

Events of a Day

SPECIAL TRAIN.

A special train will leave the C. P. R. depot at 10 o'clock this evening for St. John.

WM. FINNAMORE'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Wm. Finnamore which took place at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon was attended by the many friends of the deceased. The floral tributes were many and beautiful and well showed the esteem in which the late Mr. Finnamore was held. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. McConnell, with the Methodist choir in attendance. Interment was made in the Rural cemetery.

THE FIRST MOOSE.

Dr. T. T. Boyer of New York, who has been hunting big game on Young's brook with Mr. J. T. Somerville of Taymouth, as guide, returned to the city at noon today, bringing with him the first moosehead of the season. He enjoyed his outing very much and speaks highly of Mr. Somerville as a guide and moose caller.

NASON-NASON.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Nason at Rustagornish, was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday afternoon, when their daughter, Miss Lena Nason, became the wife of Mr. Bliss Nason of New Maryland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. H. McLeod, assisted by Rev. A. H. McLeod, in the presence of about eighty invited guests. Miss Helen Phillips was bridesmaid and Mr. Reid Jones was best man. The groom's present to the bride was a Karm organ, and to the bridesmaid he gave a brooch. The happy couple will reside at New Maryland.

FORGOT HER RING.

On Tuesday, a lady guest at the Queen Hotel left a diamond solitaire ring in the washroom of the hotel. She now offers a suitable reward for its return. See adv.

Mr. Horace M. Eastman, C. E., a former U. N. B. student, now employed in a responsible position at Pittsburg is visiting friends here.

SERVICES APPRECIATED

Mr. R. S. Barker Thoughtfully Remembered by the Governor General.

Mr. R. S. Barker, the Lieutenant Governor's private secretary, who accompanied Earl Grey on his tour of the province, and made all arrangements for the trip, has been presented by His Excellency with a solid silver ink stand of excellent design, and stamped with the Grey crest. The gift was accompanied by the following note of explanation from His Excellency's private secretary:

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

Ottawa, Sept. 12, 1907.
My Dear Barker:
Their Excellencies desire me to send you the inkstand that accompanies this, as a souvenir of their visit to New Brunswick, and to thank you very heartily for all the assistance you rendered during their visit. Believe me

Yours truly,
ARTHUR F. SLADEN.
Mr. Barker naturally prizes the beautiful gift very highly, and is much pleased at the thoughtfulness and appreciation of his services shown by His Excellency.

SEIZED HIS PRESS!

VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 19.—(Special)—The Grand Trunk Pacific engineer at Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon took forcible possession of the Press of The Prince Rupert Empire.

The Press has been lying boxed on the wharf ever since July 9 as the Grand Trunk Pacific refused John Houston, ex-M. P. P., its proprietor, leave to erect it on their premises, and he has since had his printing done in the coast cities. Houston's intention was to have the press set up in the Indian reserve when the Company took the above action.

Houston has had a writ issued and a provincial constable will bring the company into court.

NARROW ESCAPE

SACKVILLE, N. B., Sept. 19.—(Special)—The residence of the late Mr. Amos Ogden, now occupied by Professor Miller, the new Theological professor at Mount Allison, had a narrow escape this morning.

Professor Miller was awakened about five o'clock by thick smoke, which came from the wash room, which was discovered to be enveloped in flames.

With the assistance of neighbors the blaze was extinguished, but not before considerable damage had been done.

The origin of the fire is a mystery.

CANADA AND FRANCE

OTTAWA, Sept. 19.—(Special)—The Franco-Canadian trade treaty was signed today in Paris by the British ambassador and the Canadian ministers of Finance and Marine.

Mr. Fielding left for London to interview the foreign office, and will sail for Canada on the Victorian Sept. 27th.

LABOR CANDIDATE

LONDON, ONT., Sept. 19.—(Special)—The Trades and Labor council last night decided to place a candidate in the field to contest the seat in the Commons, made vacant by Mr. Hyman's resignation.

It was also decided to call a mass meeting of labor unionists to name the candidate.

THE STOCK MARKET.

MONTREAL, Sept. 19.—(Special)—In a generally weak market Steel went down this morning and Coal remained steady.

Steel common went down yesterday from 22½, under selling pressure today 21½, closing at 21½.

There was further pressure today, and after opening at 21½ bid, considerable stock was thrown on the market at 21. Later the price declined to 20½, but rallied to 21½.

Dominion Coal was steady at yesterday's advance, selling at 46.

The other leading features were: Montreal Power, 43.

Toronto Railway, 99½.

Twin City, 42.

Toledo, 80.

Detroit, 65.

Lake of the Woods Milling, 73.

Excursion from St. John.

An excursion from St. John arrived shortly before eleven o'clock this morning. It brought over two hundred visitors for the exhibition, including the St. Mary's Band, which played at the exhibition this afternoon.

About six hundred North Shore people came over this morning on the Intercolonial excursion. This, with the big crowds on the regular trains, should make Thursday a record day for attendance.

PERSONAL MENTION.
