STAND BY THE MATRON

Hospital Enquiry Closed---Nurses Withdraw
Resignations---Committee of Board to Draw up Report.

At the adjourned meeting of the trustees of Victoria public hospital, held last evening, there were present Senator Thompson in the chair, and Mr. T. C. Allen, Mr. W. Kitchen, Mr. M. Tennant, Dr. Venward, Mr. F. St. John Bliss, Mr. A. H. F. Randolph, and Mr. J. H. Barry.

It was long after eight o'clock before business began as it was rumored that other charges would be forthcoming respecting the internal management of the hospital, but nobody appearing the investigation was closed and the trustees commenced deliberation upon the facts as presented.

Mr. Barry from committee appointed to interview the undergraduate nurses offering them an opportunity to withdraw their resignation if they desired, before final action is taken, submitted a report.

Mr. Barry submitted a copy of the type written statement handed the nurses so that there would be no misunderstanding on their part, of the feeling of the trustees.

It set forth that their ultimatum to the trustees was certainly most ill advised. If they had complaints they would have received careful attention and consideration at any time but they should not have been accompanied with their resignation. The Board of trustees must continue to be the governing body of the hospital.

After reciting some of the disadvantages likely to follow action of the nurses, they were invited to reconsider their resignation.

The secretary read a letter from the nurses in which they say that after a conference with Mr. Barry, a committee from Board, they have decided to withdraw their resignations and this is signed by Misses Hattie G. Brown, Jessie W. Arbuckle, Helen Smith, J. M. Gilmore, Laura B. Slipp, May E. Barry, Lydia L. Bryenton.

The matron was then invited before the Board and the whole situation carefully discussed.

REV JOHN HUGHES DEAD.

Veteran Baptist Clergyman Called Away Suddenly at St. John.

(Special to Herald.)

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 14.—Rev. John P. Hughes, the second oldest Baptist preacher in eastern Canada, died very suddenly here this morning.

He went to the bathroom to wash and succumbed to heart failure. He was 81 years old and had been fifty three years in the Baptist ministry.

He was ordained at Hillsboro, Albert County, in 1853, and filled pastorates in many parts of the province.

He leaves one son and one daughter by his first wife, and his second wife, who was formerly Miss Turner, of Riverside, Albert County, survives him. Rev. B. N. Hughes, who died several years ago, was a brother.

A CHILD'S DEATH.

Allan Lewis Arbo, the two week old child of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Arbo, died this morning from heart failure. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock with services by Rev. Willard MacDonald. John G. Adams is the undertaker in charge.

The friends of Dr. J. B. Crocker will regret to learn that there is no improvement in his condition today, although he is resting a little easier than was the case yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Colchester of Amherst and their son, Master Charles Colchester, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Allen, Campbell street.

Is he kind to his family? You bet he is. He'd get his allowance cut off otherwise.
