Do not subsist on ice cream soda for luncheon. The body requires just as much good nourishment in hot weather as it does in cold, provided that heating foods are dispensed with.

Try to take a little exercise in the evening, when it is cool. The system requires a certain amount of exercise, even in hot weather, although it may seem very hot to walk or do gymnastics.

WEAK, SICKLY PEOPLE.

Will Find New Strength Through the Use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

A great many young men and women are suddenly seized with weakness on the least exertion, and become pale and thin. They do not feel any specific pain—just weakness. But that weakness is dangerous. It is a sign that the blood is thin and watery; that it needs building up. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will restore lost strength because they actually make new, rich blood—they help you. Concerning them Mr. Alfred LePage, of St. Jerome, Que., says: "For several years I have been employed in a grocery and up to the age of seventeen I had always enjoyed the best of health. But suddenly my strength began to leave me. I grew pale, thin and extremely weak. Our family doctor ordered a complete rest and advised me to remain out of doors as much as possible, so I went to spend several weeks with an uncle, who lived in the Laurentides. I was in the hope that the bracing mountain air would help me but it didn't, and I returned home in a deplorable state. I was subject to dizziness, indigestion and general weakness. One day I read of a case very similar to my own cured through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to give them a trial. After taking four boxes of the pills I felt greatly improved, so continued their use for some time longer and they fully cured me. I am now able to go about my work as well as ever. I did and have nothing but the greatest praise for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

The blood—good blood—is the secret of health. If the blood is not pure the body becomes diseased or the nerves shattered. Keep the blood pure and disease cannot exist. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make rich, red blood—that is why they cure anaemia, backache, kidney trouble and tae secret ailments of girlhood and womanhood. Sold at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by all medicine dealers or by mail from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Why and Whether.

Things that I'm wanting to know are so many.

Hundreds and thousands of questions, no less.

I'd like to ask, but the answers are so many.

How can I guess, how can I guess?

Why is the sun in the winter so chilly?

Is it all frosted and covered with snow?

Couldn't we warm it, or would that be silly?

I'd like to know, I'd like to know.

What makes the year very old in December?

Seems to me really the same when it's new.

Am I too little, or can't you remember?

I'm asking you, I'm asking you.

Is it a war in the sky makes the thunder?

Does the young weather come up through the well?

When I am old I shall know, but I wonder

Whether you'll tell, whether you'll tell.

—Youth's Companion.

Her Fear.

A little girl remarked to her mother, "I am not afraid in the dark."

"Of course not," said the mother.

"I was afraid once, though, when I went into the pantry to get a tart," she added.

"What were you afraid of?"

"I was afraid I would not find the tarts," was the reply.

No Need to Cry.

"Don't cry, Buster," said Jack after the catastrophe. "Napoleon didn't cry every time his brother hit him accidentally on the eye."

"I know that," retorted Buster. "Napoleon did all the hittin' on the eye himself."

Chinese Women.

Chinese women under fifty years of age have been forbidden to worship in the temples at Tientsin.

REMARKABLE LOW FARES TO WESTERN POINTS.

The I. C. R. Offers Some Genuine Bargains in Transportation.

As will be seen by the announcement in another column, there will be excellent opportunities on the 19th, 20th, and 21st, of September, for those who are contemplating a Western trip via the Intercolonial Railway. On these dates the I. C. R. will issue special excursion return tickets from this city to Montreal for $11.70 with correspondingly low fares to such points as Port Huron, Detroit, Saginaw, Bay City and Grand Rapids, Michigan, Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis, and to Cleveland, Ohio. The return fare to Detroit for instance is $26.70 and to Chicago $29.70.

These tickets are good for returning up to October 7th. There will be also special round fares to Montreal on September 18th, and Oct. 1st and 8th, good for return up to Oct. 17th. These are the cheapest fares of the year to the points mentioned above and might be properly looked upon as genuine bargains in the way of railway transportation.

Redd—Outin my car with a party yesterday.

Greene—Yes.

Came to a wide, deep stream which we could not ford.

No bridge you could run the machine over?

No.

What in the world did you do?

Just sat there and thought it over.

Some people are so genial and hearty that they are regular moving health resorts.

Origin of Two Familiar Proverbs.

It was the habit of the great Greek painter Apelles never to let a day pass, however busy he chanced to be, without practicing his hand by tracing the outline of some object, a custom which has now passed into a proverb—"No day without a line." He also made it a rule, when he had finished a canvas, to exhibit it to the view of those who visited his studio, while he himself, hidden behind the picture, would listen to their comments. It is said that once a shoemaker censured him for having painted a pair of shoes with one latchet too few. Next day the shoemaker, revisiting the studio, saw that the painter had corrected the mistake. He then began to criticise the leg of the portrait, upon which Apelles came forward and reminded him that a shoemaker should not go beyond the shoes, a piece of advice which has also crystallized into a proverb, "Let the cobbler stick to his last."—Ply the Elder.

At Sea in a Coffin.

It was the French assassin Lupi who escaped to sea from Cayenne in a coffin. He managed to get some nails, tar and cotton, and one dark night he got into the coffin shed. He selected a fine, stanch and seaworthy coffin and fastened the lid in order to turn it into a deck, leaving a cockpit sufficient to enable him to crawl in. He calked all the joints as well as he could, and when this work was finished he made a pair of paddles out of two planks. Then he brought out his craft with great precaution. Without much difficulty he reached the water's edge. Silently and slowly he proceeded in the hope of reaching either Venezuela or British Guiana, 150 nautical miles distant. Fortunately or unfortunately for Lupi, the steamer Abeille, returning from the Antilles, off Paramaribo picked him up, half drowned and almost in a fainting condition, and a few hours later he was in irons in his cell.

A Natural Inquiry.

Wife—What do you think of my new hat, dear?
Husband—Fine. How much was it an acre?

A Matter of Location.

Nan—How's this for a picture hat?
Fan—It's good enough for the comic supplement.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They after one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., TOLEDO, OHIO.

Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

The Reader Who Skips.

A good work of fiction, whether in prose or in verse—we are here speaking only of good works—is a work of art and can be rightly enjoyed only by entering into sympathy with the artist's mind and accepting his work according to his intention. In a perfect poem the place of every word, in a perfect novel the place, if not of every word, of every episode and of every paragraph, is important, and the reader who skips throws away the pleasure he has meant to derive from the harmony of composition, in which very possibly the beauty of the whole may chiefly consist, and despises the best part of the artist's labor. He might as well go to see a good play and then willfully miss every alternate scene—Exchange.

Atmospheric Temperature.

The temperature of the atmosphere cools on an average about 1 degree for every 300 feet that we ascend or warms at the same rate as we descend. The mean temperature at the north pole is 0 and at the equator between 80 and 90 degrees. We can, therefore, get into a temperature 1 degree colder for every seventy or eighty miles that we travel north and in a temperature 1 degree warmer for every seventy or eighty miles that we travel south.

The Small Unwashed.

The Lapp baby belongs to the class of the small unwashed. When its mother is in a particularly neat frame of mind she daubs fat on it, and that is all the bathing that the youngster is likely to get, as it outgrows fondling and fat dubbing in time.

Do not whip a frightened horse. It only adds to his fright.

IT ACTUALLY DESTROYS THE CAUSE.

That's why catarrh is invariably cured by inhaling "Catarrhoxone." The healing vapor spreads to every part of the breathing organs. Germs infecting the tissues of the nose, throat and lungs are killed. Nothing is left to cause inflammation. Spots that are sore are healed. Discharge is cleared away and catarrh becomes something of the past. Use "Catarrhoxone" and your recovery is guaranteed. Two sizes, 25c. and $1.00 at all dealers.

A glass of muddy water, explained De Broque, settles itself if allowed to stand.

IT DOES CURE WOMANLY ILLS.

"I feel, it my duty" writes Mrs. S. Mead of Frasersville, Ont., "to let you know that sometimes previous to the change of life I suffered more than I could tell. Neighbors told me Ferrozone was the only remedy and their advice was good. Ferrozone put a stop to my pain and sickness, had a direct action on my troubles and relieved from the start. I safely passed the turn, and now enjoy perfect health and rest. No womanly medicine can be better than Ferrozone for female weakness of every kind, 50c. per box at all dealers.
