MR. WOODRUFF'S MISSION

Official of the Interior Department Taking Photographic Views in New Brunswick

Mr. John Woodruff of the Interior Department at Ottawa was a passenger on the Victoria Saturday and returned to St. John Monday morning. Mr. Woodruff's mission was to take photographs of interesting or historic places and industrial scenes for use in his department. He is given a free hand to select his own subjects and as he is a gentleman of wide experience his views are exceptionally well chosen. He took thirty snaps from the deck of the steamer on his way up including several lumber rafts in tow of tugs, and some mills. He also got several snaps around Fredericton.

Speaking of the view along the river Mr. Woodruff said it was superior to anything he had ever seen, and as he has travelled all over Europe and a great deal of America, the statement means something.

In a short time Mr. Woodruff will return to this city for more views. He will also take a drive into the country, as he wishes some farming scenes.
