FOR LOVE OR HONOR.

"Sail ho! Boat ahoy, there!"

For a moment the small boat lay right in toe path of the light cast by the brilliantly illuminated stern ports of the frigate.

"'Tis the prisoner, he that escaped," shouted a powerful voice.

"Sentry, give him a shot from your piece!" cried Captain Pearson, himself, springing on the rail and leaning over towards them.

Old Price shook his fist at the frigate in stout defiance. The sharp crack of a musket rang out in the air. The bullet seemed to have struck something forward in the boat. A shudder swept through the little craft, a hoarse, frightful cry quivered through the night, there was a splash, the boat struck something, and that something, whatever it was rasped against her keel as she drove ahead.

"Clear away the second frigate," cried another voice on the frigate.

"Keep all fast!" shouted Pearson, "We have bigger game ahead."

And then he hollowed his hand aod cried out as the Serapis drew rapidly away:

"We'll take care of you, sir, in the morning, when we return!"

A few more musket shots were fired at them from different parts of the ship. One bullet tore through the sail and whispered by the ear of the young lieutenant, but did no harm.

"We are saved again!" cried Elizabeth, sitting up and looking gratefully at her lover.

"But not without a cost," said the young man solemnly.

"What mean you? Are you hurt? Are you wounded?" she cried.

"Price!" called O'Neill softly, though he knew it was useless.

There was no answer.

"Oh, that awful cry!" said Elizabeth, shuddering.

"It was he," said O'Neill, gradely. "He was hit by the first shot and went overboard. Did you not feel him strike the keel?"

"Is there no hope for him?" she queried anxiously. "Could we not put back and seek him?"

"None," replied the lieutenant shortly. "There was death in his voice. It's all over with him. Well, he died in the line of his duty. 'Tis a sailor's cherished hope."

"He helped me—both of us—in time of need. Our way to liberty and happiness," she cried piteously, "seems to be over the bodies of those who love us."

"So it has ever been in the world—a thousand deaths to make one life, a thousand griefs to make one joy," he answered, laying his hand tenderly unon her head, which she had buried in her hands.

"But come what may," she added, looking up resolutely, with all the selfishness of love, "I have you at least, and we are together again."

"Aye, let us pray it may be forever, sweetheart."

They were out of the harbor now, and while the Serapis was stretching along to the northeast to gain an offing, with the Scarborough some distance ahead of her and to leeward, the lighter draft of the small boat permitted O'Neill to head her directfor the oncoming American ships, whose lights and the ships themselves were now plainly visible in the moonlight.

CHAPTER XVII.

Different Standards.

The battle which will take place tonight yonder between those ships decides my fate. I hope to God I may arrive in time to take my part in it! The Richard is fearfully short of officers at best; Landals, who has the Alliance, is crasy and a coward; Cottineau in the Pallas is an upknown quantity, and the rest have fled. Jones has only Richard Dale and a lot of midshipmen with him upon whom he can absolutely depend, and there are over two hundred prisoners in the hold. He needs me. If this breeze holds out I think we may intercept the Richard before the battle is joined. Pray, dearest, as never before, for the success of our arms! It means life, and you, for me."

"It means life for me as well," she said, nestling against him and nerving herself up to the inevitable confession. How he would take it she did not know, or rather she would not permit herself to say. She was conscious only of an impelling necessity to tell him the whole story, though she had deliberately waited she believed he could do nothing.

"Ah, yes, 'tis sweet of you to say so, but not the same. Me they will hang, but not you," he answered fondly.

"Yes, they will," she replied. "I—I—I must confess it to you before we go further. It weighs upon me. I also am guilty."

"Guilty! You! Of what, pray? Of loving me too much?" he queried, laughing in pure lightness of heart.

"No, not that," she answered, "but that—that order—your reprieve. It was—the admiral did not sign it," she added desperately.

The secret was out.

"And who did it then?" he asked, still unsuspicious of her meaning.

"I did it myself," she answered, with anerted face.

"It is not possible!" he exclaimed, withdrawing from her a little in his astonishment.

"'Twas for you—for you I did it. Reproach me not—nay, you shall she cried, on fire to defend herself and her love, now the truth was told. "Captain Jones said six hours' delay and you were saved. There was no other way. I begged, implored, entreated the admiral. He left me—went away. I saw the man fixing that block—the rope—I ran to him to make one more appeal. He was not there. On his desk was an order giving me permission to see you, which he had intended to give me and had refused at the last moment and left unsigned. His watch was there and his seal. I added the rest and signed and sealed it myself. Do not shrink from me!" she pleaded, with changed mood again. "Your anger—your disapproval—kills me. Is there no excuse that you can find for me?" Her appeal was so tender, her affection so apparent, she was her own justification.

"No man would have done it," he said irresolutely, wavering.

"But every woman would have done it," she replied promptly, pressing her advantage. "Why are you so silent? Your precious oonor is safe, and as for mine"—

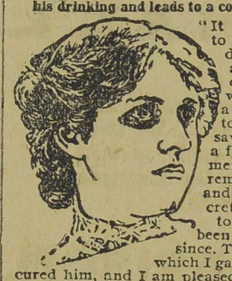
Cured her Father's Drunkenness by a Simple Remedy.

Saves her father from a drunkard's grave. Free sample of Samaria Tasteless Prescription checks his drinking and leads to a complete cure.



"It seemed hopeless to keep father from drinking, and we all felt the disgrace. When things were at their worst a friend advised me to try Samaria. I saw that you offered a free sample treatment and that the remedy was tasteless and could be given secretly. I determined to try it, and, have been glad every day since. The full treatment, which I gave him in his tea, cured him, and I am pleased to say he never touches whiskey now. How glad I am that I wrote you and how happy we all are together Father says that he could never have stopped drinking of his own accord."

KIDNEY DISEASE AND ITS DANGERS CAN BE QUICKLY CURED BY DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Kidney disease comes on quietly, it may have been in the system for a long time before you suspected the real cause of your trouble. There may have been backaches, swelling of the feet and ankles, disturbances of the urinary organs, such as, brick dust deposit in urine, higly colored, scanty or cloudy urine, bladder pains, frequent urination, stone in bladder, etc.

Perhaps you did not know that these were symptoms of kidney disease, so the trouble kept growing worse, until Neuralgia, Sciatica, Rheumatism, Diabetes, Dropsy, and worst of all, Bright's Disease have taken hold of your system.

Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken at the first sign of anything wrong. There is no other safe way, (plasters and liniments are useless), as the trouble must be eradicated from the system.

Doan's Kidney Pills go to the seat of the trouble, strengthen the kidneys, and help them to filter the blood properly and flush off all the impurities which cause kidney trouble. Mr. Thomas Mayhew, Smith's Falls, Ont., writes: "For over four months I was troubled with my kidneys, and my back got so lame I felt miserable all over. After taking five boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I was as well as ever."

Price 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

Now Knows That

CONSTIPATION Can Be Cured

"Fruit-a-tives" also took away that severe pain in the kidneys.

No cathartic, purgative, pill, powder or salt will cure Constipation. "Fruit-a-tives" will. Cathartics and purgatives do not act on the liver. They irritate the lining of the bowels. This irritation does make the bowels move, but it so tires and inflames the muscles that they won't act again until irritated by another dose of purgative.

Bile from the liver is the only thing that makes the bowels move naturally. "Fruit-a-tives" don't act on the bowels at all. They tone up and invigorate the liver—enable the liver to send more bile into the bowels—and make the liver so strong that it will do this regularly every day. And bile is nature's only purgative.

Testimonial of A. McBain, Ottawa, Ontario.

Chronic Constipation and Kidney disease Cured by "Fruit-a-tives."

To Fruit-a-tives Limited, Bank St., Ottawa, Ont.

OTTAWA, Aug. 14th., 1905.

"I was a great sufferer for years with what seemed to be incurable constipation, and I tried every known remedy and several physicians but all the pills and medicine I took seemed to do me harm. I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I can truthfully say they have absolutely cured me. I was also affected with a nasty pain over my kidneys while the constipation lasted and "Fruit-a-tives" have entirely cured that pain also. My stomach also was in bad shape, my digestion was poor, with sour eructations and belching wind and "Fruit-a-tives" cured my stomach, for now I have no trouble in that way. I cannot say too much in favor of "Fruit-a-tives" and I wish to recommend them to any one suffering with constipation and stomach trouble, and also to any one with constant pains over the back or kidneys."

(Sgd) A. McBAIN, 76 Victoria St, Ottawa.

This is what "Fruit-a-tives" are doing all the time. Not a day passes in which someone, who has tried pills and tablets and salts in vain, does not have the same experience with "Fruit-a-tives" that Mr. McBain had.

"Fruit-a-tives" are a concentrated combination of fruit juices in tablet form. They contain no calomel, cascara, senna, jalap. They are nature's laxative and liver tonic. They cure Constipation in the only way that it can be cured—by making the liver healthy and causing the bowels to receive their daily supply of bile.

Druggists everywhere have "Fruit-a-tives." If, for any reason, your druggist has none, send direct to the company. 50c. a box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Mailed postpaid on receipt of price.

CONTEST IN QUEBEC.

Liberals Fighting for Municipal Control.

Quebec, Jan. 12.—The municipal contest in Quebec is assuming a very interesting aspect, and from a political standpoint it is a fight between two branches of the Liberal party, which split over a year ago on a question of local accendancy. Senator Choquette declared himself several weeks ago as a candidate for the Mayoralty, and to-day Mr. L. A. Taschereau, K. C., M. P. P. of the legal firm of Fitzpatrick, Taschereau, Roy, Cannon & Parent, who was recently asked to present in a long letter published in The Press. This letter is looked upon as an able manifesto and direct challenge to Senator Choquette and narrows the competition between these two men. In Quebec the Aldermen who compose the new Council elect the Mayor from among themselves, consequently the successful candidate will depend upon the number of adherents returned to support him. In the meantime Hon. S. N. Parent is no longer Mayor of Quebec. His resignation, which has been before the Council since September last, was accepted last night, and this morning, after having removed all his private papers, he took leave of the City Hall officials.

A rumor was current that Senator Choquette has entered into a coalition with the Quebec Conservative chief, Senator Landry, one of the proprietors and editors of L'Evenement, to assist him in the municipal contest. Senator Choquette emphatically denies that he had effected a coalition with Senator Landry. He understood that L'Evenement, which was fighting the same crowd as himself, would support his candidature, he would support his candidature, but there was absolutely no understanding between them.

VANCOUVER'S ROBIN HOOD.

He is Rather an Odd Knight of the Road.

Vancouver, Jan. 12.—The hold-up man is becoming quite a modern Robin Hood. Half a dozen people have been his victims since the new year opened. Mr. J. Muir was relieved of his watch and chain on Mount Pleasant one night. The next night the robber showed that he is one of those courtly knights of the road who take from the rich to give to the poor. E. A. Eastwood was stopped in about the same place as Mr. Muir by a masked man with a revolver, who demanded that he give up his cash. Eastwood told the highwayman that he had nothing to "pony-up," as his sole possessions were five cents in cash and two bottles of coal oil, and he could not afford to lose those. The robber lowered his gun, said he had no wish to harm a poor man, but rather desired to help him, and as an earnest of good intentions pressed Eastwood to accept the magnificent sum of ten cents. Robin Hood then disappeared in the brush.

THE SBOURCE OF NEURALGIA

It runs hand in hand with poor blood and weak nerves. Health runs down, nerves get irritable, neuralgic torture follows. For a moment applications may relieve—but to thoroughly cure, the system must be strengthened with nutritious blood.

What can equal Ferrozone? It increases the appetite, forms abundant rich, life-giving blood, supplies nutriment and building material for worn-out nerves. Ferrozone completely cures neuralgia. Every root and branch of the disease is killed. Absolute success in every case. Stop suffering—fifty cents buys Ferrozone. Fifty chocolate coated tablets in a box at any drug store.

Sunlight Soap is better than other soaps, but is best when used in the Sunlight way. Buy Sunlight Soap and follow directions.

ONLY A Common Cold

BUT IT BECOMES A SERIOUS MATTER IF NEGLECTED. PNEUMONIA, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CATARRH or CONSUMPTION IS THE RESULT.

Get rid of it at once by taking

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

Obstinate coughs yield to its grateful soothing action, and in the racking, persistent cough, often present in Consumptive cases, it gives prompt and sure relief. In Asthma and Bronchitis it is a successful remedy, rendering breathing easy and natural, enabling the sufferer to enjoy refreshing sleep, and often effecting a permanent cure.

We do not claim that it will cure Consumption in the advanced stages, but if taken in time it will prevent it reaching that stage, and will give the greatest relief to the poor sufferer from this terrible malady.

Be careful when purchasing to see that you get the genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark.

Mr. Wm. O. Jenkins, Spring Lake, Alta., writes: "I had a very bad cold settled on my lungs. I bought two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup but it only required one to cure me. I have never met with any other medicine as good."

Price 25 cts., at all dealers.

Because you have always used one flour for pastry, and another for bread, is no reason why you should not use "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD" for both, and have better pastry and better bread.
