

Events of a Day

ENJOYABLE OUTING.

A party composed of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Allen, Miss Lenore Allen, Miss Margaret Thompson, Mrs. D. Lee Babbitt, Mr. P. E. Winslow, and Mr. Alex Thompson returned last night by the late train from a pleasant sojourn at Three Island camps, Magaguadavic Lake.

PERRY-SCHNELL.

Mr. Benjamin D. Perry, who came here from Carleton County recently to accept a position in Mr. W. R. Logan's grocery store, was married last evening to Miss Emma M. Schnell. The ceremony was performed at the Gibson Baptist parsonage by Rev. H. R. Boyer.

DESERTERS CAPTURED.

Two soldiers named Houghton and Arnold are in the county jail here on a charge of deserting the corps, having been arrested yesterday by Police Sergeant Phillips and Constable Hawthorn. Houghton formerly belonged to H. Company, and left during the camp at Sussex on leave, failing to return. Arnold, who came to the city to give himself up, was a member of C. Company. Q. M. Sergt. Galloway is arranging to have both men sent to Halifax for trial.

SOLDIER DISAPPEARS

Quite a sensation has been created among the members of H. Company of the R. C. R. at Camp Petewawa, Ont. by the strange disappearance of Private Howell a few days ago. He informed some of his comrades that he was going bathing and soon afterwards disappeared. The river has been dragged for his body, but no trace of it has been found. As far as can be learned there is no evidence to show that the man took to the water.

TWEEDDALE & CO.

The up-to-date hardware people will close their store on Thursday at one o'clock so as to allow their clerks to attend the horse races.

Mr. Fred D. Miles of St. John was at the Queen last night.

Mr. B. R. Armstrong, barrister of St. John, is among the guests at the Queen.

MUST STAND TRIAL.

Tom Davidd Committed for Murder of His Wife at McAdam.

The preliminary examination of Tom Davidd, the Assyrian, charged with murdering his wife, was resumed at the police court this morning, when some evidence of a rather sensational nature, reflecting on the character of the deceased, was brought out. The court room was filled with spectators of all colors and creeds, among the number being noticed several small boys, who seemed to be greatly interested in the proceedings. The prisoner had removed a two weeks' growth of whiskers from his face since the last court, and seemed to be in excellent spirits. There seems to be little doubt but that Mr. Hazen will endeavor to make it appear that his client was suffering from a brain storm when he did the shooting.

Mr. Kallel Aboud, An Assyrian, from Woodstock, was called to the stand and examined through Mr. Dominique Stephens, an interpreter. The witness is able to talk fair English, but the interpreter was sworn at the request of Mr. Hazen for the prisoner's benefit.

Examined by Mr. Barry the witness said he had been in this country for about five years. He saw the prisoner in Woodstock on Saturday, July 6th.

It was about six o'clock in the evening when he saw him and they shook hands.

The interpreter repeated the evidence over to the prisoner, who proceeded to comment on it. Another Assyrian volunteer gave his opinion and had to be silenced by the court.

The witness, continuing, said that Davidd told him he had been married nine years and had four children, two of whom had died. He saw Davidd again on Sunday morning when he came to witness' home, remaining about half an hour. At noon witness and his wife were at dinner at Abdallah Moses' house. Davidd's woman whom they called Julia, and Davidd, were also there. He then proceeded to give the names of a number of other Assyrians with unpronounceable names, and created much laughter in the court room. He went on to say that Tom Davidd's wife "sassed" her husband while at Abdallah Moses'. She said she did not want to go back with him, and if she did she would not live in the same house with him. Witness asked Julia her reason for not wanting to go with her husband and she replied she was afraid he would shoot her. Witness answered her that she need have no fear on that point. Her reply was that when he is home he is ugly enough.

The witness appeared to have acted the role of a peacemaker and finally secured a promise from the wife that if her husband would not abuse her she would go back with him. The witness asked Davidd about his threat to shoot his wife and he just laughed. All of the conversation took place in the presence of the prisoner. Witness afterwards saw Mrs. Davidd in the hospital at Woodstock and had a conversation with her. He saw her three or four times at the hospital and also saw her body after death. The funeral took place from Abdallah Moses' house.

To Mr. Hazen the witness said he saw Mrs. Julia Davidd first on June 6th. She said she came from Lowell. Julia lived in the same house as Charlie Nicholas all the time they were in Woodstock. He couldn't say that they came to Woodstock together, nor did he know it at the time. He did not know of his own knowledge that she was on terms of matrimony with Charlie Nicholas.

Mr. Barry—They both lived in the same town.

Mr. Hazen—We will show you before we get through whether they lived in the same town or not. The witness continuing said that there were only three beds and a lounge in Abdallah Moses' house and there was quite a crowd to occupy them.

MR. JAMES ANDREWS.

A Woodstock Assyrian, with a fierce moustache and sharp features was next called. His knowledge of English was rather slight, but in reply to Mr. Barry said he would prefer to testify in that tongue. He swore that he met Davidd for the first time in Woodstock on Sunday July 7th and went on to tell of a conversation they had. Davidd told him that the woman who came with Charlie Nicholas was his wife and had four children by him. His object in coming to Woodstock was to get his wife. Davidd asked if Charlie Nicholas was married and witness replied that he heard he was married to Julia. He said that "his soul was not sweet and he would give her a No. 32." The next day a party of Assyrians, including Davidd and his wife, visited the store kept by witness. Mrs. Davidd walked with Nicholas and Davidd followed behind like a dog.

To Mr. Hazen the witness said that Mrs. Davidd and Charlie Nicholas came to Woodstock seven or eight weeks before Julia died. They came on the same day, but not on the same train, so far as he knew. He had not seen either of them in Woodstock before that day. Julia said she was a girl and was going to be married to Charlie Nicholas. They stayed at witness' home and slept in one room up-stairs. The witness was sure of this and would not tell a lie.

Julia was sick on one occasion and was attended by Dr. Grant. He was sure that Julia and Nicholas lived together as man and wife.

Mr. Hazen wanted to know if it was not generally understood in the Assyrian colony that Julia and Nicholas were living together as man and wife.

Mr. Barry objected to evidence of this kind and quite a lively brush took place between the counsel.

The witness started in to answer the question, and had to be shut off by Mr. Barry. He was told that not to answer a question when an objection was raised.

The witness continuing said that he told Davidd that he thought Julia was married to Nicholas. He did not tell him that they were occupying the same room. He had not seen Charles Nicholas since last week.

Examined by Mr. Barry the witness said that Charlie and Mrs. Davidd boarded with Abdallah Moses and occupied one room.

Mr. Barry—"Are you able to say on your oath that there were any improper relations between Mrs. Davidd and Nicholas."

The witness—"I can't swear to that."

Mr. Barry—"Then what do you mean by coming here and making these dirty insinuations against the character of the dead."

Mr. Hazen objected to the manner in which the crown counsel was treating the witness, and pointed out that he had been called by the crown.

The recognition of the two Assyrians was then taken and the court adjourned until 2.30 for to take further evidence.

This afternoon Drs. Grand and Rankine of Woodstock testified in regard to their professional attendance on Mrs. Davidd while she was a patient at the Woodstock hospital. Dr. Grant swore under cross examination that he had attended her on a previous occasion, and was then under the impression that she was the wife of Nicholas.

The defendant called no witnesses and Davidd was formally committed for trial at the January circuit court.
