

Events of a Day

COUNCIL MEETING.

A special meeting of the city council will be held this evening to order the assessment for the ensuing year. The monthly committee meeting will be held this evening.

A GENEROUS OFFER.

Mr. Frank Grant, the enterprising merchant of Grand View, Southampton, has renewed his offer to present a bell to the Baptist church at that place. It is quite likely that the generous offer will be accepted, and arrangements will be made by the near future for the erection of a bell.

A FINE DISPLAY.

The beautiful decorations and elaborate display of Easter goods at Farrell Bros., gent's furnishing store, attracted much attention on Saturday, and the members of the firm came in for many well deserved compliments. As well might be imagined, this enterprising and up-to-date firm enjoyed a splendid Easter shopping.

PRESENTATION.

At the close of the service at the Cathedral last evening, Mr. F. B. Powell, the retiring organist, was presented by the choir with a beautiful silver headed cane. The presentation was made by Bishop Richardson in a few, well chosen remarks, to which Mr. Powell made a suitable reply. Mr. Powell has been appointed organist of St. John's Church, Smith's Falls, Ont., and is to leave for that place on Tuesday to enter upon his duties.

DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR.

Two young men belonging to Southampton, engaged in a fight a short time ago over a girl to whom both had been paying attention, and during the fracas one of the belligerents had his ear partly chewed off. A piece about the size of a twenty-five cent piece was taken right out of his ear, and a doctor whom he consulted afterwards told him that he was disgraced for life. The young man who did the chewing, has left the place, and should he return legal proceedings will be instituted against him.

INTERESTING LECTURE.

Rev. J. W. McConnell's lecture at the Methodist Church on Friday evening on "A Trip Through Palestine," attracted a large audience, and was most successful in every way. The reverend lecturer was in good form and gave a most entertaining and instructive account of a trip to the Holy Land, which he made a few years ago. The lecture was illustrated by upwards of one hundred magnificent views thrown upon a large screen. A hearty vote of thanks expressing the appreciation of the audience, was presented to the lecturer at the close.

BACHELORS' BALL.

The young bachelors of this city are to be hosts at a ball to be given at the Queen Hotel this evening. Hanlon's orchestra has been engaged to furnish music. The chaperones will be Mesdames A. R. Wetmore, O. H. Sharpe and A. T. McMurray.

ALL DOING WELL.

Fredericton and York County Boys
Prospering in Oregon.

The schools of the province are held in high esteem by the instructors of this great country, writes an Oregon correspondent to The Herald. A certificate from Provincial Normal School admits and entitles the holder to a life certificate in this state, without examination, which is a greater courtesy than extended to the schools of her sister states.

Some of the best known Fredericton boys here are George E. McLaughlin, Geo. L. MacGibbon, Douglas Lawson, Thomas Barker and Ephraim Stone. All are now in Portland.

Mr. McLaughlin is treasurer of the Northwestern Guarantee and Trust Company.

Mr. Lawson is chief accountant for the Title Guarantee and Trust Company.

Mr. MacGibbon is interested in the bond department of the Order of Reindeers.

Mr. Barker is the general solicitor for the Portland chamber of commerce.

Mr. Stone is a heavy land owner, (wheat) in Washington and makes his home in Portland.

A. L. Morris is general manager of the Oregon Brick and Tile Company. Harry O. Morris is superintendent of the same concern.

William Broderick, son of Mr. Wm. Broderick, formerly Broderick and Hurley, has charge of the Scranton Correspondence Schools in the northwest.

There are a large number of other former residents of the province near Portland. Judson Albright of Tripp Settlement, is living on a large ranch near Chico, California, which he owns. Charles Carlyle is in business at Lewiston, Idaho.

Many of Fredericton's sons are in and around Oregon. All are doing well and have the energy and push characteristic to the training and education instilled into them in their youth.

STAINERS' "CRUCIFIXION."

The beauties of this fine work have made it a favorite with music lovers and the public the world over. Probably it is well within the realm of say that the "Crucifixion" is seen in thousands of places every year as Easter comes round. We notice that, as usual, it is being given in St. John, Montreal, Toronto and other cities at this season for it is a work of which singers and hearers do not tire. The beautiful passages for the bass soloist in the first opening scene are very fine. The tenor solos which supply the narrative largely, are also dramatic and inspiring. The feature of the oratorio, is however, the splendid chorus work with its delicate shading, its dramatic force and variety.

The rehearsal of the "Crucifixion" by the Y. M. C. A. choral society and their friends, are going on with a swing, and a fine performance may be looked for on Wednesday evening next in Methodist Church.—d.

ATTRACTIVE WINDOWS.

The Easter furniture display in the windows of Colwell & Jennings is being much admired. The large double upper window is fitted up as a bedroom. These rooms are divided by portiers and curtains. The den is fitted up in an ideal manner with early English furniture and contains all the requisites for a man's solid comfort. The adjoining bedroom is nicely arranged and furnished in mahogany. It stands and bed all ready for use.

In the next window is a display of the latest makers of baby carriages, English pullman sleepers, and go-carts. Any person particularly interested in this display would do well to step inside and ask for prices. The lower window contains some choice samples of fancy china and wedgewood ware of which this firm carries a large stock.

FOR STREAM DRIVING.

Mr. David Wood of Rusiagornish will leave by the I. C. R. express this afternoon with a crew of men for Randolph and Baker's camps on Blue River, Quebec province, to make ready for stream driving. He will return about the 18th inst., to engage the balance of his crew for driving work.

BRIDGE OPEN.

The highway bridge, which has been closed since December, was opened to the public this morning. Men are now at work making some repairs to the railing. Teams are still crossing on the ice, although it is said to be getting unsafe in places, especially near the shores.

They were captured on Friday morning near Fairville by Detective Killen whom Mr. Phillips had notified of his loss. Messrs. Alby Grass and James Steeves went to St. John this morning after the prisoners and will convey them to the Sunbury County jail at Burley. It is likely that they will elect to have a speedy trial before Judge Wilson.
