TO CHEAT JUSTICE.

Thaws Using Their Immense Fortune to Keep Murderer Harry from the Electric Chair.

WHITE'S FRIENDS SAID TO BE WILLING FOR ETT LE MENT WITHOUT TRIAL.

New York, July 21.—(Special).—Following the report yesterday that Harry Thaw had been reported insane by Alienists employed to make a preliminary examination by Lawyer Olcott, it is asserted that, although without direct co-operation, friends of Stanford White were on the side of the mother of the prisoner in efforts to settle the case without the necessity of a trial.

Still far apart are the divergent interests in the case. Thaw, his wife and Mr. Hartridge, his personal counsel, are all for trial where justification, on the plea of "unwritten law" or emotional insanity is to be the defence.

The district attorney, it is said, believes that the ends of justice would be served by a trial.

Mrs. William Thaw and the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonyne, which she still retains, although the engagement is not recognized by her son, are against the trial.

Mrs. Thaw has set herself to the task of bringing her son to her way of

CHARGED WITH BIGAMY

Russian Jew Living in St. John is Embarrassed by the Presence of His Two Wives.

WIFE NO. 1 FOLLOWED HIM FROM RUSSIA AND WILL PROSECUTE HIM.

St. John, July 21.—(Special).—A very important case will come before the police court on Monday next, when a Russian Jew, Henry Goord, will have to face the charge of bigamy.

This morning shortly before ten o'clock a well-dressed woman, accompanied by Officer Henry, appeared in the police court, and stated she wished to lay information against her husband, Henry Goord, who has been in this city for about two years, and during that time has been a pedlar.

Last August he married Miss Witzell, daughter of Michael Witzell.

Mrs. Goord number one states that she resided in Russia with her husband, who is but twenty-one years of age. He left there and she followed him to England, but when she arrived she found he had skipped to Canada.

She followed him to this country, and finally located him in this city, and learned that he had been married last August by the Jewish Rabbi.

This morning accompanied by Officer Henry, she went to Registrar J. B. Jones, and learned that Goord had been married a second time in August last.

Mrs. Goord No. 1, laid information against her husband in the police court this morning.

According to the directory Henry Goord lives at 28 Pond street.

POKANOKET SANK.

Former Star Line Steamer Met With Foul Play at Petersburg in the Southern States.

St. John, July 21.—(Special).—A despatch from Norfolk, Virginia, says that the steamer Pokanoket sank on Wednesday night at her pier at Petersburg.

It is thought that her seacock were opened by a disaffected member of the crew. It is thought that the steamer can be raised without much damage being done.

The Pokanoket, it will be remembered, was one of the Star Line fleet and was sold last spring to the James River Navigation Company at Norfolk, Va.

She sailed from St. John on May 4th, in charge of Capt. Frederick H. Rowan. It was stated at the time that the purchase price was about $4,000.

She was a steel boat and was one of the fastest of the StarLine fleet. She was very nicely fitted up and was registered at 332 tons.

The Pokanoket has been running between Norfolk, Newport News and Petersburg.

The sinking of the boat at this season of the year when the summer business was at its height is a serious misfortune for her company. Even should she be raised immediately, it will necessarily be some time before she is ready for business. The engines will have to be taken out and cleaned and the boat will have to be completely gone over from head to stern.

KINDNESS APPRECIATED.

Among the beautiful floral tributes received at the home of the late Arthur Smith yesterday was a handsome floral broken harp, from the Fredericton Brass Band. This mark of respect from the members of one city band for the deceased musician from the other band is much appreciated by the friends of the late young man as well as from the members of the 71st band.

THE HAYING SEASON.

A great many farmers throughout the country have commenced haying and it is thought operations will be in full blast by the middle of next week. On some of the islands at Kingsclear the crop is reported to be lighter than last year. The upland hay is reported fair in most places.

MOOSE GALORE.

New York Man Counted Them by
the Miramichi.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robinson of New York and Miss Hunt, of Sherbrooke, who have been on an extended trip to the headwaters of the Little Southwest Miramichi, with Mr. Henry Braithwaite as guide, returned to the city by the I. C. R. at noon today and are guests at the Queen. They had a very enjoyable outing and had capital sport fishing salmon and trout in the Little Southwest.

During the four weeks the party spent in the woods they saw upwards of four hundred moose, a large percentage being bulls. In one lake they counted fifty-four at one time. There are scores of lakes in the country where they camped and it was rarely that they approached one of them without being able to count from one to twenty moose splashing around in the water.

Mr. Robinson does not think there is an area of woods the same size on the continent that contains so many moose.

Mr. Robinson's party had a moving picture camera along with them and secured some splendid photos of moose in their native wilds. He developed most of the negatives at his camp and they turned out first class. He says it is possible he saw some of the pictures at the New York Sportsmen's Show next winter.

Mr. Robinson had a large crew of men at work erecting camps on the headwaters of the Little Southwest Miramichi. He is sparing no expense to make them first class in every particular.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and Miss Hunt will leave for home by this evening's train.

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

July 21.—At the regular meeting of Marysville Lodge, No. 18, K. of P., last evening, the following officers were duly installed for the ensuing year: Wm. H. Gray, D. D. G. C., assisted by Past Chancellor Jesse Stafford, as G. V. C.; D. Pickard as G. M. at A.; C. D. Clayton, G. Prelate. George Hulme, K. of R. & S. E. White, G. M. of F. G. W. Ward, G. M. of Ex. Fred White, C. C. C. Edward Hulme, V. C. Rev. W. B. Thomas, Prelate. William Wister, M. of W. Claude Clayton, M. of E. Andrew MacPherson, M. of F. Harry Pickard, M. at A. Charles Finmore, I. G. Howard Dunbar, O. G. Dan Pickard, Charles Pickard Howard Dunbar, Finance and Audit committee.

Ice cream and fruit was served by the newly installed officers and a social hour was very pleasantly spent.

There is to be a grand baseball match tonight between Marysville and St. Marys. It promises to be an exciting game and a collection will be taken on the grounds to help pay expenses. A large crowd should be present and witness a good game.

A DOUBTFUL REPORT.

St. John's Despatch says Earl Grey's Visit to Newfoundland is to be Further Confirmed.

Halifax, N. S., July 21.—A story comes from St. John's Nfld., that the visit of Earl Grey to Newfoundland, which will be made towards the end of this month, has a distinct political significance.

Governor McGregor, who represents the British crown in Newfoundland, is known to be strongly in favor of the entrance of that colony into the Canadian confederation, and it is understood that when His Excellency was in Canada some time ago, he talked the matter over with Earl Grey. Now the governor general is returning the visit and it is believed that one of the chief objects of the journey to the colonial capital is to renew with Governor McGregor discussion on confederation and with leading men on both sides of politics a suitable occasion presents itself.

The political result of the visit will be watched with interest not only by Newfoundlanders but by Canadians, who have become aware of the union proclivities of Governor McGregor and of Governor General Grey.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the reception of Earl Grey in St. John's.

LAI'D TO REST.

The funeral of late Mrs. Peter Thompson took place from her late home on Saunders street at 2.30 o'clock this afternoon to the rural cemetery. Services were conducted at St. Anne's church by Rev. J. DeWolfe Cowie. Mr. John G. Adams was the officiating undertaker.

Post—Here's a little poem which I recently composed. I read it to my mother and she cried loud and long, so touching did she find it.

Editor—You ought to be ashamed of yourself. Take back your poem and promise me that you won't make that poor woman cry any more.

OLD TIMES RECALLED.

A Glance Into the Local News of Fredericton
Twenty-six Years Ago.

(From the Farmer Files, July 22nd, 1880.)

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. C. Ketchum returned on Monday from their trans-Atlantic trip.

Messrs. E. C. Freeze and J. J. Fox, of this city, are attending the annual session of the United Temperance Association at St. John this week. It is said that Mr. H. J. Thorne, ex-postmaster of Fredericton will remove to St. John as soon as his superannuation term begins.

Mr. Norman Edgecombe has received the cars won by him at the Neptune Rowing Club regatta at St. John last autumn.

GRIST FOR HIS MILL.

Eight hundred bushels of wheat came from the upper counties of New Brunswick last week to be manufactured into flour at Mr. Gibson's grist mill, Marysville.

OPERATIONS SUSPENDED.

The water in the St. John river is so low at the present time that the Fredericton Boom Company has had to suspend operations. They have 1,100 joints of logs yet to raft.

DIED FROM OVER BATHING.

George Strickland, aged nine years, son of Mr. Harvey Strickland, died last week from over bathing in the river. This should be a warning to other boys who practice this sport too often.

APPOINTED CONDUCTOR.

We understand that Mr. Frank J. McPeck, of this city has been appointed a conductor on the Grand Southern Railway and will shortly remove to St. John. His removal from this city will be regretted. As the head of an important branch of the fire brigade his place will be difficult to fill, and he always took a great interest in all city matters.

MILITIA CHANGES.

We very much regret to state that the department of militia has decided to remove Lieut. Col. Maunsell, D. A. G., and Lieut. Col. McShane, brigade major, from the province at the beginning of next year. Neither of these gentlemen has been informed yet where they are to be sent.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

A distinguished party of gentlemen, eight in all, among whom were Lord Elphinstone, Hon. Isaac Burpee and George Stephen, president of the St. Paul and Minneapolis Railway Company, arrived here on Tuesday by the noon train from St. John and registered at the Barker House.

where they had dinner, after which they inspected the New Brunswick machine shops at Gibson, and drove to Marysville, where they were the guests of Mr. Alexander Gibson until Wednesday morning. Accompanied by Mr. Gibson, and E. R. Lurpee they left Gibson by special train for Caribou, Grand Falls and Edmundston. They will return here tomorrow in time to take the night boat to St. John. Some members of the party are supposed to be heavy stock holders in the company which is said to have recently purchased the New Brunswick railway.

VERY DRY SEASON.

It is several years since the province has experienced such a dry season as the past few weeks have been. The great drought has done irreparable injury to the crops particularly the grains. A farmer from Douglas says that his oats are being scorched out of existence and his fields are assuming a blackened and barren appearance. Another gentleman living in the country a few miles from the city, says that a brook that ripples past his door has not been so exhausted for nine years.

In this city the heat has been intense, the thermometer running up to ninety on Monday and Tuesday. The greatest inconvenience is experienced from the dust pest and it is to be hoped that before next summer the city will be provided with two or more watering carts.

RIFLE MATCH.

Quarter-master Lipsett and Capt. Loggie's rifle teams competed yesterday afternoon at Queen's range, seven rounds at each, the former winning by two points 274 to 272.

LADIES MADE MONEY.

The Ladies of the Oddfellows' Society at their recent fair netted the handsome sum of $550, which they have handed over to Victoria Lodge.

MARRIAGES.

At Christ Church, Margerville, July 15th, by the Rev. G. H. Sterling, rector Mr. G. F. Banks, to Henrietta, third daughter of Thomas H. Perley, of Margerville.

At the residence of Moses Craig, Perth, Victoria County, July 3rd, by Rev. Charles Henderson, Mr. J. Fletcher Tweeddale of Lorne, formerly of Fredericton, to Miss Joanna Campbell, of Arthurette, Victoria.

DEATHS.

In this city, July 20th, Harriet, infant daughter of Dr. T. Clowes and Harriet Brown.

In this city, July 18th, George W. son of Harvey Strickland, aged nine years and four months.

LOVE'S YOUNG DREAM.

Amatory Epistles of a Thirteen-year-old Boy.

Toronto Globe.—Mr. J. J. Kelso, Provincial Superintendent of Neglected Children, has long favored legislation prohibiting children under a certain age attending theatres, particularly those where melodrama is the constant bill of fare. In his work cases have often come to his notice of the evil influence of the attendance of children at such shows. One instance, of a less serious nature than most, he brought to the attention of the newspaper men at the following statement:

A young street boy of thirteen, with imagination fired by frequent attendance in the top gallery of the theatre and hours of eager perusal of five cent thrillers, chanced a short time ago to meet a girl of eleven. With him it was a clear case of love at first sight, and his wooing became more persistent. He was at last informed that the little girl was a ward of the Superintendent of Neglected Children, and that if he did not let up his destiny would be the Industrial School. Not at all deterred by this threat, he inquired the address of Mr. Kelso and wrote him as follows:

"J. J. Kelso, Parliament buildings Toronto.
Dear Sir,—I am well and happy but for one thing, which you can put right. I am in pure, honest, deep, unmovable love with a girl who lives with old Mr. —; her name is Laura. I have been worrying about her, and have passed nights of no sleep. I want you to say yes or no to this question. I hope you will say yes. Will you please send her to me. I will be a happy and contented boy. But if you say no, I will be a heart-broken, desperate boy. I hope you will send her to me. I can keep her, as we are all at home and settled. If you send her to me you may be sure she will be well used and looked after. I pity (the) anyone I ever hear of ill-using her, for I will seek vengeance on them; it is their life or mine. Please send her to me, her true lover. Please answer soon. Yours sincerely,

To the girl he wrote as follows:
"Dear Laura—I hope you are well and happy. I am keeping my promise to you. I am also trying hard to get you home with me. Be a good girl, love; I will come and see you as soon as I can. When you are tempted to do wrong remember your loving sweetheart, darling, and think of your promise to me. That is the way I do; I am always thinking about you. I have a good home and everything I want or need; if I can get you, love, I will. Tell me if any one tries to harm you. I will surely wreak vengeance on them with my life. I am writing to Mr. Kelso to get you. Write soon. Your loving sweetheart.

I can tell time now and have a splendid watch; the best in the store.

Senator La Dollette was displeased with an answer that had been given to one of his questions.

"That is a most unsatisfactory answer," he said. "It tells no more than the answer of the young lady at the races.

"The races were crowded. The lady had a seat where she could see well, but her escort from his place, could see nothing.

"And at the most exciting point of the principal race, the young man cried excitedly:

"Can you see if the favorite's in front?"

"It's in front at one end," the young lady replied, "but I can't tell which end it is."
