

Events of a Day

SPECIAL MEETING.

A special meeting of the city council is called for tomorrow evening to consider a communication from Hyde & Webster, pipe contractors.

ORANGEMEN TO CELEBRATE.

The Orangemen are to celebrate the 12th of July by holding a big picnic at Deakstown tomorrow. It is likely that quite a number from this city will attend.

A BOY'S DEATH.

The death took place at an early hour this morning of Hugh Francis, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wilkes, after an illness of some weeks from a complication of diseases. Several physicians were in attendance upon the little fellow, and all that medical aid could do was done but without avail. The statement in a local paper that an operation was performed was not correct. The little fellow, who was six years and six months old, was a bright and promising lad. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon. Service will be held at the house at 2.30 p. m., and interment at the rural cemetery under the direction of John G. Adams.

LAID TO REST.

The funeral of the late Mr. Alexander MacKenzie took place from his late residence on George Street at three o'clock this afternoon, and had a very large attendance. Services were conducted by Rev. Willard MacDonald, and interment was made in the rural cemetery. The members of St. Andrew's Society, with which deceased had long been identified, paid him a last tribute of respect by attending the obsequies in a body. Undertaker John G. Adams had charge of the arrangements.

Miss Nellie Lipsett of this city, left by boat this morning to visit relatives in St. John.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of People in whom our Readers are Interested.

Mr. L. C. Macnutt, jr., of Boston, who has been visiting relatives here, left by boat this morning for his old home at Londonderry, N. S., to spend his vacation.

Miss Helen Rupert, of St. John, returned home by boat this morning after spending her vacation with friends in this city.

Mr. W. B. Wallace, K. C., of St. John, is among the guests at the Queen.

Mr. W. C. H. Grimmer, M. P. P., of Nelson, is here attending the synod meeting.

Hon. John P. Burchill, ex-M. P. P., of Nelson, is among the guests at the Queen.

Mr. Charles F. Randsall's friends will be pleased to learn that his condition continues to steadily improve. Five days have now elapsed since the operation for appendicitis was performed and he is believed to be past the danger point.

Mr. G. O. D. Otty, of Hampton is here attending the synod meeting.

Mr. Henry Graham, collector of customs, St. Stephen, is a guest at the Queen.

Mr. T. C. Burpee, engineer of maintenance on the I. C. R., and Mrs. Burpee are guests at the Queen.

Dr. C. P. Holden, of St. John, is visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. R. W. Hewson, barrister, of Moncton, is among the guests at the Queen.

Mr. F. E. Dennison, of Montreal, is today a guest at the Queen.

Mr. R. H. Winslow, who has been filling a position at Millinocket, Me., has returned home.

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

July 10.—Archie Babbitt of Fredericton spent Sunday with his friend, John Gibson, Jr.

Miss Hazel Winter of Fredericton, spent the latter part of the week with her friend Miss Mary Robinson. Master John Chisholm entertained some of his friends on Saturday afternoon.

A lawn party was given by Master Frank Merritt to his young friends on Monday afternoon, it being his 8th birthday. Tea was served on the lawn. The little folks enjoyed themselves very much.

July 11.—Marysville has the honor of supporting the only milk dealer in New Brunswick who delivers his milk with a horseless carriage. Mr. Libbey has found the business growing to such an extent that he may be seen daily with his delivery wagon without a horse. To strangers the team attracts a great deal of interest.

Mr. Thomas Flanagan, the popular and esteemed engineer of the cotton mill, has removed to Brick Mill, in the house lately occupied by Mr. Albert Smith, having bought the property belonging to the late Ebenezer Stark.

Mrs. Moses Hall is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rowley this week. The baseball match last evening between a Fredericton team and the Marysville nine resulted in a grand victory for Marysville after a very fast game. Bert Dennison umpired satisfactorily to all. The battery for Marysville were Brogan and Denison. For Fredericton Burden and Boyce. The score was 7 to 1.

There was a mass temperance meeting in the United Baptist Church last night addressed by delegates, who are attending Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T.

MILITIA CHANGES.

A militia gazette announces that Lieut. Col. G. Guay, senior paymaster of the Maritime Provinces, is retired on pension.

8th Princess Louise New Brunswick Hussars—Captain H. E. Scoville is to be transferred to the reserve of officers.

To be provisional lieutenants (supernumerary) Geo. Edward Theodore Roberts and Chester Blake Reid Palmer, gentlemen.

Frederick Francis F. Lovegrove, gentleman.

Lieuts. F. Gilman and W. Bell are retired on appointment to the permanent force.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

Chatham World.—Messrs. Thomas A. and Matthew Cox, who have spent some years in South Africa, are en route to the Pacific coast. They landed at Rimouski Friday afternoon, and say that the steamer was full of English farmers bound for North Western Canada. They went to Bay du Vin, this morning, to see their brother, Dr. Cox. (The Messrs. Cox are natives of Margerville.)

CHRISTIE-MACARTHY.

Mr. W. Christie and Miss Nellie MacCarthy will be united in the holy bonds of marriage at St. Mary's Church this evening at seven o'clock. The choir of St. Mary's Church is expected to be in attendance and the wedding will be partly carol. The Rev. Dr. Duffy, rector, will perform the ceremony.

FAREWELL.

A large number of Methodists and other friends of Rev. Dr. Rogers and his family, were at the Star Line wharf this morning to say good-bye to them, and numerous were the expressions of regret at their departure.

The above officers were installed by Miss Jessie Forsythe, superintendent of juvenile work, assisted by J. A. Simpson, P. G. C. T. of Amherst.

A resolution was passed thanking Rev. E. A. Westmorland and Rev. E. A. C. M. Lawson for their work as organizers.

It was decided that St. John be the next place of meeting.
At the session last evening the grand lodge degree was conferred on several local candidates.

The delegates were entertained to ice cream and cake at the York Hotel at the close of the session by Grand Secretary L. R. Hetherington. Last evening a public temperance meeting was held in the George St. Baptist church. The speakers were Rev. E. A. Westmorland, J. V. Jackson and Rev. J. J. Colter.

Successful meetings were also held at Gibson and Marysville. The speakers at Gibson were Miss Forsythe, Rev. Thos. Marshall and Rev. Mr. Bolster, and at Marysville the meeting was addressed by J. A. Simpson, Wm. Burns and Mrs. Jackson.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

Friends of Miss Kitty Edwards, only daughter of Postmaster Edwards are heartily congratulating her on the formal announcement of her engagement to Mr. W. Dawes Gilmour of Montreal, a young gentleman who during his residence in Fredericton, was much appreciated. Miss Edwards is a bright, attractive and popular young lady, and her fiancé, Mr. Gilmour, who is a son of Mr. Daniel Gilmour of Montreal and grandson of the late Senator Gilmour of St. George, is a young gentleman of attractive personality and address.

WOODSTOCK RACES.

In the horse races at Woodstock Tuesday afternoon, Will Be Sure of Chatham, won first place in the 2.20 class, best time 2.16. The 2.22 class went to Queen Inez of Presque Isle, best time, 2.20. Daisy Wilkes and Kremont of this city were in the latter race, the former getting 3rd place in the first two heats and 4th place in the other two. Kremont was respectively 5th, 4th, 6th and 6th.

WEDNESDAY JULY 11th, 1906.

CORSETS FITTED FREE.

Ladies who are particular about their Corsets, (and, what lady is not), but have difficulty in getting styles to suit them, can come to this store to-morrow, and receive the advice of an Eminent Corset Demonstrator.

FREE OF CHARGE.

We have made arrangements with Miss Castle, of New York,—a lady who has had a wide experience in Corset fitting in Metropolitan Cities—to give a series of Instruction and short talks on Corsets, what shapes to wear, and how to wear them properly

MISS CASTLE will be here to-morrow,

THURSDAY MORNING, at 9 o'clock, and will be pleased to meet our friends and Patrons.

A Special FITTING ROOM has been arranged for the exclusive use of our Corset customers.

Though Corsets in general will be the theme of the Demonstrator, she will particularly exemplify the pre-eminent qualities of the famous F. P. Brand, which includes the "Armorside," "Elonga Hip," "Military Form," "Sultana," etc., goods which won the Highest Gold Awards at St. Louis.

We trust the Ladies of Fredericton and Vicinity will avail themselves of this opportunity to learn some new phases of Corset Making and Corset Wearing, for Miss Castle comes highly recommended by eminent houses in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, and Boston.

Every woman is Cordially Invited
