the appearance of the women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness the fact in renewed comeliness. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Periodic Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. Made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

dominant features of the September issue of Rod and Gun and Motor Sports in Canada, published by W.
J. Taylor, at Woodstock, Ont. Fishing, shooting, exploration, natural history, mountaineering, club house building, how to carry firearms, are only some of the matters in which all sportsmen are interested which find places in the pages of this number.
Fishing incidents in Newfoundland, New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario, and British Columbia are recorded, each one having an interest all its own, and to those who have fished in the different provinces each will bring back pleasant recollections of days gone by, and hopeful anticipations of others to come. In the Heart of the Rockies is quite as delightful in its way as Nova Scotian woodcock is in another; and How to Carry Firearms is as useful and as informing as the full and interesting summary of the new Game Laws of Alberta. The Alpine Club records are of value not merely to those directly interested but also to a far larger number who believe in the active outdoor life that is doing so much to retain our national vigour and will prevent the crowded cities from dragging us into national degeneracy. The dog hunters are still at it, and no doubt mean to die game when death may come to them—if it ever does. The departments are all healthy and the specially written account of the Dominion Trap Shooting Tournament is one that every trap shooter should read. Altogether the number well sustains the excellent reputation its predecessors have made.

A BECOMING BERTHA GOWN
FOR SUMMER.

The combination of simplicity and elegance in the attire is very generally regarded as an infallible indication of the sensibilities in the wearer; hence the dainty gown in the sketch, which so attractively presents this desirable combination, will certainly appeal to the woman of taste and refinement. The novel effect of the plaited waist is emphasized by the graceful jacket bertha, which may be decorated either with piping, embroidery or stitching. The sleeves which may be made either of elbow or full length, are daintily finished with narrow plaitings. The 3 piece skirt presents the latest development of the circular model, the arrangement of the plaits pleasingly accentuating the lines of the figure.
As shown in the drawing the gown is constructed of ecru rajah, the waist being made of lawn of the same shade, its upper portion only being tucked and embroidered. In the smaller sketch the waist is shown tucked its entire length. For the pattern size 24 yards 27 inch material will be needed for the waist, and 2 yards of the same width for the skirt.

Two patterns—6952, 5 sizes, 32 to 40 inches bust.
6956, 6 sizes, 32 to 26 inches bust.

The price of these patterns is 20 cents, but either pattern will be sent on receipt of 10 cents.

Measurements—Waist _____ Bust _____

CAUTION.—Be careful to send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure you need only mark 32, 34, or whatever it may be.
When in waist measure, 32, 24, 26, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When miss-or child's pattern write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "yards." Patterns cannot reach you in less than three or four days from the date of order. The price of each pattern is 10 cents in cash or postal order or stamps.

DAINTY DESSERTS.

Chocolate Almond, Tapioca and Banana Sponge and Pineapple Mousse.

Chocolate Almond Delight.—Dissolve one package of raspberry gelatin in a "half pint of boiling water. Strain when it begins to harden and press in one-half pound of chocolate almonds.
When firm, serve in college ice glasses, with a spoonful of whipped cream over each glass and an almond in the center of each.

Tapioca and Banana Sponge.—Sprinkle half a cup of tapioca and two-thirds of a cup of sugar into one pint of boiling water, add half a teaspoonful of salt and cook in a double boiler, stirring occasionally. When the tapioca is transparent, add the juice of two lemons and the whites of two eggs beaten until stiff. Spread over sliced bananas and serve with cream and sugar or with a cold boiled custard previously made. This dish may be made with canned peaches or quinces, using the juice of the fruit instead of water.

Pineapple Mousse.—One tablespoonful of granulated gelatin, one-quarter cup of cold water, one cup pineapple syrup, one tablespoonful lemon juice, one tablespoonful of curacao, one cup sugar, one quart heavy cream. Put the contents of a can of sliced pineapple in a saucepan and bring to the boiling point. Drain and to one cup of syrup and gelatin soaked in cold water and dissolved in boiling water add lemon juice, sugar and curacao. Strain and cool. As the mixture thickens cut and fold in the whipped cream. Mold and pack in ice and salt, using four measures of ice to one of salt. Let stand four hours or longer. Serve in glass dish surrounded with slices of pineapple.

Public Day.

"Public day" is a term applied in southern Delaware and on the Eastern Shore of Maryland to those days when by concerted agreement, the result of old tradition, country folks come to town to "do their trading."

Volunteer Firemen.

The first volunteer fire company in the United States was at Philadelphia in 1736.

A report of great interest was made by the Australian royal commission on Old-Age Pensions. The commission was appointed in 1905 to consider the existing state schemes and to devise a scheme for the whole Commonwealth. The systems at present in force are:

New South Wales: Maximum pension 10s a week; for married people 7s 6d a week each; may be claimed at the age of 65. Income, including pension, must not exceed £52 a year.
Cost to state of 22,000 pensioners, £508,000.

New Zealand: Maximum 10s a week; in case of a married couple, joint income, including pension, must not exceed £90. May be claimed at 65, if claimant has been 25 years resident. Police magistrates administer, without boards, at trifling cost. Pensioners, 11,770; total cost, £325,000.

Victoria: Maximum 8s a week; at 65, or earlier in case of dangerous or unhealthy occupations; 20 years' residence. Income, including pension, must not exceed £20. Pensioners, 11,452; cost, £205,000.

The commissioners recommend a scheme of old-age pensions for the whole Commonwealth to be paid out of the consolidated revenue, as follows:

Maximum 10s a week, payable at 65, or, on conditions, at 60 in case of permanent infirmity. Payments fortnightly through postoffice. Total income, including pension, not to exceed £52. Estimated cost £2,500,000 a year.

The commissioners lay down that pensions should be granted as a right, not as a charity, though they propose that persons of drunken or disreputable habits shall be ineligible, and that in certain cases the allowances shall be suspended. They also suggest that a penalty shall be imposed for supplying a pensioner with intoxicating drink. They do not think the institution of pensions will discourage thrift, and suggest that the Government should encourage a spirit of independence by establishing an assurance system which would enable those wishing to provide for old age to do so with the certainty afforded by a Government guarantee.

TWO MEN SNOWED UP.

Hut Buried In Drift and They Have to Tunnel Out.

An Englishman named Morgan and a German friend of his have had a terrible experience on the Salzfluh, a mountain 9,235 feet high.
They left Schruns, on the frontier of Switzerland and Austria, with the intention of ascending the mountain on skis, and they took no guides with them.

Nothing was heard of them, and at the end of three days a search party was organized. It found no trace of the missing men, and Mr. Morgan and his friend were given up for lost.

They crawled into Schruns half dead from want of food and exhaustion.

When near the summit of the Salz-fluh they were overtaken by a blinding snowstorm, and after wandering about aimlessly for some time they discovered a hut, in which they took shelter.

Hour after hour the snow fell, until the hut was buried beneath it and they were close prisoners. Their only food for four days was two loaves of bread, and melted snow was their only drink.

Then Mr. Morgan, in desperation, burrowed through the drift round the hut, and forced a passage through the snow, which was waist-high in the open, followed by his German companion, who was even more exhausted than he was.

Both of them are reported to be well on the road to recovery.

The Queer Parson Bird.

Two splendid male specimens of the peo honey eater were recently acquired by the Zoological Society. Its throat is adorned with small white feathers, which, from their reserblance to clerical bands, have gained for it the name "parson bird." Its metallic green plumage, with bronze and purplish reflections, is very beautiful. Its long and rather slender beak is curved; it has rather large feet and the length of its tail is considerable.

Although somewhat rarely seen in this country alive, this bird is plentiful on both the north and south islands of New Zealand. It is a good songster and mimic, and its lively temperament renders it a most interesting cage bird. Its food consists of berries, insects, and honey. It has an extensible tongue, the tip of which is forked, and, being covered with fibres, forms a kind of brush, most useful to the parson bird in gathering its food.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Home For Lost Cats.

Lady Deices opened in the Fulham road, London, a home for lost cats, which may fairly be described as a cats' paradise. The only qualification for admission is homelessness, and the accommodation provided is most luxurious.

Outside there is a large wired-in run for exercise, furnished with a tree and a bed of mould. Inside, the sleeping quarters for the winter time consist not only of little wooden huts but of shelves, arranged like berths in a ship's cabin, which the inmates reach by vigorous springs from one to another of a series of brackets.
The daily menu is most elaborate, and meals are served as follows:

Dinner—Cats' meat; fish, two days a week; or for invalids, gruel or rice, vegetables.

Tea (at four o'clock)—Milk.
Supper (at eight)—Same as dinner.
Nightcap (at nine)—Milk.

More "Jungle" Complaints.

Dr. Blyth has reported to the Mary-lebone Borough Council that a few of the canned meats from America, which he analyzed, were distinctly unfit for human food and made from dirty material, "probably enough the sweepings of the factory." Samples of the latest consignments of canned foods from the United States examined were wholly unobjectionable.
