A CRICKET SURPRISE

Fenety's Scratch Eleven Put it All Over
Capt. Ashburnham's Team

There are surprises in cricket as well as in horse races and political contests, and one of them occurred on Saturday afternoon at Sedley's field. The Fredericton team that played the Massachusetts' cricketers were challenged to play a scratch eleven at the head of which was Mr. H. G. Fenety, and it looked like an easy victory for the former but the scratch team by superior bowling, batting and fielding won out with a score of 79 to 26.

Only five of the team that opposed the Massachusetts players showed up but some good players were substituted without avail however.

Capt. Ashburnham's eleven went first to bat, and made a poor showing, Deedes being the only man to make any kind of a stand. The other wickets fell like snow before the mid-summer sun and all were down for 26.

Fenety Oxley, T. L. Fowler and his brother Lorne Fowler were the scratch eleven bowlers, and while the last named bowled only two balls, he took two wickets with them without any runs. The Scratch men were sharp on the field.

Capt. Fenety's eleven then went to bat and gave their opponents a some lively leather hunting, piling up 79 runs and winning by 53 runs.

At the bat Powell hit freely for 23 the score of the day, Belcher's 16 coming next, and no member of the eleven failed to score.

The bowlers of Capt. Ashburnham's team were Deedes, Galloway, T. Roberts and Bingham, and the last named got the most wickets.

DEATH OF D. McQUEEN.

Mr. Daniel McQueen, president of the Imperial Packing Co., Woodstock died at his home there Sunday, aged 57. He was formerly a conductor on the New Brunswick railway.

Mrs. W. E. Smith and her children are visiting Mrs. R. P. Foster at her summer camp at Ragged Point on the Kennebecasis.

Mr. J. Arthur Estey, the Acadia Rhodes scholar for this year, is here visiting his old home. He will leave for England, Oct. 1st for a course at Oxford University.

I know some saints who pray and believe in his blessed keeping, and then make a dive for the storm-cellar the first time the clouds have a little fracas.

Property Destroyed

FORT WILLIAM, ONT. Aug. 12. (Special)—The culmination of two days' heavy rain came on Saturday when from two o'clock in the afternoon until four o'clock next morning this district was swept by the worst storms of years.

As a result of the terrible storm, one man is dead, two others are in critical conditions, the spire of the Catholic Church is torn to pieces, the large warehouse of the John King Company is injured, and a dwelling house on Wiley Ave is partly unroofed.

The dead man is Mat Fissal, Finlander. In company with two companions, Fissal was on his way from the freight sheds Saturday night, when a bolt of lightning killed him instantly. His two companions were thrown to the ground and when found were unconscious. One of them remained in this condition for several hours.

Telephones and electric lights were put out of business.

Colonel Johnson was presented with a beautiful service sword in a solid silver scabbard. The sword was presented by Lieut. A. W. Neely on behalf of Colonel Johnson's old company, Lieut. Neely speaking as follows:

"Colonel Johnson, you have never been a particular friend of mine, but the other members of Company F have requested me to say a few good things about you, but the good things I know about you are not military and will be omitted on this occasion.

"I will say, on behalf of the company, that you have always treated every member in a fair, honorable and military manner, and when error or carelessness crept in on the drill ground you have treated them in a strenuous manner, as far as the English language would permit."—Honolulu Advertiser.
