A TERRIBLE DISASTER.

Building Collapsed, Several Workmen Killed, Others Badly Mangled and Some Missing.

South Framingham, Mass., July 24.
(Special)—The work of exhuming the bodies of the victims of the collapsed building went on unceasingly throughout the night but this morning brought no increase to the list of the known dead.

At dawn there were nine bodies at the morgue and one other victim could be seen in the ruins. Eight of the injured were at the hospital, two others were at their homes, while four were missing, making a total of 24 who were about the building when the support gave way.

South Framingham, Mass., July 24.
—At least eight, and perhaps twice that number of masons, plumbers and Italian laborers were crushed to death yesterday in the sudden collapse of a building on the main street which was being rushed to completion, while ten others were dragged or dug out of the mass of broken building material, cut, bruised or mangled for life. At a late hour last night there were ten still missing, and a large force of men were at work on the ruins.

It was in the middle of the afternoon while the building fairly hummed with busy workmen, that two loud cracks were heard which were immediately followed by the fall of the iron, brick and mortar as they tumbled in one great mass on the basement. The building is situated in the very center of the business section of the village and hundreds of passers by rushed from the flying debris only to return when they heard the cries of the injured. An alarm of fire was rung in and word was sent to the camp ground where the ninth regiment of infantry of the State militia was on its annual tour of duty.

The rescue of those who showed any trace of life was begun at once and soon half a dozen bruised and mortal covered beings were dragged out from a tangle of iron beams and broken girders. In some cases only a hand was seen and it took time to unearth the rest of the body.

The crowd was greatly excited and it was with difficulty a space was cleared by the small body of police.
The arrival of the soldiers half an hour later, however, materially assisted in the work of rescue.

As fast as the injured men were taken out they were sent to the hospital, while the dead were taken to a temporary morgue.

The building was a three story structure in process of erection at the corner of Concord and Kendall streets. It had a frontage of 150 feet on Concord street and was 75 feet deep. The construction materials were brick, steel and cement, the front being of a light colored brick and the sides and rear of cement, with interior beams and braces of steel.

When the accident occurred there were between 35 and 40 men at work in the building. Two or three very loud explosions or cracks were heard in rapid succession and then the north side wall and about half the front wall collapsed and crashed through to the basement.

CIRCUS TRAIN MISHAPS

Barnum & Bailey's Big Show Had Bad Luck on Leaving Halifax---Two Trains Derailed and Track Badly Broken Up.

Halifax, July 24.—(Special)—The Barnum and Bailey circus trains, which left here early this morning, met with a serious mishap.

Two cars of the first train with the cooking section left the rails when near the Florence Hotel, owing to a broken frog, and the track was torn up badly but no one was hurt.

An auxiliary train was sent out from the city and when it reached Birch Cove another accident occurred, one of the trucks going off the rails. It had to be jacked back, and that took time.

The passengers for Truro and intermediate points, who had been in the city seeing the circus and had left for home on the late train, were stalled at Rockingham until 2.30 a. m.

The amount of work entailed in repairing the damage delayed the circus train until about daylight, and the last of the three trains passed Bedford about 6 o'clock bound east, the other trains being delayed until the circus reached Windsor Junction.

Up to noon the auxiliary train was at the scene of the damaged track, making good the damage.

The circus was at New Glasgow today; it will be at Amherst tomorrow, at Chatham Thursday, Fredericton Friday, Woodstock Saturday, and thence goes to Sherbrooke, Que.

MINISTERS' VACATION.

Members of Ottawa Cabinet Scattering to Their Various Provinces for Relief From Grinding Official Duties.

Ottawa, July 24.—(Special)—The cabinet expects to get through with its work tomorrow, and the ministers will then be able to take a holiday. Some of them have already gone.

Sir Frederick Borden, Mr. Fisher, Mr. Hyman and Mr. Patterson have already left.

The minister of militia is in Nova Scotia. Mr. Fisher is in Quebec.
Mr. Hyman in London and Mr. Patterson in Brantford.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier expects to leave about the end of the present week for Arthabaskville.

Mr. Emmerson will take a trip over the Intercolonial.
Mr. Lemieux is going to the Lower St. Lawrence, Mr. Oliphant to England.
Mr. Fielding to Nova Scotia and Mr.
Aylesworth and Mr. Scott will hold out at Ottawa.

Sir Richard Cartwright will spend his holidays between Kingston and Ottawa.

(This does not agree with a press despatch of yesterday that Laurier and his cabinet would sail from Quebec today for a trip to Newfoundland ostensibly to discuss the addition of that colony to the confederation.)

KING'S VISIT TO CANADA.

London, July 24.—(Special)—Discussing the King's decision the Outlook says:

The difficulties in the way of a visit to Canada have been exaggerated. For the first time the mother country had the power to take a step of real importance in the development of Imperial unity. The other colonies would have been satisfied to be represented by Canada accepting such a visit of the crown as national recognition. The issues involved are so vast that nothing should stand in the way but reasons weightier than those given in the Edin. despatch.

The Spectator hopes that at a future date His Majesty will be able to visit a country of pre-eminent loyalty, and which by actual achievement and splendor of destiny must be regarded as first among the allied nations of the empire.

Recognizing the necessity of the presence of the King at home now, The Statist urges a change in his duties, giving him more freedom in the future.

AFTER MANY YEARS

Dr. Pugsley Realizes Handsomely on His Western Investments.

Montreal, July 24.—The Montreal Gazette publishes the following:

"The Canadian Northern Railway, having outbid the Canadian Pacific has secured the Qu'Appelle, Long Lake and Saskatchewan Railway for about $500,000, the purchasers, of course, taking care of the bonded indebtedness of the road, which runs from Regina to Prince Albert, a distance of 249 miles, and which for years past has been known as the Prince Albert branch of the Canadian Pacific.

"Hon. Wm. Pugsley, attorney general of New Brunswick, was the early promoter of the Qu'Appelle, Long Lake and Saskatchewan road and Messrs. Osler, Hammond and others gentlemen were associated in the project of the line that has now passed under the control of McKenzie & Mann and has always been designated in railway parlance as Pugsley's road.

"The road that built the Qu'Appel-Long Lake and Saskatchewan was incorporated as far back as 1883 and the railway was completed in 1890, the Canadian Pacific having had a traffic arrangement ever since.

"To ensure the construction of this piece of road, the Ottawa government of the day gave a land grant of 500-000 acres, but of course, when the C. P. R. took over the road the land remained the property of the promoters. As a matter of fact, land at that remote period was nothing more or less than a white elephant in the hands of any man or company but Mr. Pugsley and his associates held on and today it is said that the syndicate formed by Mr. David Russell has taken over these 500,000 acres for about $4,000,000.

The registered directors of the Qu' Appelle, Long Lake and Saskatchewan Railroad are:

Mr. H. C. Hammond, president.
Hon. Wm. Pugsley, vice president.
Messrs. E. B. Osler, R. A. Smith, S. B. Sykes, F. G. Osler, G. T. Chris-holm and C. S. MacInnes. The offices of the company are at 18 King Street, West Toronto, and the Dominion Bank Building, Winnipeg."

A BRAVE RESCUE.

Thirteen Year Old Boy Saved Minister and His Wife From Drowning.

Brockville, Ont., July 24.—A darling rescue from drowning was effected at Hillcrest, a summer resort four miles above here, Saturday afternoon. Rev. Hugh Pedley and Mrs.
Pedley of Montreal, who are camping near by, were in a canoe when swells from a passing steamer swamped their craft and threw the occupants into the river, the water at this point being 100 feet deep.

Without waiting to divest himself of clothing, Master Charles Fleming aged thirteen, son of S. H. Fleming of Ottawa, jumped into the river and swimming to the unfortunate couple, succeeded in placing Pedley on top of the canoe. Mrs. Pedley was going down a second time when the lad dove, and bringing her to the surface held on until assistance arrived and the couple were safely conveyed to shore.

CHINESE VENGEANCE.

Notorious Bandits Seized and Stripped into a Thousand Pieces.

Vancouver, B. C., July 24.—(Special)—At Wucha, China, just before the Empress of India left the Orient, the authorities having found it impossible to arrest them by means of troops, enticed a band of notorious robbers, seventeen in number to the city by the offer of a free pardon.
When they entered the Yamen of Taofai the bandits were immediately seized, disarmed and stripped into a thousand pieces.

LADIES' NIGHT.

Thursday evening will be ladies' night at the Bicycle and Boating Club house.

Mrs. (Major) W. C. Good of Jacksonville, is visiting her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Berrie of Gibson.

EATMAN'S SAD FATE.

All Indications Show That He Was Accidentally Drowned While Intoxicated.

Coroner Weaver will hold an inquest over the body of the late Joseph Eatman at the county court house this evening.

It seems to be the general opinion that Eatman came to his death by falling from the steamer Victoria at an early hour on Sunday morning. It is the custom to take up the gang plank at night and a person boarding the boat to reach the deck must walk projects at the side. It is supposed that Eatman was partially under the influence of liquor and, losing his balance while trying to board the craft, tumbled into the water. He was unable to swim and if he called for help his cries were not heeded. Joe was known as a harmless character, and had no enemies who would go so far as to attempt his life.

An autopsy was performed on the body yesterday afternoon by Dr. Vanwart. He has not made any public statement, but it is understood that he found nothing that would indicate foul play. The stomach of the deceased was considerably distended by gas, which may have been the cause of the body coming to the surface so soon. It also went to show that the deceased had partaken of very little solid food for some time before his death.

Only one man can be found who claims to have seen Eatman alive after Saturday night and that is Mr.
George Sewell, a stranger to the city. He told the coroner yesterday that he saw the deceased sitting on the wharf a short distance from the highway bridge. His statement has not been corroborated and it is quite possible that he may have mistaken some other colored man for Eatman.

Undertaker George W. Adams took charge of the remains yesterday, and the funeral will be held from his establishment on Queen Street at five o'clock this afternoon to the rural cemetery. The wife of the deceased arrived by boat this afternoon from Otnabog.

HEROIC RESCUE.

Brave Police Officer Cheered by Hundreds as He Saved Drowning Man who Fought Fiercely.

Boston, July 24.—One of the most thrilling rescues from drowning of the many which have been made in the vicinity of Savin Hill beach, Dorchester, was effected yesterday by Patrolman William H. Noble of Station 11, who, fully dressed, except for his coat and helmet, plunged into the bay from a railroad bridge near Savin Hill and after a desperate struggle in the water with the drowning man, rescued Terrence McGovern of Greenmount Street, Dorchester.

There were scores of witnesses to the rescue, all of whom describe the occurrence as one of the most exciting they had ever seen. McGovern started out from Savin Hill beach to take a long swim, something he had been in the habit of doing every day during the bathing season. He is one of the best swimmers frequenting the beach and last summer was one of the life saving crew. He was making his way across the bay and had reached a good distance place when he was seized with cramps.

Patrolman Noble was walking over the bridge when he noticed McGovern out in the water, apparently in great distress, trying to reach the bridge.

When he saw him go down he threw off his coat and hat and dived into the water. McGovern lurched forward grasped the officer's arm and tried to say something. For several minutes a tussle ensued, McGovern clutching Noble by the throat and arms. After much difficulty the officer wrenched himself free from McGovern's deadly grasp and in doing so had his shirt ripped from his body. He was forced to land a blow on the drowning man's head, rendering him unconscious. He then placed him on his chest and swam ashore.

The scene attracted hundreds of bathers to the shore where the Patrolman brought in McGovern. After being treated by a physician the half drowned man was taken to his home.
The officer was wildly cheered by the crowd for his heroic action.
Patrolman Noble, who is a reserve man, has distinguished on several other occasions by his heroism. Twice he has stooped runaway horses where lives were endangered and he has rescued other drowning persons.

MEMBERS ARRESTED.

Czar's Officers Take Parliamentarians Into Custody.

Viborg, Finland, July 24.—(Special).—During the night members of the outlawed Russian parliament received word that two of their number had been arrested, and a Cossack deputy, M. Kharlamoff, at Rostovon-thodon.

The authorities are also understood to have orders to arrest several Social Democrats, especially a priest named Afanasieff.

Both Father Koyarkoff and M. Khar-lamoff distinguished themselves by preaching revolution from the rostrum of parliament.
St. Petersburg, July 24.—The way has been prepared for a military dictatorship by a proposition now under consideration at Peterhoff to create an advisory council to assist the emperor.

HOLLAND DISAPPOINTED.

The Hague, Holland, July 24.— (Special)—Queen Wilhelmina was taken ill last night and premature delivery followed, casting a gloom over Holland.

It is announced this morning that expectation of an heir to the throne at this time, will not be realized.

THE STOCK MARKET.

Montreal, July 24.—(Special)—The stock market was dull today but the tone was strong.
Canadian Pacific changed hands at 160½ to 161.

Montreal Power, 98.
Dominion Iron bonds sold at 83½.
Toronto Railway, 115½.

Miss Steele—So you effected a big black Windsor tie. Do you think people took you to be a real artist?
Amateur—I am sure of it. They made me pay in advance for everything.

"If your wife treats you so shamefully," said Henpeck's friend, "why don't you get a divorce from her?"
"I did want to," replied Henpeck, "but she said 'no,' and that settled it."
