DAILY HERALD.

MONDAY, MARCH 26, 1906.

THE LATE MR. PAYNE.

General regret will be felt at the death of Mr. Robert A. Payne, the well known journalist, who passed away quite suddenly Saturday evening at his home in Lincoln.

Mr. Payne, who was a native of this city, was connected with New Brunswick journalism for over thirty years, twenty-seven of which he was connected with the St. John Sun, as news editor and parliamentary correspondent. Few men connected with the press of this province have given more faithful service, and none were better or more favorably known to the public.

Mr. Payne was a gentleman of kindly temperament genial manner, and wide observation and experience, and readily made friends who greatly enjoyed his companionship. He was fair and honorable, loved his profession in which he greatly excelled, and his death will be deeply lamented especially among his friends of the press.

His death was in a measure heroic. His last work was in assisting Dr. Hannay to report the proceedings of the recent legislative session, and he remained at his post when so ill that most other men under similar conditions, would have given up and taken to their bed. He bore his sufferings without murmuring, and literally died in harness.

To the bereaved widow, and family the Herald tenders its tenderest sympathy.

A WORTHY OBJECT.

The Local Improvement Association, which has done splendid work in the past, with the limited financial means at its disposal, has quite an extensive programme for the coming summer, and should have the support of every man, woman and child who takes a pride in seeing Fredericton made more beautiful and attractive. The women of Fredericton have become deeply interested in the association's work, and on Friday and Saturday of this week will make a complete canvas of the city for funds.

No doubt there will be a general and generous response to this appeal. Large individual subscriptions will be welcomed as well as the smallest contributions, and everybody who can afford to aid the project, should be ready with the cash when the canvassers call.

THE PRINCE'S VISIT.

Prince Arthur of Connaught, a nephew of King Edward, is expected to reach Vancouver on Wednesday, and will spend a couple of days in New Brunswick, reaching St. John May 1st. The arrangements for his reception are in the hands of Governor Snowball and it is not known yet whether H. R. H. will visit Fredericton. The last prince who came to New Brunswick, H. R. H. of Battenberg, enjoyed his visit to Fredericton immensely, so he said, and it will be a pity if Prince Arthur is not given the opportunity to see the capital of the province.

The Prince is travelling homeward from Japan, where he went to hand to the Mikado decorations given that monarch by King Edward.

Kingston Whig; The Gaetz family are troubled with the parliamentary bee in their bonnets. Rev. L. Gaetz ran for a seat in Alberta and was defeated. Rev. Joseph Gaetz, a brother, contested Annapolis, as a temperance and Conservative candidate, and went under. Preachers should keep out of politics. If "called" to the ministry they should stay in it.

An Ottawa despatch says that Senator McGregor of New Glasgow may be appointed governor of Nova Scotia.

UNIVERSITY OF N. B.

Intercollegiate Debate Tonight-Saturday Night's Discussion—An Important Bill.

College life was at its zenith this morning at the U. N. B. Loud and sonorous song, yells of Acadia and U. N. B. resounded throughout the spacious old building with mirth and joviality.

The long expected debate of the rather unpopular subject, "Whether political union with the United States would be more beneficial to Canada than her present conditions under Great Britain, will be determined tonight in the Opera House, beginning at 8 o'clock sharp. The selected debaters are:

U. N. B.
ACADIA
A. B. Balcom, cap. H. P. Dole, cap. Fred Porter W. A. Orchard Wm. Shortliffe P. H. Hayward
The Acadia team is recognized as the ablest and keenest debating trio in the Maritime Provinces, and has won all of their inter-collegiate debates of the past four years.

Mr. J. Douglas Hazen, M. P. P., will preside as chairman, and the following were chosen to act as judges:

Mr. Justice Gregory of this city; Mr. Justice Landry of Dorchester, and Dr. G. U. Hay of St. John.

The Mock Parliament of Saturday evening was beyond doubt one of the best sessions ever witnessed at the University, both in regard to preliminary procedure and debating ability. Hon. Waldo Machum of the government party, introduced a bill in reference to boarding house system, which was very original, and skillfully drawn up. The bill in full was as follows:

BILL TO IMPROVE BOARDING HOUSE SYSTEM OF UNIVERSITY TOWNS.

Section 1. A landlady shall be in an indescribable something incapable of description but equal to anything.

Section 2. The landlady shall not own the boarders, neither shall the boarders own the servant girls and waiters.

Section 3. The waste basket shall be all that space between the floor and ceiling not otherwise occupied.

Section 4. Rooms not lying in the line which passes throughout the stove pipe must be heated by that yet undiscovered process where the inflammable incombustible fuel wasteth not and where moths creep through with unscorched wing the chattering of teeth shall be a sign for the stoker to coal up.

Section 5. Bill of Fare.

Breakfast. Twenty-two and one half crystals of Malta Vita served with milk at least as blue as that dispensed at Loggies' Douglas dairy. Second course saccharomyces cerevisiae.

Third course doughnuts all hole.

Dinner—First Course—Chicken soup made by chasing a four-year-old rooster through a pan of hot water, turtle liver, beef tongue, boiled moccasins, potatoes fried, boiled or squizzled.

Desert—River water.

Supper—Hash, mash and onion gravy.

Desert—Buttermilk pie.

All meals subjected to exquisite combination with indefinite variations, cream pie never.

Section 6. Not more than five Normalites shall den together—any upon two sex.

Section 7. The parlor shall be stone cold on Sunday night, the hall and stairway shall be no bee-hive. For after meetings, and doorstep parties, a vestibule shall be provided.

Section 8. Each boarding house shall keep three cats which however, shall not under this Act be inspector of dessert.

Section 9. There shall be no such gangs as "Tammany Hall" Kee Temperance Society.

Parsons, Polzer House.

Section 10. Boarders shall on no occasion whatsoever venture within the holy sanctuary of the pantry.

Section 11. A bee line can be made from one boarding house to another but no visitors shall be ushered to a room where the coats and hats are on the bed the books on the floor, and the pillows not to be found.

Section 12. The boarders shall elect a Dean who shall have all control over evening raids and night rumpuses.

Some very good speeches were made on both sides, those most prominent from the government ranks were Squires, Hazen, Clarke, Jewett and W. C. Clarke, while Maxon, Dysart, and Orchard, from the opposition and Liberal side gave good criticisms of the bill in all its particulars. The bill was put to the house by Speaker Sherman, and was carried by a small majority. It will be taken up section by section at the next meeting on Saturday March 31st, J. H. Allingham, the hon. member from East-Muldenborough, occupied the chair when the house was in committee.

GOVERNMENT BUSINESS.

Sub-Committee to Deal with Forestry Plans—Grant to St. John Exhibition—The Princess' Visit.

The provincial government, at a meeting held at St. John on Saturday, appointed Premier Tweedie, Hon. William Pugsley and Hon. W. P. Jones as a sub committee, with Hon. F. J. Sweeney, the surveyor general, to carry out all details in connection with the new forestry act. It is understood that the committee will begin their work at once. A grant of $5,000 has been made by the government to the St. John exhibition next fall, and A. O. Skinner the president of the exhibition association, has received official information to this effect. It is learned that the government has also under consideration grants for the exhibition at Chatham, Sussex, Woodstock and Centreville, and while no announcement has yet been made, it is understood that some assistance will be given.

The arrangements for the entertainment of H. R. H. Prince Arthur of Connaught, who will be the guest of the Dominion on his approaching tour through Canada, has been left in the hands of the lieutenant governor. The prince will be in St. John for part of two days, and it is possible that he will be tendered a civic reception in addition to the presentation of an address.

U. N. B. VS. ACADIA.

Those who take an interest in the present day affairs should not miss the debate between Acadia and the U. N. B., which takes place at the Opera House this evening. The question deals with political union between Canada and the United
