BASE BALL.

THE SIX DELEHANTYS.

Baseball stars fade and are forgotten, but there is one family name that will always live in the memory because it has given no less than six members to the national game. Willie Delehanty is the latest of that famous family to seek fame and advancement from the minor leagues. He is the youngest of the boys, and has followed precedent in his family by signing with the Montgomery club of the southern league.

First and foremost in achievement on the diamond in this great family of ball players was Ed Delehanty, the giant slugger of the Philadelphia and Washington teams. He was accidentally drowned two years ago. "Del" as he was known everywhere, was a great batter of the type that is fast passing. He ranked with Lac and held the batting championship of the league at the time of his death. He was a much bigger man than any of his brothers, and could hit a ball with terrific force. In Chicago one day he got four home runs off Adonis Terry, but still his team was defeated.

The younger brother played with a fast independent team in Ohio last year. He possesses all the earmarks of a hitter who will be in the big leagues in a few years. If there is anything in a name, he should have it. The family resides at Cleveland.

The other Delehanty boys are scattered through the different leagues. Jim has played the outfield for the Boston Nationals for two years.

Frank played in the Southern league last year and joined the New York Americans toward the close of the season. He will be with the Yankees next spring.

Joe was in the Western league last season and Tom was a member of the Buffalo team.

It is reported that John I. Taylor will sell the Boston Americans for $125,000 and that James Collins the manager of the team, will represent a syndicate which will produce this sum if Taylor really means business. Taylor denies that he has had any trouble with his players, but several of the latter say that they will not accept the cuts in salary which they have discovered in the new contracts just sent to them.

HOCKEY.

BAR CANADIAN PLAYERS.

New York, Jan. 4.—The executive committee of the Amateur Hockey League of America, met today and decided to extend the reading of section 9, of the playing rules so as to make it impossible for hockey teams to import players from Canada to take part in games here. The officials of the committee questioned the manager of the Brooklyn hockey team concerning two players, Cummings and Glass, who are said to have been imported from Canada. These men will not be permitted to play in the league games.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The latest hockey report is that New Glasgow will play Jack D. McDonald, the crack cover-point who was reported to have been turned down.

"Chuck" Parr, an Ottawa player, is showing good form for the Ottawa Ramblers.

It is said that Hughie McLachlan, the Montreal Wanderer man, on whom the Winnipeggers were counting, will play with the Ramblers.

President A. B. Donley, of the Manitoba Hockey League, has sent a challenge to the Stanley Cup trustees on behalf of the team winning the championship of the senior series. It is hoped the Stanley cup games may be played as early in the season as possible this year, so as to ensure good ice. It was with that object in view that the western schedule was shortened as much as possible.

The Winnipeg Hockey Club executive has elected the sporting editors of the three local dailies honorary members of the club.

There are now seven teams in the New Brunswick Hockey league circuit, viz., Sackville, Moncton, St. John, St. Stephen, Fredericton and Marysville.

THE RING.

O'BRIEN AND RUHLIN.

Boston, Jan. 3.—"There is no truth in the report that I have signed to meet Gus Ruhlín at the New Tuxedo Club, March 1," said Jack O'Brien in Boston.

"When I was in Philadelphia last Sunday I was asked if I was willing to meet Ruhlín. My reply was that I didn't care whom I met as long as I considered him a worthy opponent."

"This was the only remark I made in regard to meeting the Akron giant. I did not communicate yesterday or at any other time for a match with Gus, and I don't see what reason or what authority anyone has to sign me up."

"I will meet every fighter in the due course of events. I have signed a contract to appear for ten weeks in the theatrical boards with John Jerome of Philadelphia. I am receiving $700 a week and expenses, including wages for my valet and secretary. If Mr. Jerome cares to have me break my engagement before the end of that time I am willing."

"I consider that it would be unwise to stop tripping the light fantastic at this time, as it would mean a lot of money both to myself and my manager, Jeffries, Fitzsimmons, Corbett and all the other fighters, have made money on the stage because of their success in the arena, was rapidly speeding westward."

and I don't see why I shouldn't."

"It's a funny thing, too, that myself and Jeff should have made such a success of defeating Fitzsimmons. It is undoubtedly because of the great regard the public holds for the Australian and the knowledge that a man who knocks him out has to go some."

"Because of my conquest of Fitz I have been packing the Palace Theatre at every performance. Crowds numbering in the hundreds, have nightly been clamoring admission. Speculators, through various contrivances, have managed to get hold of lots of tickets, and Mr. Walgren intends to prosecute them if he is harassed by them any more this week."

"I say all this because I am deeply gratified by the reception that the Boston public has accorded me. Using a popular expression, it is really more than I expected."

"One can see, if my reception in the Hub is any criterion, how absurd it would be for me to abandon my theatrical tour to meet Ruhlín or any other fighter."

"I am in the fight business for a living, and I intend to meet them, all in their proper time. I said in Philadelphia that I would meet Ruhlín one of the first, but that does not mean the very first. I will say that I will give them all a chance and will play no favorites. It is a matter of business with me, and just as soon as I close my season I will think of fighting again."

THE TURF.

YEAR'S REST FOR LOU DILLON.

C. K. G. Billings says that his two great horses, Major Delmare and Lou Dillon, will remain in Cleveland during the time that Mr. Billings is abroad. Major Delmare is to be raced again next season, while Lou Dillon will be turned out for a year's rest, and in the meantime may be bred to H. K. Devereux's great stallion John A. McKerron. Recently the millionaire horseman wrote to several prominent horsemen, asking advice as to whether it would be advisable to breed the champion mare, and the answers have been uniformly in the affirmative. Major Delmare will be prepared for the Cleveland matinees and later will be given a campaign against speed records.

BETTING LEAGALIZED AT TORONTO TRACKS.

Among the judgments delivered by the Court of Appeal on Saturday was that in the case of Rex vs. Hendrie, which raised the question of the right of the Ontario Jockey Club to set apart an enclosure for betting at the Woodbine race track. The criminal code provides that betting on race courses in Canada is legal, but the point was raised as to whether it was equally legal to have a place where betting was carried on.

All the facts in the case were admitted by the club, and every facility afforded the other side for arriving at a decision in the case as speedily and clearly as possible. The magistrate recorded a formal conviction on the facts and sent the case to the Court of Appeal for a decision on the law. The answer handed down on Saturday is adverse to the contentions of the prosecution. The point reserved was whether the club being an incorporated body, such a place as Woodbine came within the provisions of the act under which the complaint was made. The question was answered in the negative, the magistrate's conviction was quashed, Justice MacLennan being the only member of the club who did not hold with the finding. The personal or individual responsibility of the president as president and director was also negatived by that judgment.

GOLF.

ENGLISH PROS. FOR MEXICO.

London, Jan. 5.—"Jack" White, the open golf champion of 1904; Alexander Herd, the open champion of 1902; Andrew Kirkaldy, Roland Jones and "Ben" Nicholas left England for New Mexico in order to participate in the international golf tournament which is to take place at Mexico City commencing Jan. 19.

HAPPY COUPLE SEPARATED AFTER AN HOUR OF WEDDED BLISS.

Montreal, Jan. 6.—There was merriment and excitement in plenty and numerous expressions of jocose commiseration in the West End today, when the news became known that a misfortune of a rather ludicrous kind had befallen a young couple who had in the early hours been joined in the holy bonds of matrimony and were about to start to spend their honeymoon in Toronto.

They were a comely young couple, in good circumstances, he occupying a position of standing in a well known city firm, and she moving in a social circle which confers a certain distinction upon those coming within its range. They had been married at one of the leading churches, and were accompanied to the station by a group of young friends, who conducted themselves as young friends do in such circumstances, entering thoroughly into the spirit of the occasion.

The bridegroom accompanied his friends outside the station enclosure, and, forgetful of the too rapid flight of time, he allowed the train to slip away before he returned.

Then the scene of joy was turned into one of mortification and astonishment. The bride, it seems, had thought that her husband was on the train, and did not miss it until it was rapidly speeding westward."

The bridegroom, nearly frantic, rushed to and fro, and for a while the telegraph wires were busy with messages, and with a vain endeavor to have the train stopped. Finding that the train schedules could not be disarranged, the bridegroom telegraphed to his fair partner, and it was not long before the message reached her. There was no way by which the unfortunate pair who had been so rudely separated could join each other before the morrow. The bride had the consolation of knowing that her husband is safe, but that twelve hours divides her from him in railway time. Their friends hope that the married life which has been begun under such tantalizing and embarrassing conditions may prove long and cloudless.

SELL YOUR COLD FOR $1.

You surely won't stop at a dollar bill to cure that horrid, sniffeling cold? Go to any druggist and get "Catarrhoxone," and your cold will be a thing of the past. There is almost witchery in the swift way Catarrhoxone kills colds. But when you consider the penetrating, healing and antiseptic qualities of Catarrhoxone, perhaps it's not so wonderful. Certainly there is no remedy half so prompt for colds and catarrh as Catarrhoxone. Refuse a substitute and insist on having "Catarrhoxone."

THE COMPTON ELECTION.

Majority of Mr. Hunt, Liberal. Exceeds 500.

Sherbrooke, Que., Jan. 6.—The splendid victory won by Mr. A. B. Hunt Thursday is looked upon as the end of the Pope rule and a serious blow to the Conservative party in Compton County. The most sanguine of Mr. Hunt's friends did not think that he would roll up such a majority. They were looking for between three and four hundred. The latest returns this morning from the central committee room of the Liberal party in Cookshire gives a majority for Mr. Hunt of 529, with two polls to hear from. The Conservatives admit that Mr. Hunt has a majority of 470 with two polls to hear from. The county is of such large extent that it will be a day or two before the corrected figures are available, but the first mentioned figures are looked upon as being pretty correct.

Mr. Pope made considerable of a gain around Cookshire, but he lost heavily out through the western section and also among the Highlanders.

In St. Romain Mr. Hunt had a majority over that of the last election of 58, and he also made a big gain around Emberton. Both sides worked hard, and every available voter was brought out. The Conservatives as usual lay the blame of their defeat to the amount of money that was spent by the Liberals.

POLITICAL HISTORY OF THE COUNTY.

The history of the County of Compton since confederation is as follows:

1906—R. H. Pope, Con., 2,438; G. B. Cleveland, (Lib.), 2,190. Conservative majority 248.
1896—R. H. Pope (Con.) 1,948; F. F. Willard, (Patron) 1,485. Conservative majority, 463.
1891—R. H. Pope (Con.), over S. P. Leet (Lib.), majority, 1,066.
1889 (bye-election)—Mr. Rufus H. Pope (Con.), returned.
1887—Hon. J. H. Pope (Con.), majority, 824.
1882—Hon. J. H. Pope (Con.), majority, 789.
1878—Hon. J. H. Pope (Con.), majority, 268.
1874—Hon. J. H. Pope (Con.), majority, 852.
1872—Hon. J. H. Pope (Con.), acclamation.
1867—Hon. J. H. Pope (Con.), acclamation.

After the officers had been installed refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening was spent, there being a good attendance.

Tomorrow night is to be the big night at our rink when the Crescents are to meet the famous St. Stephen team in a game of hockey, which promises to be very fast. Although the St. Stephens have not yet played this season they have put in a good practice. It is said they are putting up great hockey, and those who saw them play two years ago will remember the excellent game. The crowd to-morrow night should be a large one. Marysville people should turn out in large numbers and thus encourage our boys and keep up the interest.

The members of the Marysville club have a subscription paper in circulation and every citizen of the town should sign it, as they do in other places where hockey is played—our boys can play excellent hockey but a club of that kind needs money to keep things in running order and to have a little cash on hand is very encouraging. Therefore support the boys by your attendance and lend a helping hand.

The attention of your correspondent has been called several times to the inconvenience of so many dogs that run at large in Marysville and such dogs, ugly, cross, offensive, homely and in many cases dangerous. Only a few days ago a young lady was stopped on the road by some of these pets and besides being almost scared to death, her clothing was badly torn and it is said her arm was badly bitten. A dog is all right but like children they should be made to keep their place. Why not put a tax on all dogs? If a dog is not worth a dollar or two a year to its owner it is not worth keeping and as Marysville has a Mayor and board of Aldermen who not increase the revenue by putting on a tax as other towns do. If such was the case there would be fewer dogs and the few there would be good ones, as nobody will pay taxes on a cur, of which Marysville has many.

At the regular meeting of Pickard Lodge L. O. L. No. 40 held last Saturday night the following officers were elected and duly installed by Richard Staples, P. M. who is one of the oldest Orangemen in York county being over fifty years a member of the order.
