A solitary drunk, a gentleman of color, forfeited a deposit of five dollars at the police court this morning.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

Songs of Joy Were Sung in Fredericton Churches on Sunday.

Songs of joy were sung in the Fredericton churches yesterday and the services were of a character appropriate to the festive Christmas season. The attendance in the morning was not surprisingly large, and at least one pastor took occasion in his sermon to make a few observations for the benefit of non-churchgoers. In the evening, however, all of the churches were comfortably filled.

At the Methodist church Pastor McConnell was the preacher at both services and preached appropriate sermons, which were attentively listened to. The choir rendered a special programme of hymns and anthems.

At the Baptist church the musical programme was an especially good one and elicited much favorable comment. The choir was reinforced by violin, trombone and cornet and the effect was certainly impressive and grand. The list of hymns included an original one for the Christmas season from the pen of Pastor McDonald. "Christ before Christmas," was the theme of the pastor's discourse at the evening service.

At the George street Baptist Pastor Rideout preached two very able and appropriate sermons and the choir rendered special Christmas music.

The services at St. Dunstan's church tomorrow will be as follows: Masses at 7, 7.30, 9 and 11 o'clock. Vespers at 7.30 o'clock. The music by the choir, under direction of Miss May Wetmore will be as follows:

Leonard's third mass.
Adeste Fidelis at the offertory.
Hymn "Angels we have heard on High."

At Vespers the usual Psalms with "O Salutaris" by Landry, Tantum Ergo (Mozello).

At St. Anthony's church, St. Mary's, the Christmas services will be as follows: Low masses at 8 and 8.30. High mass at 10.30 with sermon by Rev. Father McLaughlin. Special music by the choir.

Rev. Father McLaughlin will hold service and preach at Margerville in the evening.

At St. Paul's Presbyterian Church Sunday, the pastor, Rev. Willard Macdonald, preached two powerful sermons on the Nativity and the musical programme arranged by Miss Bessie Everett, organist and choir leader, was most attractive. It included a solo by Miss Margaret Kelly.

Rev. Messrs. McConnell, Berrie and Thomas, will conduct a special Christmas service at the Methodist church tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock. There will be a service at Cathedral at the same hour.

CHRISTMAS MARKET.

Business was Brisk Around Phoenix Square and High Prices Prevailed.

The market this morning was a very large one although the display of Christmas poultry was not as large as on Saturday. The same prices however ruled, although the demand did not appear quite so brisk. Most householders secured their Christmas turkey or goose several days ago and the purchasers this morning were mostly dealers or those who lay by a few extra birds for winter.

A man from Nashwaak had some nice plump geese, which he offered at twenty cents per pound and sold for eighteen and nineteen cents. Some good turkeys were sold singly for eighteen cents per pound. Several job lots were cleared out for eighteen cents.

Chickens were quite plentiful and brought all the way from sixty cents to $1.00 per pair. The stall fed birds were disposed of by the pound while the lightweights were disposed of by the pair.

A large number of fowls were disposed of at prices ranging from fifty cents to $1 per pair.

Beef and pork were plentiful and sold at the usual prices, pork at nine cents and beef at five and six.

The market was pretty well cleared out by twelve o'clock but the business streets presented a very animated appearance.

The year now drawing to a close has been a prosperous one in York County; the people have the money to spend and are spending it. As far as can be learned business in the Fredericton stores is considerably better than during the holiday season last year.

EMMERSON BANQUET.

The banquet to be given in honour of Hon. H. R. Emmerson next Thursday evening will be in the Union Club, St. John, at 7.30 p. m. Among others to attend will be Sir F. W. Borden, minister of militia, and Charles Macil, M. P. for Bonaventure. Thomas McAvity, chairman of the St. John Liberal executive, will preside.

He reports the conditions favorable for lumbering and is well satisfied with the progress being made. When he started for home there was three feet of snow in the woods.

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

Dec. 24.—At present there is a great deal of talk and quite a lot written in reference to professional and amateur hockey. Some claim that several players in the new organization are not amateurs and think it foolish that they did not stay in the old league, while others say that that Marysville, Sussex, St. John and Sackville did right by forming a new league. Nevertheless professional hockey is very nice to witness and from a spectator's standpoint is perhaps more interesting, but when taken into consideration it is hardly fair that the so-called Moncton team with five or six imported men should be allowed to compete with a local organization for the championship of New Brunswick, when most of the players are from several different parts of Canada both in the upper and lower provinces, while the other clubs are made up of local men.

In the case of Marysville every man in the team is a resident of the town, and with one exception, all work in the same concern, working ten hours a day and as most of them are married they cannot afford to lose any time for practice. With the exception of a few hours a week they never play until the night of the game, while the Moncton team are continually practising.

When the Marysville boys go away to play they have to work up until six o'clock the day before, and very often get up in the middle of the night and drive to Fredericton to catch the early train east and if bound for Sackville it is late in the afternoon when they reach there, after having travelled all day. They go right on the ice and only have the usual half hour practice before the game.

Another thing in reference to Marysville is that for several years they have been playing the same men with one or two exceptions. This year the team will be about as follows: Fullerton, Brogan, Cain, Dennison, Hovey, Robinson, Gibson, with Inch and McElmain as spare men.

Since the sweeping challenge from Mr. Cowie appeared in the Herald, it has started the horsemen talking and several horses have turned up with excellent records which hitherto were unknown.

Your correspondent extends to the numerous Herald readers a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Our town presents a very gay and hustling appearance today. A large number of the men have returned from the woods to spend the holidays with their families. Several of our young ladies are wearing a Christmas smile as their best fellow is home for Christmas.
