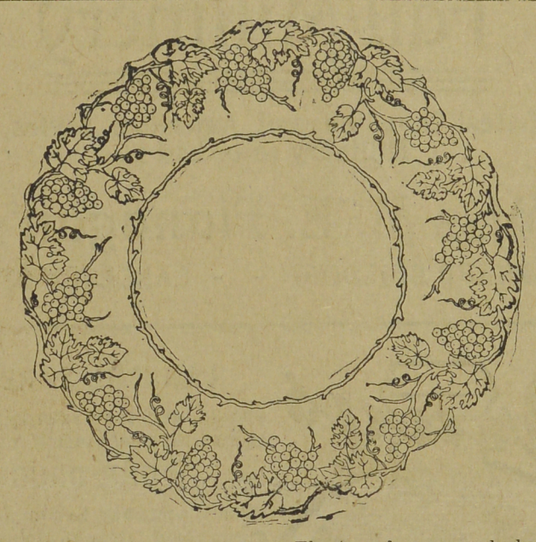
Fredericton, New Brunswick.



591.—Many women prefer to embroider some one thing of a more elaborate style than many small things which may be worked quickly; to suit this taste we present her with a handsome centerpiece in the always fashionable grape design. Though entailing more than the ordinary amount of work, this pattern will present, when finished, an elaborate article, the possession of which will make any woman feel proud. This pattern may be had already stamped on fine heavy linen, either white or tan, with plain or colored materials to work, or in a perforated pattern, which is simple to use, and includes complete materials and full directions for stamping. The prices are:

30-30, grape centerpiece; perforation, ½ size, 35c; stamped on heavy linen, 75c; on tan linen, 85c; material to work, white or colored, 55c.

By enclosing the price of the perforation or of the stamped materials to the Needlework Department of this paper, the design will be sent to any address without delay.

These perforations are far superior to the transfer patterns sold by some newspapers and magazines.

The transfers can only be used once, and often it is impossible to stamp an article from them, unless the transfer is used with exceeding care.

A perforated pattern may be used again and again, and there is no possibility of failure in stamping with them.

Any information in regard to the working of these designs will be gladly furnished if a letter of inquiry is addressed to the Needle-work Department of this paper.

Fill out the blank below, enclose the proper amount, and mail to,

THE LEMIEUX ACT

Prof. Walter C. Murray Formerly of Fredericton tells of Success of Governments Labor Legislatios

Halifax Chronicle: Prof. W. C. Murray, of Dalhousie University, delivered an interesting address on the Labor and Conciliation Act before the Board of Trade yesterday afternoon. He traced the growth of legislation of this character in Canada down to the recent Lemieux Act and dealt fully with the provisions of that measure.

PROF. MURRAY'S ADDRESS.

Governmental dealings with this subject, he said, is of comparatively recent development, and he then referred to the Conciliation Arbitration Act passed in 1900. All the methods proposed in this act were merely tenative. The duties of the Board under this act were more diplomatic than judicial and this conception has been followed out ever since. It was a very simple and flexible act, and it has been very successful, principally through the tact of the Deputy Minister of Labor. Two years later a bill regarding strikes on railways was brought up. All strikes and lock-outs were to be declared illegal and heavy penalties were imposed, but this bill was never adopted.

In 1903, a mild edition of the 1902 Act was adopted. Committees of Conciliation were appointed. The committee was given power to make a thorough investigation, but its findings were not obligatory. He dealt with the consolidation of these acts three years later, and then took up the Lemieux Act.

In 1907, the Lemieux Act was adopted. It was a revival of the old suggestion of 1902, some serious strikes having brought up the proposal of compulsory arbitration again. Under this act, before there is a strike, there must be an investigation, and a committee is appointed. A strike is illegal prior to and pending investigation, but after the committee have handed in their findings and they prove unsatisfactory, a strike is legal. Prof. Murray then dealt with a number of cases in which the act had been applied. The whole scope, he said, is to bring the parties together. Since the act came into force, two disputes on the Grand Trunk Pacific, one between the C.P.R. telegraphers, a strike in the Lethbridge coal fields, and in the Halifax freight handlers' dispute, in all about eight, have been discussed. The only failure has been at Springhill.

WORK ON THE GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC.

Mr. Collingwood Schreiber's Trip to Saskatoon.

OTTAWA, Ont., October 24.—Mr. Collingwood Schreiber, chief consulting engineer to the government, has just returned from an inspection trip of the Grand Trunk Pacific line now under construction between Portage la Prairie and Saskatoon. Mr. Schreiber reports that with favorable weather conditions for the next few weeks the rails will be laid all the way from Portage la Prairie to Saskatoon.

At present 123 miles of road are opened for traffic, and nearly another hundred is ready to be opened. "The great difficulty in the way of the constructors," says Mr. Schreiber, "is the lack of ties and the scarcity of labor." While he was in the west some three hundred men on one section of the road left work to go into the harvest fields, where the wages paid are as high as $3.50 per day. The contractors are now paying $2.25 per day for ornsinary per day for ordinary labor, and even at that figure find it almost impossible to obtain men. At Saskatoon everything has been in readiness for three weeks to begin laying the rails eastward to join the completed end of the line out from Portage la Prairie, but though several hundred men were booked for employment only thirty-two were obtainable.

The cost of the prairie section is averaging $23,000 and $24,000 per mile, although it is originally estimated that the cost would be only about $13,000 per mile. Wages were 50 per cent. higher than three years ago, and the cost of supplies runs from 50 to 100 per cent. higher. Settlement along the new line is going on rapidly, and Mr. Schreiber states that his observations of the crop conditions leads him to believe that the western farmers, in view of the high prices will realize as much in cash for grain this year as they did last year. By the end of next year he expects to see the G.T.P. trains running through Winnipeg to Edmonton.

BE A STRONG MAN.

Increase your vitality and nerve energy, restore vim and force to your overworked body. Ferrozone will do this as it did for Walter Wood of Beauport, N. B., who writes: "I can say Ferrozone has given me a new lease of life. A year ago I suffered so from nervous exhaustion I was scarcely able to drag myself around. My appetite was gone- I had no color or ambition and felt used up. One box of Ferrozone started me back to health. I took a number of boxes and my health was completely restored." For men who are tired, pale, nervous and thin-blooded nothing compares with Ferrozone, 50c. per box at all dealers.

"Well, you always drink alone a 15 cents a drink, two for 30 cents. You and I just had the two drinks for a quarter; therefore, by investing 25 cents you have saved a nickel. Good morning.

"I must confess," growls the dissatisfied tourist, "that I can't see why so many people want to come here. No scenery, no amusements, no good things to eat—absolutely no attractions!"

"Ah, senor," said the innkeeper, "zey come because we 'ave ze gr-ran' label to stick on ze luggage."—Success Magazine.

AFFLICTED WITH SORE EYES FOR OVER 33 YEARS.

THE DISHONEST RICH

Roosevelt Will Continue his Campaign Against Them,

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 22.— Speaking in the Railway Auditorium here today, President Roosevelt reaffirmed his intention of keeping up his his campaign against the holders of ill-gotten wealth.

"There has been trouble in the stock market and in the high financial world during the past few months," he said. "The statement has frequently been made that the policies for which I stand, legislative and executive, are responsible for that trouble. These policies of mine can be summed up in one brief sentence. They represent the effort to punish successful dishonesty. I doubt if these policies have had any material effect in bringing about the present trouble, but if they have it will not alter in the slightest degree my determination that for the remaining sixteen months of my term these policies shall be persevered in unswervingly. I will permit neither the demagogue upon one side nor the reactionary an the other to drive me away fram the course of policy which I regard as most vital for the well-being of this nation.

"I will stand against the poor man if he does wrong just as I will stand against the rich man if he does wrong. I will stand against crimes of brutal violence just as I stand against crimes of unscrupulous cunning. A crime is a crime, and it makes no difference whether the wrong is perpetrated by plutocracy or by a mob, by a capitalist or by a wage-worker. It is a difficult matter to punish the crimes of unscrupulous cunning, committed by men of great wealth, because as yet we hardly have the proper laws, and still more because the people themselves through their representatives and personally do not yet fully realize how serious the crimes are which are committed in this fashion. But remember this, that if we sit supine and let men of great wealth set before the country as a whole the standard of successful dishonesty, so that young men are taught tp think of business trickery, of evasion and violation of the law and stock gambling and swindling as the chief roads to financial success, not only do we bring about a deterioration of the public conscience as a whole, but as sure as fate we ultimately invite ignorant and vile reaction, which in trampling out the wrong will trample out each right at the same time, which in punishing the wealthy wrongdoer will inflict the punishment so brutally and so unskillfully as to confound in it many men who have done honestly and well."

Two Years Abed.—"For eight years I suffered as no one ever did with rheumatism; for two years I lay in bed; could not so much as feed myself. A friend recommended South American Rheumatic Cure. After three doses I could sit up. Today I am as strong as ever I was." Mrs. John Cook, 287 Clinton street, Toronto. Sold at the Central Pharmacy A. J. Ryan.—2.

"Judge, will you do me a great favor?" asked the lady who was about to be put upon the stand as a witness.

"Certainly, miss; what is it?"

"Will you please ask me my age before I take the oath?"—Yonkers Statesman.

QUINSY, SPRAINS AND SWELLINGS CURED.

"In November, 1901, I caught cold and had the quinsy. My throat was swollen so I could hardly breathe. I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me relief in a short time. In two days I was all right," says Mrs. L. Cousins, Otterburn, Mich. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment and is especially valuable for sprains and swellings. For sale by all dealers.
