereby for the first time light has been thrown upon the circumstances surrounding the passing over of Premier Haultain. It all happened at the town of Woodstock, Ont., on the night of the North Oxford by-election, when Mr. Haultain made his pointed speech, in which he said that he would go back to the west, win one of the two provinces and tear the constitution to pieces. Until then, went on Mr. Scott, the membership of one or other of the provinces had been intended for Mr. Haultain, and he himself would have supported him in that capacity. After that it was impossible for himself or for the government to consider the territorial premier's claims.

Mr. Scott made this statement as one speaking with authority. It appears that the premier had included his speech in reply to Mr.
Haultain when the House adjourned yesterday, and this afternoon he was in splendid fighting form, after last night's banquet, and for fifty minutes boldly carried the war into his enemy's country. Mr. Haultain, he said, had stated that election crooks had travelled with a member of his government. He had challenged the leader of the opposition to name his men, but the latter could not do so.
Mr. Scott supposed that the men

BLOOMERS SHOCK HIM.

School Comptroller Says Only Shape- ly Girls Wear Them.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 6.—I am shocked. The young ladies of the Allegheny high school play basket ball in the school gymnasium dressed in bloomers, with the young gentlemen of the school and no caper on about. It is time that something was done.

School Comptroller Adam Hahn made this announcement to the Allegheny board of school controllers last night. He said that he had gone to the high school on business, and had stepped into the gymnasium.
There were a lot of girls of 15, 16 and 17 years old in bloomers playing basket ball with boys of the same age attired in tight. Mr. Hahn did not think that this was proper. He thought that two teachers, at least, should be present, and he favored the separation of the sexes altogether.

"Only the girls with the best shapely play the game," said the comptroller, and the other members of the board just laughed. Mr. Hahn went to City Superintendent John Morrow and complained to him. The latter promised to "do something."

The girls' basketball team of the Allegheny high school is the champion of western Pennsylvania and has defeated all comers, even the boys' team. The pretty ball players say that they do not play basketball to show their shapes, but to acquire them.

They do not deny pride in their form lines, but say that it is all due to basket ball and that they had not any shapes worth looking at until they began to play. The Allegheny girls say further that no lady should play basket ball in skirts.

The speech of Mr. Hahn on the subject has created a sensation in Allegheny. Opinion is divided as to whether he is right or wrong. They have been playing this way for years, and nobody ever thought anything of it until Mr. Hahn got to rubber-necking, and now there is an awful stir about it, just as there is the school authorities have not known that they were doing it. One girl said:

"What kind of shapes would we have if we didn't play basket ball. I didn't have any at all until I began to play and look at me now"—and she is pretty.

ORVILLE BROWN.

Now, Orville Brown he's just moved here.
From Millerstown, an' he don't give a cent for all us folks, 'cause we're Not like those where he use to live.

W'y, yesterday, at school he got A whippin' when he broke a rule.
An' men he talked an awful lot About the smallness of our school.
"Huh! Whippin'," snickered Orville Brown.

"Is 'twice as hard" at Miller-town!"

Us boys, we tried to show him 'round But notin' at we took him to Was half as good as Millerstown.
Our town hild isn't half as new As their's down there, an' our town pump Don't lift you clean up off your feet.

Each time you make the handle jump,
"Th' town pump there," says Orville
Brown,
"Is 'twice as dry in Millerstown!"

We showed him where th' cellar is Where our new opera house will be But he just blinked those eyes of his "They're twice as deep at home," says he.

An' when we showed th' Perkins twins One of 'em's Lucy, one is Lou—They look as "like as two" bright pines."

An' Orville Brown he says, "Just two!"

"I've often seen," says Orville Brown
"Three in a set at Millerstown!"

So notin' we could show him beat Th' things they have in Miller-
town.

An' Freckles Andrews says "You meet Me back of Johnson's Orville
Brown."

An' Freckles Andrews met him there An' blacked his eye and bunged his nose.

An' when, an' when—what do you suppose?"

"I've often been," said Orville Brown "Whipped 'twice as bad in Miller-

WASTE MILLIONS.

Secretary Bonaparte Shows How Navy's Changed Policy Results.

Washington, D. C., April 6.—The charges made during this session of Congress that there has been gross extravagance in the navy department have been admitted. Secretary Bonaparte, in response to the demand of Chairman Tamm of the House appropriations committee, has written a letter showing a partial statement of the expenditures. Mr. Tamm wanted the expenditures of all the bureaus of the department for 10 years.

Secretary Bonaparte says he cannot furnish this information. He gives year 1905 only. It bears out the statement of two bureaus for the charges of the House leaders that the navy department has wasted millions of dollars as—the result of changing the plans of war vessels, ordering new specifications for altering plans after work had actually begun.

It shows that in 1905 the bureau of construction wasted $125,000 in this way. At this rate for 10 years the extravagance would average $1,250,000 for changes in specifications and plans. The expenditure of this money was not only an extravagance but it has been claimed by Chairman Tamm in violation of the law. In the bureau of steam engineering a difference of only $2000 for 1905 is shown by figures for other bureaus are given by the secretary.

SAFETY FOR CHILDREN.

Baby's Own Tablets is the only medicine that gives the mother the guarantee of a government analyst that it contains no poisonous opiate and is absolutely safe. This is worth much to every mother who cares for the future welfare of her child. The Tablets are good for the tenderest baby or for the well grown boy or girl, and cure the minor troubles that are inseparable from childhood. Mrs. W. J. Macintosh, Clam Harbor, N. S., says:

"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for constipation, vomiting and colds and have found them a splendid medicine. I give the Tablets all the credit for the splendid health my little one now enjoys."

The wise mother will always keep a box of these Tablets on hand. They can be got from any druggist or by mail from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont., at 25 cents a box.

Dolly—How are you getting along with your French?

Edith—Very fast! I've learned how to shrug my shoulders and raise my eyebrows in just four lessons.

MAN AND DOG.

Boston Herald, April 6.—Battling fully ten minutes in an effort to subdue a St. Bernard dog which had become angry at his efforts to lead him, Patrick St. John, a harness maker employed at the Acadie stables, 1217 Washington Street, had his coat torn into shreds, his arms badly cut by the dog's heavy paws, and was considerably used up yesterday before the dog was finally quieted.

The incident happened at the corner of Washington and Dover Streets. The dog, valued at several hundred dollars is owned by J. Lewis Johnson, 8217 Washington Street. He gave instructions for St. John to bring the dog to a nearby Washington Street restaurant some time later. St. John started with the dog, but the animal developed an obstinate streak and refused to be coaxed or led into the restaurant.

St. John seized him by the collar and attempted to drag into the store. Then the beast reared up on his hind paws and knocked St. John down. During the struggle Johnson appeared and the battle came to an abrupt end, the owner calling the dog off.

St. John would have been badly injured.

DO YOU GET BILIOUS?

No remedy could be more prompt and agreeable than Dr. Hamilton's Pills. No matter where you go you will hear of the grand cure they make. Writing from Ottawa Mrs.
M. E. Legere says: "For people inclined to biliousness and such headaches I don't think that there is a remedy to compare with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. I formerly had bilious attacks about once a month—used Dr. Hamilton's Pills and obtained grand results. My stomach has been put in good order and my health improved. No medicine better for men, women and children. Try Dr.
Hamilton's Pills—25c. per box or five boxes for $1.00 at all druggists.

RIVERS OF LAVA.

Mr. Vesuvius in Eruption and Villages are Alarmed.

Naples, April 6.—The eruption of Mt. Vesuvius is assuming alarming proportions. Five streams of burning lava are descending the mountain, destroying everything below. The inhabitants of the small villages near the crater are escaping, while processions of villagers carrying images of saints and madonnas and praying for a cessation of the eruption are passing through the neighboring towns.

The smoke and ashes are carried so far that all Naples is sprinkled with cinders.

The Neapolitans are not alarmed.
In fact they are rather glad, saying that the new eruption of Vesuvius is in preparation for the arrival of King Edward who left Versailles April 3 on the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, accompanied by Queen Alexandra and who is expected here today.

There is many parts of the country where the jury system is imperfectly understood.

A suit for damages was on trial at one of the divisions of the city court recently. A country lad, seventeen or eighteen years of age, was put on the stand to testify. He gave the testimony in so low a tone that the judge, pointing to the jury, said to the boy:

"Speak so that these gentlemen can hear."

"Why," said the witness, with a beaming smile, "are these men interested in pop's case?"

St. Petersburg, April 6.—Ushin, an able seaman and the sole survivor from the battleship Borodino when she was sunk during the battle of the Sea of Japan, May 27, 1905, has returned to St. Petersburg with a remarkable story of his escape. He says he was in the turret when the ship turned turtle. The suction of the water forced him back from a port-hole. He finally found a slight air space under the roof, and there he undressed. After the ship sunk he found the port gun with his foot and plunged down, coming out on the surface of the water. He clung to wreckage until picked up by a Japanese boat, which took him a prisoner to Japan.
