

Events of a Day

TENDER NOTICE.

Tenders are invited for the erection of the proposed extension to the Cathedral. See advt.

VALUABLE DONATION.

Mrs. Blair, widow of the late Hon. A. G. Blair, has donated to the Ottawa public library 130 valuable books of reference from the library of the deceased minister.

THE TAX NOTICES

City Marshal Roberts started on his round yesterday morning with the tax notices for 1907. He has about two thousand to serve and the job will likely keep him busy for at least a fortnight.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Mrs. Agnes Morrison, aged 70, a resident of St. John, (West end), was burned to death at 11 o'clock Saturday night in her home while carrying a lighted lamp, which exploded and before she could be rescued was burned to death.

THE ALTOONAS WON.

The Altoonas put it all over the Cathedral team in the intermediate league base ball match last evening. The Cathedral boys were very easy and failed to score a single run, while the Altoonas piled up thirteen. The Altoonas acquitted themselves in a manner that won great praise from the spectators, playing the game without a single error. Without a doubt they made the best showing yet made by a team in the league matches.

SAD NEWS.

Mrs. Bedford Green received word yesterday of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. R. Perkins, of St. Stephen. Mr. and Mrs. Green left by the evening train to attend the funeral.

THE KIRK PICNIC.

A meeting is to be held at the old Kirk at 9.15 p.m. Wednesday evening to make arrangements for holding the annual Presbyterian Sunday school picnic.

THE KING IS DEAD.

John H. Reid's Famous Shire Stallion is no More.

Mr. John H. Reid, Fredericton's veteran showman, is mourning the death of his famous English Shire stallion King of Trumps, which passed away at 7.30 o'clock this morning after an illness of three days from paralysis, complicated with pneumonia and old age. Mr. Reid's long experience with horses enabled him to make up his mind on Sunday that the King had not the ghost of a chance for recovery and although the animal's death was not a surprise, it came as a severe blow to him, and his grief found expression in a flood of tears. The carcass was hauled to Mr. Reid's farm at Lincoln, where it will be interred alongside the graves of other celebrated horses which he owned during his long career.

King of Trumps was the very best type of the English shire and was imported by a St. Louis gentleman, when two years of age, at a cost of six thousand dollars. Mr. Reid got possession of the animal by way of a slant in Boston four years ago, giving in exchange for him Kearsage, sr., which he valued at two thousand five hundred dollars, and seven hundred and fifty dollars in cash. His record in the show ring, according to Mr. Reid, is thirty-five first prizes and five diplomas, the latter being won over all breeds.

Mr. Reid says that the animal was on one occasion exhibited in a museum in New York, when ninety-seven thousand people paid a dime each for the privilege of seeing him. Since passing into Mr. Reid's possession the general public have been permitted to see him free of charge, although many would no doubt have willingly paid a fee for the privilege. The King seldom appeared in public in harness but his owner frequently exhibited him about the streets, with halter attached, and he kept the grass well trimmed in the vicinity of the barracks and post office.

Speaking of the King's death to a Herald representative this morning, Mr. Reid said with much emotion: "King of Trumps was the best horse ever brought to New Brunswick, barring none, and I consider his death a great loss to the community. I had lots of chances to sell him, but would not do it as I knew it would be impossible to get another half as good. King of Trumps was bred in the purple and his stock is the very best in the country. Since Saturday his colts have advanced in price one hundred dollars each as they cannot now be duplicated. King of Trumps was twenty-two years old, said Mr. Reid, with a long drawn sigh, "and I am eighty-five past. I feel as if I had lost the best friend I had in the world."

PICNIC TODAY.

The annual picnic of the Roman Catholic congregation of St. Marys is being held this afternoon on the grounds adjoining the church at that place.

A large number are present and the picnic promises to be the most successful held in recent years. It will be continued this evening. The Fredericton Brass Band is furnishing music.

Rev. Father Ryan the popular pastor of St. Anthony's congregation is receiving congratulations from his many friends at the picnic on the fifteenth anniversary of his ordination which he is celebrating to-day.

THE BANK TAX.

Under the new assessment law the minimum tax on banks is $300, and this amount has been assessed against the Bank of New Brunswick and Royal Bank agencies. It is understood that all the banks submitted sworn statements to the board of assessors, showing the amounts of loans and deposits. The rate of taxation on banks is one twelfth of one per cent. As the Bank of Montreal has lately opened a branch in Marysville, it is expected that its assessment will be reduced by at least $1,000 next year.

CHURCH RE-OPENING.

On Sunday next, July 21, the Pine Grove Methodist church will be re-opened for public worship. Rev. J. C. Berrie, chairman of the Fredericton district, will preach at 10.30. He will also preach at Shirley at 2.30, and Oromocto at 7 on the same day.

Pine Grove church has been renovated, sheathed and painted inside, and outside, and is now a very pretty country church.

MORE BIG TAXPAYERS ASSESSMENT.

The following names were not in the list of big taxpayers printed in the Herald on Saturday.

1906 1907
Everett Egerton W. $17.88 $61.40
Shea Dennis J. 83.06 61.40
Weddall John J. 59.56 57.17
The name of Mrs. E. F. Shipp should have read $70.50 in the 1907 column instead of $58.50 as printed.

HAD GREAT SPORT.

A party composed of Dr. Atherton and H. B. Atherton, of this city, and Dr. Finnie, of Baltimore, have returned from a fishing expedition to the famous Tracadie River, in Gloucester County. They had no difficulty in getting all the trout they wanted and they were of good size.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO MEN

We're getting ready for a Big Sale in our

Men's and Boy's Furnishing Dep't

We intend to put this Sale on

NEXT SATURDAY, JULY 20th.

We promise you that this will be the most startling selling event of the season, a rare opportunity for a man to secure wearables of almost any sort at prices next to nothing.

The Goods to be sold are all new, this season's stock, right up to the minute in every way.

The reason for such tremendous reductions as we shall make, is the backwardness of the season, lack of warm weather having interfered greatly with the sale of summer stock.

Bargains unprecedented will be offered.

Make your plans to attend.

More particulars in this paper later.
