There was another big crowd at the exhibition today, and it would not be surprising if the attendance record is again broken as it was on Wednesday.

The weather is simply immense, and the crowds happy. This morning excursions arrived from St. John and the North Shore, and many people came in from the surrounding country, and all are well pleased with the big show.

Wednesday was a banner day at the Fredericton exhibition the buildings and ground being thronged morning, afternoon and evening. The weather was gloriously fine, everything was seen at its best and the visitors seemed to thoroughly enjoy the show. The total number of people who made the turnstiles click yesterday was 7,007, which is 723 greater than the third and biggest day of the exhibition held two years ago. The total attendance is now close to one thousand ahead of the first three days of the last exhibition, and the prospects are bright for a record breaking crowd today.

The outdoor attractions yesterday were witnessed by thousands of people both afternoon and evening and it goes without saying that everybody was delighted. The flying Dordens are the best gymnasts ever seen here, and Vallecita and her performing leopards are one of the great features of the show. The amusement hall attractions also continue to draw good houses, and everybody is pleased with them.

The crush in the main building was something tremendous in the evening, but the special constables kept the people moving in one direction and the best order prevailed. It was a well dressed, good natured crowd, and seemed to take much interest in the different exhibits and trade booths. The get rich quick gents on the pike drove a thriving trade both afternoon and evening.

In one of the booths on the lower side of the gallery of the main building Mr. P. B. Marsten is showing Security skirt binder, an article of great utility which is attracting great interest among the ladies. It is a very simple device and can be attached to any style of a skirt Mr. Marsten has them on sale at thirty five cents each and is finding the demand very brisk.
