LOST A HAND.

Albert Russell, employed by the Scott Lumber Company operating in Blissville, had his hand mutilated by coming in contact with a circular saw yesterday. Dr. Murray of Fredericton Junction amputated his hand at the wrist last evening.

RESIGNED HIS POSITION.

Mr. Jesse W. Tabor has resigned his position as vice president of the J. C. Risteen & Company, Limited, and is no longer connected with the concern. Mr. Tabor is at present enjoying a visit to Boston, but will return to Fredericton in a few days.

BANK CLERK TRANSFERRED.

Mr. Keith Ewan, teller of the Bank of Nova Scotia, has been notified to hold himself in readiness for transfer. He does not know yet just where the bank will send him. His place is to be taken by Mr. A. F. Mills, of the St. John agency.

LAI'D TO REST.

The remains of the late Mr. David Fisher arrived from Fairville last evening and were taken to his former home at New Maryland. The funeral took place this afternoon at three o'clock and had a very large attendance. Rev. Mr. Forster of this city, was the officiating clergyman.

CANOEES FOR THE WEST.

Messrs. R. Chestnut & Sons today forwarded to Mr. Charles Tisdale, their agent at Vancouver, B. C., a cargo of canvas canoees, sixteen in all. A few days ago they made a shipment to Winnipeg, and have orders to fill at Calgary and Edmonton, in the province of Alberta. The canoe factory is now running full blast, and sixteen men are steadily employed.

LOOKING FOR RECRUITS.

Sergeant Hornbrook of the Royal Canadian Regiment, Halifax, is looking for a few days and will be pleased to receive applications for enlistment in the corps. He is now making a tour of the province in search of recruits, and is meeting with fair success. The pay in the R. C. R. is now fifty cents per day for the first year, with board and clothes. An increase of ten cents per day is allowed the second year.

CIVIC POLITICS.

Matters are rather quiet in civic political circles at the present time, but there promises to be quite a boom in the near future. Ald. Stockford is conducting a vigorous canvass for the office of Mayor, and claims to be receiving promises of generous support. Ex-ald. Walker is being urged to offer for St. Ann's ward, but has not yet given a decisive answer. Some of the friends of Mr. J. F. VanBuskirk are urging him to run for Mayor, but he says he has no time to bother with civic politics.

THE LEGISLATIVE OPENING.

The legislative buildings are being put in shape for the opening of the legislature on Thursday next. A force of women have been at work for some days scrubbing the committee rooms and corridors, and the chairs and desks of the members are being overhauled by an upholsterer. The 71st regiment will furnish the guard of honor for the opening, and it will be commanded by Capt. Grey. The salute will be fired by a detachment from the Woodstock Field Battery. The Lieutenant Governor will hold the usual state dinner at Government House on Thursday evening.

POLICE COURT.

At the police court this morning it was announced that ten of the fifteen dog cases had been settled by the parties paying the tax and fifty cents additional for costs. One man was fined $2 for neglecting to take out a license. Another case against an agricultural implement concern is being contested. It is admitted that a dog is harbored about the place, but it is claimed that he does not belong to any member of the concern. This case was stood over until next Tuesday. Two other cases were also stood over.

A colored man was fined $3 for roosting on the back of a seat at the opera house, but the penalty was allowed to stand.

DIED IN NEW YORK.

Mrs. F. P. Jones, Daughter of Mr. G. H. Winter, Succumbs to Pneumonia.

Mr. H. G. Winter, of the customs' department, received a telegram yesterday conveying the sad news of the death at New York, of his eldest daughter, Mrs. May Jones, wife of Mr. Francis P. Jones, of that place. Pneumonia was the cause of death, and it occurred after about a week's illness.

The deceased lady was twenty-nine years of age, and had been a resident of New York for several years. Besides her husband and parents, she is survived by five brothers, George, of the Northwest Mounted Police, Arthur and Lee in the west, Alfred and Frank of this city, and one sister, Miss Hazel Winter, at home.

The remains will arrive here this evening or at noon tomorrow, and the funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon from Mr. Winter's residence, Charlotte street.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

Mr. T. Lynch Speaks of Lumbering Conditions.

Mr. T. Lynch, one of the most prominent lumbermen of the Miramichi, has lately refitted his large sawmill at Newcastle and has now one of the finest mills on the North Shore. He has installed an up-to-date steam plant consisting of five shell boilers with patent furnace attachments. He has also had a fire proof roof placed on the mill and the walls of the mill sheathed with iron, thus making the entire mill fire proof.

Mr. Lynch says that lumbering conditions have been exceptionally good on the Miramichi this year and that the cut will about average that of other years, but if the soft weather continues it is possible that some lumber may be left in the yards, but this is hardly likely.

Mr. Lynch also said that the prospects for stream driving on the head waters of the Miramichi are much better now than this time last year.

MILL CLOSED UP.

Irvin Anderson's Logs Seized on a Writ of Attachment.

A lath mill which Mr. Irvin Anderson started at Blissville, Sunbury county, a short time ago, has been closed up by Messrs. Murray & Gregory, Limited, and the machinery on which they held a bill of sale, is being removed to St. John. Messrs. Ernest Fowler and others, who had been working in the woods getting out logs for Anderson, are proceeding against him under the Woodman's Lien Act, to recover the wages due them. They have placed the matter in the hands of Slipp & Hanson, barristers of this city, and yesterday Sheriff Holden, armed with a writ of attachment, visited the mill and levied on seven hundred logs. The sheriff was a little surprised when he arrived there to find the mill closed, and the machinery being moved away, but he was not long in making the levy.

SERIOUSLY ILL.

Postmaster Hilyard's Condition Causing Some Anxiety.

The friends of Postmaster Hilyard who have been ill at his residence since Sunday last, will regret to learn that his condition has become quite serious. He is suffering from an abdominal trouble, which it is feared may be appendicitis. He passed a very restless night and his condition today is less favorable. Drs. Bridges and Crockett have been in consultation upon the case and fear that an operation will be necessary to save the patient's life.

LATER—Mr. Hilyard was removed to the Victoria hospital in the ambulance this afternoon and operated upon for appendicitis.

STAR COURSE ATTRACTION.

Edward P. Elliott in David Harum, February 13.

The next attraction in the Star course will probably be the most attractive of the entire series. It will be the wonderful character actor, in David Harum, Mr. Elliott interprets or delineates the story of the play. It is not read or recited, but acted out. Literally it means interpretation, but Mr. Elliott's subtle work lifts it far above that much used impersonation. The seat plan will be open next Friday morning, the 9th inst, and there should be a very hearty demand for positions.—d.

THE MANSE PROPOSITION.

The erection of a new manse in connection with St. Paul's church was informally discussed at a joint meeting Wednesday evening of the trustees and representatives of the Ladies' Aid Society and the opinion was practically unanimous that something must be done very soon towards the better housing of the pastor. It was generally agreed also that it would be poor policy to put any more money into the old manse, and that a new building either on the present site or a new one was desirable. A committee of the trustees is to make enquiries as to the possibility of securing an enlargement of the present site and to look at others said to be available, and this committee will report at a meeting of the board next week. A congregational meeting will probably be called later to consider the whole matter.
