A Peep Into the World of Base Ball, Racing, Golf Bowling and Athletic Sports Generally.

BASE BALL.

GAME AT GLACE BAY.
(Glance Bay Gazette.)

Ball games are becoming popular among the patrons of Glance Bay boarding houses. There was a game the other day between teams representing two houses in town and yesterday teams representing the Petrie House and the Grand Hotel "sawed off" on the G. B. A. A. grounds. Strange to say most of the G. B. A. A. A. champion league team played on the two teams. A Finnmore, the crack backstop to the champs, pitched for the Petrie House and Frank McMinnamin caught it.

Tommy Howe of third base fame, twirled for the Grand, while Boone the big pitcher played first, George and Bert Finnmore played for the Grand and Petrie respectively. Now with this bunch on the diamond good ball might have been expected, but the article put up wasn't what the High School team would be proud of.

Another strange thing about the game was that it ended in a tie, the score at the end of the ninth being 19-19. The players decided to let it go at that which was just as well. The Petrie House got a big lead at the start the score being 11-1. In their favor in the fourth. But the Grand settled down to business after that and ran up some runs. Both pitchers did excellent work considering they are not pitchers by profession. Tanker caught well. He was at all times very nimble on his feet. Harnady is left field for the Petrie House and proved a star both in the field and at the bat. He had two home runs to his credit and four put outs.

Phenom Flannagan an old Tarlar, held down the second bag for the Petrie. His playing in that position was just as good as any in the big league and his stick work was also first class.

MONCTON TEAM TO TOUR MAINE

A team that will make the best of them hustle is to take a tour to the city of Maine. The team, under the management of Mr. J. H. Simpson, will play a number of Maine cities at the close of the city league schedule games. While the aggregation cannot be termed a Moncton team, yet it will be composed of practically exclusively of players who have taken part in the city league games. The men will have imported men and a few others. Driscoll will catch while Burns and Lovell will take turns at pitching and McCarthy will also pitch and play first. Embree second, Crockett third, Gallagher short, "Dicker" Mahoney of St. John, left and Tingley centre. The team is a strong one being especially well fitted out with twirlers, including Tingley, Gallagher, Fairfield, Portland and the various towns on the Maine trolley league circuit.

THE RING.

REVERIES OF A REFEREE.

One of the fights I officiated in the early part of 1906, and to which but little attention was paid, was the fight between Jim Jeffries and Jake Finnegan at Detroit, Mich. Finnegan had walloped out several mixed ale fighters though he had the makings of a champion hidden in his mitts and I longed to put him against Jeffries. The latter was the "white haired boy" in pugilism at that time and fight promoters all over the country were anxious to stage him.

Jeff was asked to name his price to introduce some of the wallows to Jack and his terms being acceptable, the club set the date at April 6 for the trying out of Finnegan. It was a sad, sad fight for the young aspirant, for Jim tore into him as if his title was at stake, and before the crowd noticed that the fight was on, Jack was on the canvass taking the count.

I liked soon after to Louisville to referee a 20 round contest between Terry McGovern and Joe Bernstein. The little Cleveland was one of the toughest propositions in the country in those days and the fans packed the building to see the scrap.

And a scrap it was with all the word implies. Broad was no match for Terry, but whenever he lacked in fighting ability he made up in capacity for punishment. He batted him from ropes to ropes, sent him staggering across the ring with head and body wallows, beat him to a standstill a score of times but the kid always came back for more.

Three days after the McGovern Broad contest found me at Denver, prepared to referee a light weight fight between Joe Gans and Kid Parker, the pride of Denver. The citizens of the town engaged in a lynching bee the afternoon of the night of the contest, having taken a colored man out of jail and burned him at the stake for assaulting a white girl.

It is almost needless to state that it was unsafe for a colored man to walk the streets of the town, so it looked bad or Gans, especially as he was to meet one of the favored sons. As for me—well, I admit I did not fancy the job, as I anticipated trouble should Joe win. I noted with extreme pleasure that Gans received a cordial reception when he entered the ring, still I was a bit dubious as to how the crowd would accept Parker's defeat, should it come about. Gans won all right, scoring a knock out in the fourth round, but the blow which won him the fight was delivered just twelve seconds before the end of the round shortly after I had counted Parker out—who had regained his feet after I had tolled off the fatal 10th second—his handlers naturally registered a kick, claiming that I had counted too fast and that the kid was on his feet before the ten seconds had elapsed.

They took their charge to his corner and when they informed him that he had lost he staggered toward me with shaky legs and his mind still wandering on "queer" street and inquired if I had counted him out, informing him that I had he said "I did not hear you."

The club officials also doubted the correctness of my count, partly because their official referee was a slow counter, dragging one second into two. Their official time keeper, John Condon, informed them that it lacked twelve seconds to the end of the round when Parker went down and I had counted ten to the notch.

Condon made a statement over his signature but that was my last appearance as a ring official in that town.

One of my contests that year was between Joe Perconte and Battling Nelson. The latter was then a preliminary scrapper and a cheap one at that. His contest with Perconte was a preliminary affair for about 25 bucks, and "Bat" won it on a foul in the first round.

Contests between Frank Childs and Jack Bonner, Dal Hawkins and Otto Sieflof, Hawkins and Young Kenny, Harry Harris and Clarence Forbes and other scraps too numerous to mention took up my time until the night of December 13, when the much talked of Terry McGovern—Joe Gans, contest took place.

Tattersall's held a record breaking crowd that night and I was the last night of fights in that building, as the odor of that contest killed the club, the council passing an order prohibiting contests in that building.

It was heralded throughout the country as the roughest fake ever perpetrated, but it was not as bad as several fictitious writers, who had an axe to grind, made it appear. Gans, his manager, Al Herford, and others who profited by the contest, kept mum about the affair, and it was not until a few months ago that Gans, in making a statement about his fake fight with Jimmy Britt, acknowledged that his fight with McGovern was not on the level.

MISCELLANEOUS.

MADE 104 OUT OF 105.

A remarkable feat in marksmanship was performed on the Long Branch rifle ranges, Toronto on Saturday afternoon, when Staff Sergeant J. H. Simpson of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, shot 104 out of a possible 105—7 shots at each of 200, 500 and 600 yards ranges. His score was made up of possible 200 and 500 yards, 7 bulls, and 6 bulls and an inner at 600 yards the inner (his 4th shot at that range) being a very close one. The occasion was the first of the matches for the sergeants' inter-regimental Stinson trophy, which is competed for annually by teams of 10 sergeants from each regiment—Q. O. R. Royal Grenadiers and 48th Highlanders.

KING'S CUP ARRIVES.

New York, July 21.—The King's cup, the blue ribbon of the year's yachting trophies, presented by King Edward VII. to the New York Yacht Club, to be raced for annually by American yachts, open to the enrolled fleets of all American clubs, arrived yesterday from England. The cup, which is of solid gold and valued at over a thousand guineas, is a handsome trophy as has ever been offered for international competition. It is finely chased with symbolic figures, emblazoned with a shield bearing its inscription and purpose. It stands fully forty inches high, exclusive of its base, and measures about twenty inches in diameter.

The cup was received on behalf of the club by Secretary Geo. M. McCormack.

NOT NATIVE AMERICAN.

Miss May Sutton, whose right to the title of Lady Champion at lawn tennis was recently successfully challenged by Miss Douglass, is often spoken of as the American player. This is only partly correct. Miss Sutton was born at Plymouth, but her family removed to Pasadena, California, when she was about six years old. She learned the arts of lawn tennis from her two elder sisters, whom at last she surpassed in skill. The first tournament in which she played was at Pasadena, when she was twelve, and she did not win the cup, though one of her sisters did. Two years ago she entered for the United States championship at Philadelphia. To the amazement of veteran players who imagined themselves to be irresistible, Miss Sutton won the championship.

The victory led Miss Sutton to try her fortunes on the lawn tennis courts of England, and here she repeated her success. Lawn tennis is not her only recreation, for, like many American girls, she is very fond of playing base ball and basket ball.

WHAT CAUSES SNORING?

When asleep, people that snore breathe through the mouth instead of the nostrils, which are choked with catarrh. Just use "Catarrhoxone" before retiring, and you will be very quickly cured of that snoring habit. By destroying the cause of catarrh, and healing the membranes, Catarrhoxone makes a complete cure in every case; it cleans the nostrils, stops the discharge and prevents drooping in the throat in a few minutes. Nothing so pleasant or certain to cure snoring, catarrh or colds as Catarrhoxone—that's worth remembering.

THE GIRL WHO LAUGHS.

The girl who laughs—God bless her—Thrice blesses herself the while; No music on earth Has nobler sound Than that which voices a smile.
The girl who laughs—men love her; She lifts from the heart of despair; Its burden of woe And coaxes the glow Of joy to the brow of care.
The girl who laughs—when sorrow Comes by, and a glistening tear Has stolen the glints Of rainbow tints And pictured a world of cheer.
The girl who laughs—life needs her There is never an hour so sad But wakes and thrills To the dippings thrills Of the laugh of a lass who's glad. John Howard Todd.

HOW TO CURE TOOTHACHE.

Any aching tooth can be relieved instantly with Neriline. Fill the cavity with batting dipped in Neriline, and rub the gums with Neriline also. If the face is swollen and sore rub the painful parts with Neriline and cover with a flannel. This can't fail because Neriline kills the pain and prevents it from returning. Stronger, quicker, more satisfactory than any other liniment. Polson's Neriline has been the largest seller for nearly fifty years; try it yourself.

FORMER MINISTERS TO VISIT TORONTO.

Toronto, July 19.—Right Hon. Austen Chamberlain and Right Hon. Alfred Lyttelton, members of the late Balfour cabinet, with their wives, are mentioned as among the probable visitors to Toronto at exhibition time. Efforts are being made by the fair managers to have Lord Lansdowne, Lord Stanley, son of the former governor general, and Right Hon. Walter Long accompany their former colleagues.

PALE FACED GIRLS.

Thousands Using Successful Cure for Paleness and Anaemia.

The pallid girl always lacks appetite. What little she eats is badly digested.

At night she is restless, she dozes but doesn't sleep soundly.

Vital force must be increased, new blood must be supplied and a general rebuilding take place before she will feel like she ought.

Dr. Hamilton had invaluable experience in these cases and found nothing so prompt in building up the young women as his vegetable pills of Mandrake and Butternut.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills begin by cleansing the system and purifying the blood, they also improve digestion and render food ready for absorption. Additional nourishment is quickly supplied and the patient is fast strengthened and invigorated. Full of spirit, cuddly and strong is the girl that assists her system by Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

The following recent letter from Miss Etta McEwen, of Halliburton, speaks for itself:

"In using Dr. Hamilton's Pills I find my system is wonderfully built up. It is certainly the most effective remedy I ever used. I have now a good appetite, sleep more soundly and awaken in the morning feeling quite refreshed.

"Formerly I felt tired and depressed. I looked as if a severe illness was hanging over my head.

"Nothing could give quicker results than Dr. Hamilton's Pills and I strongly advise every young woman to use them.

All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. per box or five boxes for $1 by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U. S. A. and Kingston, Ont.

SCISSORS PIERCED LUNG, WIFE IS HELD.

Mrs. Dumais of Fall River Stirred by Husband's Insult, She Says.

Fall River, July 23.—Jos. Dumais who keeps a woodyard on Rodman street, is lying at the point of death with a punctured lung, and his wife, a frail little woman of 21, is in a cell, awaiting the outcome. The incident did not become public until today.

It appears that last Monday morning Mrs. Dumais returned home from a visit to relatives. That evening the husband made remarks which the wife regarded as an insult. It is said she had the scissors in her hand at the time and promptly threw them at him, the blades entering the man's body.

The wounds were given treatment and the matter was reported by the doctor. In court the doctor said death might result.

Holding in her arms a fretting 16-months old child, Mrs. Dumais arose at the call of her name and pleaded guilty to a charge of assault. The case was continued until July 30, and the woman was ordered to furnish bonds for $5,000.

She—What is the biggest fist story you ever heard of?
He—Jonah and the whale.
She—Isn't a railroad wreck a terrible thing?
He—Yes, it is—especially when you happen to own stock in the railroad.
