Everything is in readiness for the opening of the big exhibition this evening, and it goes without saying that it will be greater and grander than ever before.

The weather conditions are ideal for the opening, and the city is already thronged with visitors, and the arrival of every train and steamboat adds to the number. The exhibition building and grounds today present a scene of bustling activity. Exhibits for all departments have been pouring in since yesterday, and a small army of men are at work putting things in shape for the opening. The task is not a small one by any means, and by noon on Monday at the very latest everything will be in ship shape.

The I. C. R. freight which arrived yesterday afternoon brought the first consignment of live stock for the exhibition. It consisted of pure bred sheep, Shorthorn and Ayrshire cattle, and one or two horses and pigs. Of the sheep sixteen are the property of Mr. George Symes of Minudie, Cumberland county, N. S., and twenty-eight belong to Mr. James Baker of Barronsfield in the same county. Mr. Baker has also five head of Ayrshire and one colt. Mr. Baker, though a young man, is one of the most successful farmers in his county, and his name is certain to figure in the prize list.

A herd of fourteen head of Shorthorn cattle belonging to C. R. Barr of Port Williams, N. S., arrived yesterday afternoon by the I. C. R. The herd is headed by Deedsie Chief, a handsome and well proportioned bull, three years old.

The first installment of the live stock exhibit of Logan Bros. of Amherst, consisting of Holsteins and sheep arrived yesterday, and they have more coming from Sherbrook fair this evening.

A fine herd of Holstein cattle from Brooklands, Mr. C. H. Giles' farm, arrived last evening, and are attracting much attention. Mr. Giles is very successful as a breeder of Holsteins and never fails to figure in the prize list.

Mr. F. P. Robinson of Nashwaakiss, vice president of the Agricultural society, has a splendid exhibit of live stock. It consists of two head of pure bred Jersey cattle, a number of sheep and a colt. The herd of Jerseys is headed by the bull Prince Louis, said to be one of the finest in the province.

A large amount of work still remains to be performed at the exhibition buildings, and it may be Monday afternoon before everything is in proper working order. The lighting service this year which is in charge of Elmer McGinn, with D. J. Stockford and Herbert Stevenson as assistants is better than ever before. A modern high speed engine and two large dynamos have been installed and both are and incandescent lights will be provided.

Exhibits of all kinds have been pouring in today from all quarters and Secretary Hooper and superintendents of the several departments are having a very busy time of it. So far the work of housing the live stock is going on with out the slightest confusion, and there has been no cause for complaints on the part of exhibitors.

Mr. A. C. Archibald of Truro, N. S., one of the most successful stock breeders in the maritime provinces, arrived this morning by the I. C. R. with twenty-six head of pure bred cattle, twelve Ayrshires and fourteen Shorthorns. He left home with only eleven Ayrshires, but one of the cows dropped a calf on the train last night making the even dozen.

Mr. Walter McMonagle of Sussex, who has been attending the Sherbrook fair arrived by this morning's train from that place bringing with him eighteen head of Guernsey cattle. He also has a herd of Jerseys coming from Sussex. Mr. McMonagle made almost a clean sweep at the Sherbrook fair.

St. William VanHorn's exhibit, consisting of Dutch belted cattle, French Canadian Jerseys and Tamworth pigs arrived from St. Andrews by the C. P. R. this morning.

The gate keepers and police employed for the exhibition, went on duty this morning. Every precaution will be taken to prevent thefts and no disorderly conduct on the grounds will be permitted.

The promoters of the exhibition are looking sharply after the dollars this year, and should derive a much larger revenue than usual from the sale of concessions. They have even sold the exclusive right to take snap shot pictures on the grounds, and the gate keepers have instructions not to allow camerists to be taken through the gates. It would seem that in this respect the limit has about been reached.

There are upwards of one thousand entries in the poultry department but Superintendent Thomas is having no difficulty in finding places for them. Hurst and McFarland of St. John have entered 110 birds.

Mr. Robert Robertson, superintendent of the Nappan experimental farm, arrived last evening with a splendid exhibit of grains, fruits etc. which promises to be one of the best attractions of the exhibition.

Lieutenant Governor Tweedie, who is to formally open the exhibition, arrived from Chatham by the I. C. R. at noon today and is domiciled at the Queen. He will visit the exhibition grounds this evening in company with Private Secretary Barker and Major Brings, A. D. C. and will be met near the main entrance by President Campbell and officers of the society and escorted to amusement hall, where the opening ceremony will take place. There will be addresses by President Campbell, Governor Tweedie, Hon. L. P. Farris and Mayor McLeod. Afterwards the Lieutenant Governor and other visitors will be shown the exhibits by President Campbell.

The special attractions arrived by the noon train today and will give their first performance this evening. There will be a band concert by the 71st. band.

THE WEATHER.
