

Events of a Day

SOCIAL TOMORROW EVENING

The postponed social which was to have been given by the Cathedral young men's society several evenings ago will be held tomorrow night at the Church Hall.

A. O. H. WHIST SOCIAL

The A. O. H. of St. Mary's are to hold their whist party again tomorrow evening at their hall St. Mary's and as the highway bridge and river are both in excellent condition for crossing a large number will no doubt be present.

GOVERNMENT MEETING.

Premier Tweedie arrived from Chatham today to attend a meeting of the local government, called for this evening, to arrange the program for the session.

DAUGHTERS OF THE EMPIRE.

The Daughters of the Empire will meet at the residence of Mrs. J. R. Howie at 8 o'clock Friday evening and a full attendance of members is requested.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.

Mr. John W. Fairley underwent an operation for appendicitis at Mrs. Richards' private hospital yesterday. His condition today is as favorable as can be expected and strong hopes are entertained for his recovery.

THE LATE T. S. KNOWLES.

The funeral of the late Mr. Thomas Knowles will take place at 2.30 p.m. tomorrow from the Edgecombe home, 230 York street. Services will be conducted at the house by Rev. Dr. Rogers and interment will be made in the rural cemetery.

THE SCHOOL BOARD.

The regular monthly meeting of the city board of school trustees is to be held tomorrow afternoon, when the question of introducing the study of music in the schools will be taken up.

MOVING TO HALIFAX.

Lieut. and Quartermaster A. J. Fowle of the R. C. R. who has been spending a few days at his home here, will return to Halifax tomorrow. He is to remove his family to that city in the near future. During his sojourn here Lieut. Fowle has received many congratulations on his well deserved promotion in the R. C. R.

DID NOT BELONG HERE.

It transpires that the young man, Bockman, who was drowned at Littleton, Mass., a few days ago, as reported in yesterday's Herald, was not a native of Fredericton, as alleged, but was for a time employed here by the John Palmer Company Limited. He came here from some part of Nova Scotia and remained during part of the year 1903.

HUDLON COMING HOME.

Charles Hudlon, who was sent to the Dorchester penitentiary three years ago for assault will complete his sentence in the course of a few days. A Fredericton man who was in Dorchester not long ago, offered to pay Hudlon's expenses to South Africa, providing he would immigrate to that country and remain there but the foxy Charles declined the offer. He said he had made up his mind to return to his old home at Fredericton, and did not wish to disappoint the friends here, who were so anxious to welcome him.

MINISTERS' MEETING.

The United Baptist ministers of York and Sunbury counties met yesterday at the home of Rev. J. H. McDonald and organized a "ministers' meeting." There were present Revs. Dr. McLeod, J. H. McDonald, R. Heine, J. C. Wilson, A. A. Rideout, C. W. Sable, H. R. Boyer, C. Field, and D. H. Simpson. The following officers were elected: Rev. D. H. Simpson, president; Rev. H. R. Boyer, secretary-treasurer. A very interesting paper was read by the president elect which called forth considerable discussion. The next meeting will be on the last Monday in February.

CIVIC POLITICS.

Ex-Ald. John Maxwell is being urged by his friends to contest Carleton ward at the approaching election, and he will probably consent to enter the field. Ald. Stockford announced today that he would positively be a candidate for the Mayoralty. The names of Messrs. W. J. Osborne and Henry Chestnut are being mentioned as probable aldermanic candidates.

ON THE LEPREUX.

Mr. William D. Hagerman of Keswick, who lumbers on the Lepreau for Messrs. Gregory and Dunn, was in the city yesterday. He says that work at his camps has been much retarded during the last fortnight on account of the scarcity of snow. The ground is almost bare at the present time, and one crew has been obliged to quit work. Mr. Hagerman says about three inches of snow would make splendid hauling.

MRS. PARKS' DEATH.

The death occurred yesterday at the residence of Mr. William Harding, at Lower St. Mary's, of Mrs. Mary Ann Parks, widow of the late Mr. Jonah Parks. She had the misfortune to fall and break her hip last August and has not since been in the enjoyment of good health. She had reached the advanced age of eighty-six years. The funeral will take place tomorrow at two o'clock by Rev. James Crisp. Interment will be made at Sunny Bank. Undertaker John G. Adams has charge of the arrangements.

SUPREME COURT.

Common Motions Made at the Opening of Hilary Term.

Hilary term of the supreme court opened here this morning with all the judges present except Judge Gregory. Among the barristers in attendance were: Messrs. J. D. Phinney, K. C., J. H. Barry, K. C., R. W. McLellan, R. B. Hanson, A. R. Slipp, J. T. Sharkey, Fredericton; L. A. Currey, K. C., St. John; F. A. McCully, Moncton; M. N. Cockburn, St. Andrews; Thomas Lawson, St. J. Carter, Andover; and Fred LaForest, Edmundston.

The following common motions were made:

Bourke vs Record Foundry Company.—Undertaking enlarged on motion of J. D. Phinney, K. C.

Ingraham vs Brown.—Time to file notice and leave to enter on special paper of the term granted on motion of L. A. Currey, K. C.

Ex parte William J. Grey.—J. H. Barry, K. C., moves for a rule absolute for a certiorari and rule nisi to quash a conviction for killing two dogs. Rule absolute for certiorari.

Ex parte Eliza J. Ritchie and Geo. Ritchie (two cases).—Thomas Lawson moves for a rule absolute for a certiorari and rule nisi to quash a conviction for selling liquor contrary to the liquor license act. Rules as moved in both cases.

Ex parte Geo. Myers.—J. D. Phinney, K. C., moves for rule absolute for certiorari and rule nisi to quash conviction for keeping intoxicating liquors for sale contrary to the Canada Temperance Act.—Rule granted.

Timothy Lynch vs. William Richards Company, Limited.—Order of nisi prius judge of York sitting made rule of court in motion of J. H. Barry, K. C.

RATTLING VICTORY.

Fredericton Curlers Had An Easy Thing With the St. Stephen Men, Defeating Them by 33 Points.

The experiment of electing young skips to meet a visiting club was more than justified in the result of yesterday's curling match between the Fredericton and St. Stephen clubs, the home team winning in every rink and pulling out with the splendid aggregate lead of 33 points. In the afternoon play President Barker easily beat St. Stephen's crack skip Walter Grant, and Charlie Allen won handily over the veteran Col. Chipman, and in the evening Fred Hall defeated Gus Glein without difficulty and Inspector Bridges conquered Eddie Ganong without unnecessarily straining himself.

The result shows that the Fredericton club have a great many more effective skips than in some circles was generally supposed.

The rinks and scores in yesterday's match were as follows:

Majority for Fredericton, 33 points

After the game the visiting players were entertained to luncheon by the home club. President Barker was in the chair and a pleasant hour was spent in toasts, speeches and songs.

The St. Stephen men left for St. John this morning where this evening they are to play the St. Andrews club.

The Fredericton club, four rinks strong, are to play at St. Stephen next Monday.

A CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE.

Mrs. Passay—Shakespeare says man has seven ages. At first—Jack Gayford, interrupting—Well, a woman has only three.

Mrs. Passay—Indeed, What are they pray?

Jack Gayford, grimly—Sixteen, nineteen and twenty-three. They never get past the latter.
