FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—
Interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter.

Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffles physicians, as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in the back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude, when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers, expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mrs. Pinkham, which will be read with interest:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (First letter.) "I am but fifteen years of age, am depressed, have dizzy spells, chills, headache and backache, and as I have heard that you can give helpful advice in my condition, I

The "Golah" of Bankipur.

The "Golah" at Bankipur, India, was built for a granary in 1783, but has never been used for that purpose. It is 426 feet around at the base, with walls 12 feet 2 inches in thickness, the interior diameter being 109 feet. It is about 90 feet high and might contain 137,000 tons. Inside is a most wonderful echo, best heard from the center of the building. As a whispering gallery there is perhaps no such building in the world, not even the famous Mormon temple.

IT IMPARTS STRENGTH.

Just think of the enormous strengthening power Ferrozone possesses—consider what it did for H. V. Potter, well known in Kingston. "I was subject to spells of dizziness. For eight months I had intense pain in my right side between the shoulders. I was almost incurable with weakness and lack of vigor. Often I scarcely ate any breakfast and felt miserable all day. Nervous, easily excited, troubled with heart weakness I was in bad shape. Ferrozone restored and nourished me back to health in short order." Whatever your weakness may be Ferrozone will cure. am writing you."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— (Second letter.) "It is with the feeling of utmost gratitude that I write to you to tell you what your valuable medicine has done for me. When I wrote you in regard to my condition I had consulted several doctors, but they failed to understand my case, and I did not receive any benefit from their treatment. I followed your advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am now healthy and well, and all the distressing symptoms which I had at that time have disappeared."—Myrtle Mills, Oquawka, Ill.

Miss Matilda Borman writes Mrs. Pinkham as follows:—
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my periods were irregular and painful, and I always had such dreadful headaches. But since taking the Compound my headaches have entirely left me, my periods are regular and I am getting strong and well. I am telling all my girl friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Matilda Borman, Farmington, Iowa.

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her every detail of her symptoms, and to keep nothing back. She will receive advice absolutely free, from a source that has no rival in the experience of woman's ills, and it will, if followed, put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of cures of female ills of any medicine that the world has ever known. Why can't you try it?

There were loud calls for Hon. B. F. Pearson, one of Colchester's representatives in the legislature and that gentleman was loudly applauded on taking the platform.

After congratulating the convention on securing such an admirable candidate as Mr. Hill, and prophesying his triumphant return, Mr. Pearson discussed some of the current political issues.

MR. PEARSON'S SPEECH.

There were loud calls for Hon. B. F. Pearson, one of Colchester's representatives in the legislature and that gentleman was loudly applauded on taking the platform.

After congratulating the convention on securing such an admirable candidate as Mr. Hill, and prophesying his triumphant return, Mr. Pearson discussed some of the current political issues.

A RECORD OF STATESMANSHIP

He concluded his remarks by referring to a number of matters relating to the Liberal platform and record. Premier Laurier's broadmindedness in the management of many public affairs was proudly referred to showing that the Liberal party is not trammelled by creed or nationality, but was truly national in spirit. Mr. Pearson recalled the recent speech of the new Minister of Railways, Hon. Mr. Graham, who said in East Northumberland, that the policy of his department would be to acquire the branch lines in the Maritime Provinces for the Intercolonial Railway and make the whole of more benefit to the industrial life of these provinces. Mr. Pearson said that Mr. Graham, the man from Ontario, greatly in contrast to the men in the opposition from that province was broad minded enough to project this plan of development of the Intercolonial and was going further. He was preparing for the extension of the Intercolonial to the great lakes.

BENEFITS OF THE PREFERENCE.

Referring to Mr. Fielding and the tariff, Mr. Pearson pointed out the

COLCHESTER LIBERALS

The Nomination of Mr. Charles Hill for the House of Commons is very Popular.

Candidate in an Effective Speech Declared for a Pure Election—Hon. B. F. Pearson's Vigorous Address

TRURO N. S., November 8.—The conventions called for the nomination of candidates on both sides of politics took place at Truro yesterday afternoon. Pouring rain succeeded a most violent wind-driven storm which swept the country at day break, and chances for big gatherings were exceedingly slim. At two o'clock in the afternoon, however, great surprise was manifested at the very large crowd present in the hall, the convention rooms. Every section being represented by stalwart Liberals.

Mr. P. McGregor Archibald, president of the Colchester Liberal Association, took the chair at half past two. A. C. Mids acted secretary pro tem. Mr. Archibald, in a brief speech, explained the reason for the call of the convention, namely the creation of a vacancy in the representation of Colchester in the House of Commons by the elevation of Frederick A. Lawrence, K. C., M. P., to the Nova Scotia Bench. He asked the Convention to proceed with the business of the day.

After passing resolutions congratulating Judge Lawrence on his appointment, the convention proceeded to the business in hand, the nomination of a candidate for the House of Commons.

HILL UNANIMOUS CHOICE.

The nominating committee spent about five minutes in the room to which they had retired, and Col. H. T. Lawrence reported to the general meeting that by a unanimous vote they had nominated Mr. Charles Hill, of Onslow.

The candidate was accordingly sent for, and on arrival was formally tendered the nomination amid great enthusiasm, delivering an excellent speech in which he declared for a pure election, and that he would do his best to win.

MR. PEARSON'S SPEECH.

There were loud calls for Hon. B. F. Pearson, one of Colchester's representatives in the legislature and that gentleman was loudly applauded on taking the platform.

After congratulating the convention on securing such an admirable candidate as Mr. Hill, and prophesying his triumphant return, Mr. Pearson discussed some of the current political issues.

A RECORD OF STATESMANSHIP

BENEFITS OF THE PREFERENCE.

Referring to Mr. Fielding and the tariff, Mr. Pearson pointed out the benefits of the British preference which not only made it possible to buy goods cheaper because of it. The treaty with France was a matter of reciprocal exchange and illustrated how a sagacious, intelligent Finance Minister can do much for his country without sacrificing general industrial interests.

Mr. Pearson referred to the time when in 1897 the door of the Stanfield Knitting Mills was locked by its owner, who declared that he knew the policy of the new government would ruin him, but his fears were never realized, and instead the Stanfield business had become one of the chief industries of Canada. Of Mr. John Stanfield, he said, no man was as prosperous, thought it might be that he would be nominated by his party to oppose the candidate of a party which had come so much for his industry. Of the railway policy of the Government it might be said that transportation was as vital to Canada as the breath is to the human body.

TRIBUTES TO THE CANDIDATE.

Hon. C. N. Cummings, H. T. Lawrence, Col. Blair, Hugh Mackenzie, Joshua Livingstone, A. B. Fletcher, A. C. McKenzie, Robert A. Harvey, Alexander Sutherland and others added many points to the general expressions of testimony of the standing and usefulness of Mr. Hill. Mr. Hugh Mackenzie's speech was particularly agreeable. He alluded to the popularity of Mr. Hill, his straightforwardness, honesty and manliness. Mr. Hill, he said, need not try to make himself popular by offering this, that or the other to the electors whose votes he desired. He was known to be an honest, friendly, neighborly man in every house in the county and that was his best recommendation. The convention broke up after five o'clock on the singing of the National Anthem.

A POPULAR CANDIDATE.

Mr. Charles Hill, who received the Liberal nomination, is one of the best known men in the county and he will receive wide support from Conservatives as well as Liberals. His forbears, who came to Halifax from the north of Ireland, have been in the county of Colchester for generations. And they have always been staunch Liberals, his father and grandfather both being prominent in the party. His father was a member of the first municipal council in Colchester county, representing the Five Islands district. Mr. W. Davidson Hill, a brother, is one of the present representatives of Colchester in the House of Assembly. Another brother, Prof. A. Ross Hill, of Cornell University, is one of the most prominent educationalists in the United States. The candidate chosen unanimously yesterday is a man of about fifty years of age. He has been a farmer all his life and a large buyer of cattle and produce in the county through which he has become well known to the farmers of all political creeds. He has been a teetotaler all his life, and his declaration regarding purity in elections is strong enough to satisfy everybody. The speech made by Mr. Hill in accepting the nomination and was highly pleasing to his friends. He has a good command of language and speaks in a plain way that is both interesting and convincing. A great many of the delegates from the country districts present at the convention spoke and all expressed their pleasure at having one of their own men to represent them.

MAZERALL SETTLEMENT.

Nov. 8.—Owing to the recent heavy rains the roads are in a terrible condition.

Mrs. A. Sears of Fredericton, spent Thanksgiving day with her aged mother, Mrs. John Mazerall.

Mr. Israel King has returned to his home in Missoula, Mont., his sister, Miss Gertrude accompanying him. Although this community is mourning the loss of its reverend pastor, J. D. LeBlanc, who has been removed to Shediac, it is fortunate in having such an amiable and zealous priest as Rev. F. X. Cormier, as his successor.

Miss Stella Mazerall, who is teaching in Upper Hanwell, spent Thanksgiving day at her home in this place.

Hallowe'en was celebrated very quietly here, the usual spooks and witches having probably departed to warmer clime.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Mazerall are occupying their new home. Mr. Napoleon Thomas has returned home, from Grand Falls, hale and hearty, and with a new ambition in his step. He is contemplating a trip to Boston in the near future.

Our bursting barns and well filled cellars, give evidence, of a harvest well worth reaping, and Thanksgiving day was a day of thanks indeed.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. Allen Mazerall has entirely recovered from his slight indisposition.

A GOOD LINIMENT.

When you need a good reliable liniment try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It has no superior for sprains and swellings. A piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm is superior to a plaster for lame back or pains in the side or chest. It also relieves neuritic pains and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all dealers.

"Before we were married you told me you were well off."
"So I did. I remember distinctly telling you that."
"You lied then?"
"That would be a question in casuistry. I was well off, all right, but I didn't know it."—Puck.

THEY ALL FAILED.

Many have tried to devise a corn cure equal to Putnam's, but after fifty years nothing has come upon the market that so painlessly cures corns and warts. Don't experiment large 25c. bottles.
