STRAIGHT TALK.

Foresters' Supreme Councillor Declares Foster, Fowler and Other Tory M. P.'s Will Have to Pay Money Back.

"IF ANYBODY TRIES TO ROB THIS ORDER WE SHALL GO AFTER HIM," SAYS MR. STEVENSON.

Montreal, Nov. 3.—A mass meeting of the I. O. F. members was held here on Thursday night. Dr. Oronhyatekha explained that Col. McGillivray, ex-M. P., and supreme secretary, was insane at the time he entered into the transactions with Foster, Fowler, Lefurgey, Bennett and other Tory politicians, which have so shocked the country. The startling speech of the evening was that of Hon. E. G. Stevenson, supreme councillor.

FOWLER WILL BE PROSECUTED.

Hon. E. G. Stevenson, after expressing the pleasure which he felt at being in Montreal, proceeded to discuss the Northwest land deals, and the affairs of the Union Trust Co. One questioner wanted to know about "the $55,000 that was lost in a land deal."

"There was no $55,000 lost," replied Mr. Stevenson. "On the contrary $75,000 profit was made. The $55,000 that he is dreaming of was in the Kamloops Lumber Co., that George W. Fowler, M. P., tried to get for himself from the Union Trust Co., and got caught at it, and we are going to make him pay it back. 'It doesn't matter whether it's Grit or Tory, if anybody tries to rob this order, we shall go after him. It is a shame the way this order has been dragged through the mire for six weeks.'

After all, this investigation we emerge with our $10,000,000 surplus unassailed.

All they found to criticize was the Union Trust Co., and that is what I have come to talk to you about."

THE UNION TRUST CO.

said Mr. Stevenson, was organized in order to better handle the immense and growing surplus of the Order. Dr. Oronhyatekha was here, there and everywhere, and he wanted to feel that when he was absent there was someone who could be trusted to direct the interests of the membership. Five years ago, when Hon. Geo. E. Foster was selected "there could be found not a man, woman or child to utter a word against his honor, integrity or capacity."

Mr. Stevenson instanced the men chosen as directors of the Union Trust Co., Sir John Boyd, Judge McDougall, Hon. G. W. Ross, as showing that there was every desire to get the most reliable citizens that could be found. However, things did not turn out just as they expected—he admitted that mistakes had been made.

MUST BE REFUNDED.

Mr. Stevenson went on to pay very warm tribute to the Supreme Chief Ranger, who, in all his long career, at the head of the Order, after handling many millions of their money, was today in such a financial position that should he die his estate would not total $2,000. Few men with such opportunities could point to so honorable and clean a record. (Applause.)

Mr. Stevenson said that in the dealings of the Union Trust Co., if anything had gone astray, he would never rest until every cent of money and share of stocks misappropriated had been refunded.

"We organized the Union Trust Co.," he continued, "and thought it good. But we are going to sell it out. We have already sold a great deal of the stock, and will sell the rest as opportunity arises. But we will not sell it until we are offered a good price. We know it's a good thing and are not going to sacrifice it."

As to the affairs of the Great West Land Company, he explained that the Union Trust Company received 337½ shares of stock as a bonus. One hundred shares were placed in the name of the supreme chief ranger, and the rest put in the name of the trust company. When the chief went away last fall he gave directions that the one hundred shares were to be transferred to the Trust Company, where it belonged. Wilson, Foster and McGillivray took the one hundred shares and transferred it to themselves, and also the 237½ standing in the name of the Trust Company.

WE HAVE GOT TO MAKE THEM PUT THAT BACK.

and again I pledge my honor we will make them do it."

KAMLOOPS LUMBER DEAL.

Mr. Stevenson then returned to the Kamloops lumber deal, which he characterized as his first introduction to the Canadian game of high finance. He declared that the Trust Company had been swindled out of $55,000, but even at that had paid less for the property than it was worth—and they proposed to recover the balance while they had already made a profit of $75,000 out of it.

Mr. Stevenson also stated that there had been improper dealings in connection with the shares of the Western Land Company, and that he would not rest content until these were all recovered. "I shall not rest content," he declared, "until every man who has got a dollar of our money is made to fork it over."

DENIES THE CHARGE.

Manager of Ottawa Hockey Team Says His Men Played Without Financial Consideration.

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—J. J. Enright, president and manager of the Victoria Hockey Team, says in reference to the suspected professional athletic list given out by Grier-son of Ottawa, that no money or other consideration was ever given to any of the players of his team. Not even the skates were furnished, simply the uniforms and sticks which were the property of the club.

Winston Spencer Churchill, the parliamentary secretary of the Colonial Office will go to the West Indies about Christmas to study the resources of the Islands, especially the prospects of extending cotton growing. The Duke of Marlborough and Sir Alfred Jones, president of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce and others interested in the Islands will accompany him.

PARLIAMENT NOV. 22nd.

Senate Vacancies likely to be filled Before that Date—New I. C. R. Officials.

Ottawa, Nov. 3.—There was a meeting of the cabinet yesterday afternoon, when it was decided to summon parliament on Nov. 22.

It is expected that the speech from the throne will be adopted after a week's discussion, so that there will be about three weeks left before the adjournment for the Christmas holidays to debate the tariff. It is more than likely that an adjournment will be made about December 21st until the 7th or 8th of January. However, the idea of the government is to make this adjournment very much shorter, but the opinion of parliament is always accepted in such matters, and the majority of the members will favor a couple of weeks to let them spend Christmas and New Years with their families.

There are four vacancies in the senate which will be required to be filled before the house meets. Two of these are in Nova Scotia and two in New Brunswick. These vacancies have been standing for some time.

The last of the elections to the House of Commons will take place the day before parliament meets with the exception of Nicolet, if the postmaster general decided to sit for Gaspe instead of Nicolet.

The only difference in the political complexion of the house is that the Conservatives have lost one seat in Ontario and the government has an independent Liberal instead of a straight Liberal in the province of Quebec. Of course the results in St. Ann's and St. Mary's will probably make more changes. For instance, there may be a laborer instead of a Liberal for St. Mary's.

The outlook is for a long session. The tariff commission will by no means monopolize the debates. For instance, there will be a Foster-Fowler-Pope-Lefurgey land deals and the London election.

NEW I. C. R. OFFICIALS.

S. Leonard Shannon, accountant of the department of railways and canals has been appointed controller and treasurer of the government railway with headquarters at Moncton. The position of treasurer and accountant of the Intercolonial will be abolished. The idea of the minister of railways is to make a wider and broader position to meet with the views of the experts, who have been examining into the affairs of the road, and to carry out the new system which is to be inaugurated on the government railways. (Mr. Shannon is a son of the late Hon. S. L. Shannon, M. L. C., of Halifax.)

Mr. W. C. Little, assistant accountant of the department of railways, has been promoted to the position of accountant and Graham Bell will be assistant accountant.
