MADE RECORD TIME.

C. P. R. Overseas Mail Train Crossed Continent in 88 Hours Averaging 35 Miles an Hour.

Quebec, Sept. 22.—(Special).—The unbroken trip by one continuous train. The distance to be covered under the new mail contract, is over 12,000 miles, and three-fourths of the mil-age has been made sharp on time, leaving the Empress of Britain plenty of leeway to land the Oriental mails within the stipulated thirty days.
The Empress carried 130 first class passengers, of whom 17 were from the Orient, 115 second cabin, and 150 third.
The Canadian Pacific officials are naturally jubilant over the easy fulfilment of a fact that some imagined was beyond accomplishment.

PREMATURE AT LEAST.

Ottawa Authorities Know Nothing About Alleged Change in Steamship Route Terminals for the Winter.

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—(Special).—The Department of Trade and Commerce has not yet received any information as to the story about the C. P. R. steamers going to St. John only during the winter months, and the Alcan Turbine steamers to Halifax only.
Before anything of this kind can be done the consent of the minister will be necessary.
The department states today that no change will be made in the contract without first consulting the ministers from the maritime provinces.
At present the department has not been approached one way or the other.
There is, however, a likelihood that

WEDDING BELLS.

At the Cathedral this morning at seven o'clock there was a large and fashionable audience to witness the nuptials of Miss Katherine E. Young, daughter of the late Dr. Robb of the University of New Brunswick, and granddaughter of the late Archdeacon Coster to John Black, Esq., barrister and deputy secretary-treasurer of the municipality of York.

The ceremony was performed by the most reverend, the metropolitan assisted by the sub-dean, Rev. Finlow Alexander.

Miss Helen Botsford, daughter of George Botsford, Esq., clerk of the legislative council, and Mr. George W. Allen, son of the chief justice, acted as bridesmaid and groomsmen. The bride, who wore a dress of white alpaca, trimmed with broad-satin and silver ornaments with a SUNDAY SERVICES.

The Sunday services of the Brunswick street United Baptist church will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. McDonald. At 2.30 the Annual Rally Day exercises will be held in the auditorium. The programme this year promises to be of more than usual interest.

Advent Christian church, St. Mary's—J. Denton, pastor. Preaching services at 3 and 7 p. m. Afternoon subject "The Kingdom of God." Evening subject "The Four Angels holding the Four Winds." The above sermons will be illustrated by a large prophetic chart. All are invited.

Fredericton Methodist Church.—Rev. Sydney J. Bennett of Newfoundland will occupy the pulpit in the morning and Rev. J. C. Berrie of Gibson in the evening.

bonnet also of white, trimmed with orange blossoms, was pronounced charming, and the bridesmaid arrayed in a dress of cream alpaca trimmed with light blue silk with a cup to match, was the cynosure of many eyes.

It is scarcely necessary to remark that the groom had a confident and happy appearance, and the groomsmen, usually shy, a wonderfully assuring and business-like mien.

After breakfast the happy couple drove to the Star Line wharf and embarked for St. John by the David Weston en route to Boston, followed by the best wishes of innumerable friends and admirers.

A SAD DEATH.

Mrs. Taylor, of Lake George, parish of Prince William, 103 years old, left the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Glancy, on Tuesday morning, with a pall and pitcher to get water from a spring, a short distance from the house, but did not return. Her daughter was not much alarmed, supposing her mother had gone to a neighbor's house. It rained the next three days and search was not instituted until Saturday afternoon, when a large party of men were detailed to look for the missing woman. Her body was found Sunday afternoon on the shore of Lake George, a mile and a half from her daughter's house. She had died from exposure to the storm. An inquest was held by Coroner E. D. Estabrooks, and the jury returned a verdict of death from exposure and neglect.

TEA MEETING.

The tea meeting at Upper Nashwaak on Sept. 15th was a success. A large party was present from Marysville, including the lumber king himself. Mr. Gibson has taken a warm interest in the building of this church is subscription being $200. The musical part of the entertainment was admirably conducted by Mrs. William emont, Miss Fanny Richards and Mr. C. H. Hatt of Fredericton, and Mrs. Frost of St. John. The inspiring strains of the bag pipes, played by Mr. Daniel Hossack of Stanley, adorned the grounds during the afternoon. Rev. Mr. Brewer, who y the way, worked live a hero all hroug, delivered his lecture, "Tetrachrymogogon," brief and pointed addresses were given by Messrs. Wil-Bannis, Clark, Johnson and William McBean, and were well received by the audience. Recitations were given by Miss Ealing of St. John, Lieut. Howe of Stanley, and Miss Lena Young of Nashwaak. The proceeds, which are in aid of the new Methodist church at Upper Nashwaak, after paying the expenses, amounted to $170.

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

Sept. 22.—The home of Prof. and Mrs. Chisholm was brightened early yesterday morning by the arrival of a bouncing baby girl.
Mrs. E. Niles Merritt left yesterday for St. John with her sister Mrs. Lawrence to spend a few days.
Mr. "Kid" McCoy, the well known and popular guide, took a crowd of Marysville sports out on a hunting trip last Thursday.

Mrs. Thomas Fowler and little daughter Margaret, spent Friday in town the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Bayard Fisher.

Miss Marion Fisher entertained a few of her young friends Friday afternoon, the occasion being her tenth birthday. The little folks seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

School and college students will be glad to know that McMurray's have a line of golf, football, and other supplies for Fall sports.
